Notes issued as Green Bonds

None of the Dealers accepts any responsibility for any environmental or sustainability assessment of any Notes issued as Green Bonds or makes any representation or warranty or assurance whether such Notes will meet any investor expectations or requirements regarding such “green” or similar labels (including but not limited to Regulation (EU) 2020/852 on the establishment of a framework to facilitate sustainable investment (the “EU Taxonomy Regulation”) and any related technical screening criteria, and the EuGB label or the optional disclosures for bonds marketed as environmentally sustainable and for sustainability-linked bonds under Regulation (EU) 2023/2631 (the “EU Green Bond Regulation”), Regulation (EU) 2019/2088 on sustainability-related disclosures in the financial services sector (“SFDR”) or any market standards or guidance, including green, sustainable or social bond principles or other similar principles or guidance published by ICMA (the “ICMA Principles”) and any implementing legislation and guidelines, or any similar legislation in the United Kingdom) or any requirements of such labels or market standards as they may evolve from time to time. None of the Dealers is responsible for (i) the use or allocation of proceeds for any Notes issued as Green Bonds, (ii) the impact, monitoring or reporting in respect of such use of proceeds or (iii) either the alignment of Notes issued as Green Bonds with the Issuer’s Green Finance Framework or the alignment of such Green Finance Framework with any applicable ICMA Principles, and nor do any of the Dealers undertake to ensure that there are at any time sufficient Eligible Projects (as defined herein) to allow for the full allocation of a sum equal to the net proceeds of any such issue of Green Bonds. The Second Party Opinion provides an opinion on certain environmental and related considerations and is not intended to address any credit, market or other aspects of an investment in any Notes, including without limitation market price, marketability, investor preference or suitability of any security. The Second Party Opinion is a statement of opinion, not a statement of fact and is current only as of the date on which it is issued. The Second Party Opinion is not, nor should be deemed to be, a recommendation by the Dealers or any other person to buy, sell or hold any Notes. No representation or assurance is given by the Dealers as to the suitability or reliability of the Second Party Opinion or any opinion, review or certification of any third party (including any post-issuance reports prepared by an external reviewer) made available in connection with an issue of Notes issued as Green Bonds, nor is any such opinion or certification a recommendation by any Dealer to buy, sell or hold any such Notes. As at the date of this Offering Circular, the providers of such opinions, reviews, certifications and post-issuance reports are not subject to any specific regulatory or other regime or oversight. The EU Green Bond Regulation will introduce a supervisory regime of external reviewers of European Green Bonds but this is not due to take full effect until 21 June 2026. The Second Party Opinion and any other such opinion, review, certification or post-issuance report does not form part of, nor is incorporated by reference in, this Offering Circular. Prospective investors must determine for themselves the relevance of any such opinion, review certification, or post-issuance report and/or the information contained therein. The Issuer’s Green Finance Framework and the Second Party Opinion may be subject to review and change, and may be amended, updated, supplemented and/or withdrawn from time to time.

In the event any such Notes are, or are intended to be, listed, or admitted to trading on a dedicated “green” or other equivalently-labelled segment of a stock exchange or securities market, no representation or assurance is given by the Dealers that such listing or admission will be obtained or maintained for the lifetime of the Notes.

Restrictions on distribution

The distribution of this Offering Circular and any Pricing Supplement and the offering, sale and delivery of the Notes in certain jurisdictions may be restricted by law. Persons into whose possession this Offering Circular or any Pricing Supplement comes are required by the Issuer and the Dealers to inform themselves about and to observe any such restrictions. For a description of certain restrictions on offers, sales and deliveries of Notes and on the distribution of this Offering Circular or any Pricing Supplement and other offering material relating to the Notes, see “Subscription and Sale”.

In particular, the Notes have not been, and will not be, registered under the United States Securities Act of 1933 (as amended) (the “Securities Act”) or with any securities regulatory authority of any state or other jurisdiction of the United States, and Notes in bearer form are subject to U.S. tax law requirements. The Notes may not be offered, sold or (in the case of Notes in bearer form) delivered within the United States or to, or for the account or benefit of, U.S. persons (as defined in Regulation S).

Neither this Offering Circular nor any Pricing Supplement constitutes an offer or an invitation to subscribe for or purchase any Notes in any jurisdiction in which such offer or invitation would be unlawful and should not be considered as a recommendation by the Issuer, the Dealers or any of them that any recipient of this Offering Circular or any Pricing Supplement should subscribe for or purchase any Notes. Each recipient of this Offering Circular or any Pricing Supplement shall be taken to have made its own investigation and appraisal of the condition (financial or otherwise) of the Issuer.

Product Governance under Directive 2014/65/EU (as amended)

A determination will be made in relation to each issue about whether, for the purpose of the MiFID Product Governance rules under EU Delegated Directive 2017/593 (the “EU MiFID Product Governance Rules”), any Dealer subscribing for any Notes is a manufacturer in respect of such Notes, but otherwise neither the Arranger nor the Dealers nor any of their respective affiliates will be a manufacturer for the purpose of the EU MiFID Product Governance Rules.

The Pricing Supplement in respect of any Notes may include a legend entitled “EU MiFID II Product Governance” which will outline the target market assessment in respect of the Notes and which channels for distribution of the Notes are appropriate. Any person subsequently offering, selling or recommending the Notes (a “distributor”) should take into consideration the target market assessment; however, a distributor subject to MiFID II is responsible for undertaking its own target market assessment in respect of the Notes (by either adopting or refining the target market assessment) and determining appropriate distribution channels.

Product Governance under UK MiFIR

A determination will be made in relation to each issue about whether, for the purpose of the UK MiFIR product governance rules set out in the FCA Handbook Product Intervention and Product Governance Sourcebook (the “UK MiFIR Product Governance Rules”), any Dealer subscribing for any Notes is a manufacturer in respect of such Notes, but otherwise neither the Arranger nor the Dealers nor any of their respective affiliates will be a manufacturer for the purpose of the UK MiFIR Product Governance Rules.

The Pricing Supplement in respect of any Notes may include a legend entitled “UK MiFIR Product Governance” which will outline the target market assessment in respect of the Notes and which channels for distribution of the Notes are appropriate. Any distributor should take into consideration the target market assessment; however, a distributor subject to the UK MiFIR Product Governance Rules is responsible for undertaking its own target market assessment in respect of the Notes (by either adopting or refining the target market assessment) and determining appropriate distribution channels.

IMPORTANT – EEA RETAIL INVESTORS: If the Pricing Supplement in respect of any Notes includes a legend entitled “Prohibition of Sales to EEA Retail Investors”, the Notes are not intended to be offered, sold or otherwise made available to and should not be offered, sold or otherwise made available to any retail investor in the European Economic Area (“EEA”). For these purposes, a retail investor means a person who is one (or more) of: (i) a retail client as defined in point (11) of Article 4(1) of MiFID II; or (ii) a customer within the meaning of Directive (EU) 2016/97, where that customer would not qualify as a professional client as defined in point (10) of Article 4(1) of MiFID II. Consequently, no key information document required by Regulation (EU) No 1286/2014 (the “PRIIPs Regulation”) for offering or selling the Notes or otherwise making them available to retail investors in the EEA has been prepared and therefore offering or selling the Notes or otherwise making them available to any retail investor in the EEA may be unlawful under the PRIIPs Regulation.

IMPORTANT – UK RETAIL INVESTORS: If the Pricing Supplement in respect of any Notes includes a legend entitled “Prohibition of Sales to UK Retail Investors”, the Notes are not intended to be offered, sold or otherwise made available to and should not be offered, sold or otherwise made available to any retail investor in the UK. For these purposes, a retail investor means a person who is one (or more) of: (i) a retail client, as defined in point (8) of Article 2 of Regulation (EU) No 2017/565 as it forms part of domestic law by virtue of the EUWA; or (ii) a customer within the meaning of the provisions of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (as amended, the “FSMA”) and any rules or regulations made under the FSMA to implement Directive (EU) 2016/97, where that customer would not qualify as a professional client, as defined in point (8) of Article 2(1) of Regulation (EU) No 600/2014 as it forms part of domestic law by virtue of the EUWA. Consequently, no key information document required by Regulation (EU) No 1286/2014 as it forms part of domestic law by virtue of the EUWA (the “UK PRIIPs Regulation”) for offering or selling the Notes or otherwise making them available to retail investors in the UK has been prepared and therefore offering or selling the Notes or otherwise making them available to any retail investor in the UK may be unlawful under the UK PRIIPs Regulation.

Any resale of the Notes must be made in accordance with an exemption from, or in a transaction not subject to, the prospectus requirements of applicable securities laws. Securities legislation in certain provinces or territories of Canada may provide a purchaser with remedies for rescission or damages if this Offering Circular (including any amendment thereto) contains a misrepresentation, provided that the remedies for rescission or damages are exercised by the purchaser within the time limit prescribed by the securities legislation of the purchaser’s province or territory. The purchaser should refer to any applicable provisions of the securities legislation of the purchaser’s province or territory for particulars of these rights or consult with a legal advisor. (1) Including Austria, Serbia and Group adjustments.

(2) Starting with the financial statements for the year ended 31 December 2024, the Group has decided to present Management fee income separately outside the Other income and expense, net in the Consolidated statement of profit or loss in the Financial statements, as this income has become a more regular part of day to day operation. The amount in the years ending 31 December 2024 and 2023 represents EUR 1.6 million and EUR 1.2 million, respectively. The adjustment is also made retrospectively.

“Property Value”, also known as “Gross Asset Value”, means the total market value of the properties of the Group; it is calculated as the aggregate of: (i) the total valuation of investment property; (ii) investment property under construction; (iii) lease incentives and commissions; and (iv) investment property and investment property under construction assets held for sale, each as reported in the most recent consolidated financial statements of the Group including the relevant notes thereto;

The Group has presented these measures (1) as they are used by its management to monitor its financial position for outstanding debt and available operating liquidity and (2) to represent similar measures that are widely used by certain investors, securities analysts and other interested parties as supplemental measures of financial position, financial performance and liquidity. The Group believes that the inclusion of these ratios and measures, when considered in conjunction with measures reported under IFRS, enhance the investor’s understanding of the Group’s indebtedness and its current ability to fund its ongoing operations.

However, the Non-IFRS Measures mentioned in this Offering Circular are used by different companies for differing purposes and are often calculated in ways that reflect the circumstances of those companies. Investors should exercise caution in comparing Non-IFRS Measures mentioned in this Offering Circular to similar measures used by other companies.

Further, none of these Non-IFRS Measures is a measurement of performance under IFRS, and investors should not consider Non-IFRS Measures mentioned in this Offering Circular as an alternative to net income, operating profit, cash flows from operations, investing activities or financing activities or other measures determined in accordance with IFRS. These Non-IFRS Measures have limitations as analytical tools, and investors should not consider them in isolation. Some of these limitations include that:

- they do not reflect cash expenditures or future requirements for capital expenditures or contractual commitments;

- they do not reflect changes in, or cash requirements for, working capital needs;
- they do not reflect the interest expense, or the cash requirements necessary, to service interest or principal payments on debt;
- although depreciation and amortisation are non-monetary charges, the assets being depreciated and amortised will often need to be replaced in the future and Recurring EBITDA does not reflect any cash requirements that would be required for such replacements;
- some of the items eliminated in calculating Recurring EBITDA reflect cash payments that were made, or will be made in the future; and
- the fact that other companies in the same industry may calculate Recurring EBITDA and the other Non-IFRS Measures mentioned in this Offering Circular differently than those mentioned in this Offering Circular, which limits their usefulness as comparative measures.

Use of Certain Terms and Conventions

The terms Recurring EBITDA, Property Value, GLA, External Indebtedness, Net Debt, Recurring EBITDA Margin, Income Margin and LTV Ratio included in this Offering Circular do not represent the terms of the same or similar names as may be defined by any documentation for any financial liabilities of the Group.

RISK FACTORS

Any investment in the Notes is subject to a number of risks. Prior to investing in the Notes, prospective investors should carefully consider risk factors associated with any investment in the Notes, the business of the Group and the industry in which the Group operates together with all other information contained in this Offering Circular, including, in particular the risk factors described below. Words and expressions defined in the “Terms and Conditions of the Notes” below or elsewhere in this Offering Circular have the same meanings in this section.

The following is not an exhaustive list or explanation of all risks which investors may face when making an investment in the Notes and should be used as guidance only. Additional risks and uncertainties relating to the Group that are not currently known to the Issuer, or that it currently deems immaterial, may individually or cumulatively also have a material adverse effect on the business, prospects, results of operations and/or financial position of the Group and, if any such risk should occur, the price of the Notes may decline and investors could lose all or part of their investment. Investors should consider carefully whether an investment in the Notes is suitable for them in light of the information in this Offering Circular and their personal circumstances.

RISKS RELATING TO THE ISSUER

Risks related to the Issuer’s ability to fulfil its obligations under the Notes

The Issuer is a holding company with no revenue-generating operations of its own and is dependent on cash flow from its operating subsidiaries to service its indebtedness, including the Notes.

The Issuer is a holding company and its assets consist primarily of shares in its subsidiaries and cash in its bank accounts. The Issuer generates limited revenues from operations of its own. Therefore, its cash flow and ability to service its indebtedness, including the Notes, will depend primarily on the operating results, performance financial condition of its operating subsidiaries and the receipt by the Issuer of funds from such subsidiaries in the form of interest payments, dividends and otherwise. The actual cash flows available to the Issuer can vary from period to period for numerous reasons, including, among other things, the amount of rental income derived from the Group’s yielding properties, the amount of cash required or retained for debt service or the repayment of debt, the amounts required to fund capital expenditures and working capital requirements, tenant allowances and other factors that may be beyond the Group’s control.

The Issuer’s subsidiaries could from time to time become subject to foreign exchange limitations as well as regulatory, fiscal or other restrictions within various geographical locations where the Group operates. Therefore, there can be no assurance that such limitations will not have a material adverse effect on the Group’s business, operating results and financial condition. The operating performance and financial condition of the Issuer’s operating subsidiaries and the ability of such subsidiaries to provide funds to the Issuer will in turn depend, to some extent, on general economic, financial, competitive, market and other factors, many of which are beyond the Issuer’s control. Therefore, the Issuer is indirectly subject to the same risk factors as the other members of the Group and the Group as a whole, which are described further below.

The Issuer’s subsidiaries are separate legal entities and have no obligation to pay any amounts due on the Notes or to provide the Issuer with funds for their payment. Generally, claims of creditors, including depositors, trade creditors and preferred stockholders (if any) of the Issuer’s subsidiaries are entitled to payments of their claims from the assets of such subsidiaries before these assets are made available for distribution to their respective parent entity or the creditors of the Issuer, including claims by the Noteholders under the Notes. As such, the Notes will be structurally subordinated to the creditors, including depositors, trade creditors and any preferred stockholders (if any) of the Issuer’s subsidiaries.

Risks related to the Group’s business activities and industry

The Group is exposed to economic conditions and other events and circumstances that affect the markets in which the Group operates.

The Group is exposed to fluctuating economic conditions both in Europe and in each country where it operates, as commercial property markets are usually connected to the condition of the economy as a whole. The Group conducts its business operations in Germany, the Czech Republic, Poland, Spain, Italy, Slovakia, France, the Netherlands, Romania and Austria. In the event that general economic conditions in these countries deteriorate, the Group may face decreasing demand for its logistics property, rise of vacancy rates and higher risks associated with defaulting tenants or other counterparties.

General economic conditions in the countries where the Group operates are influenced by, among other things, levels of inflation or deflation, investor and consumer sentiment, unemployment rates, availability and cost of credit, liquidity of financial markets and changes in interest rates. For instance, changes in employment levels, which may indirectly affect consumer sentiment and spending habits, may influence gross domestic product (the “GDP”). Changes in interest rates may have an impact on tenants’ access to financing, which may, in turn, affect the ability of tenants to comply with their rental obligations towards the Group and to enter into new leases or to extend their existing leases. In addition, the ongoing war in Ukraine and other geopolitical tensions (see also “—The Group is exposed to risks relating to the war in Ukraine and other geopolitical tensions.”) have increased volatility in the global economy. Any one of these factors is capable of affecting the demand for the Group’s properties and subsequently affecting the Group’s rental income and the market value of its properties. Since a significant portion of the Group’s rental income is generated from tenants operating in third-party logistics, non-food consumer goods and automotive sectors, the Group’s financial condition and results of operations are to a certain extent sensitive to the economic condition of these segments of the European economy.

Further, the countries in which the Group operates recently experienced historically high levels of inflation. While inflation levels gradually decreased during the year 2024 in most countries in which the Group operates, if inflation in the relevant market increases above the levels covered by the Group’s contracts with its tenants, the rent paid by the Group’s tenants under such lease agreements will not be adjusted to the same extent, which may adversely affect the Group’s real income. Moreover, any renewed increases of inflation or persisting high inflation levels may also result in slower than expected decreases of interest rates which have been set by national banks to counter high inflation. In February 2025, the European Central Bank (the “ECB”) decreased its three key interest rates by a further 25 basis points and specifically the deposit facility to 2.75 per cent, following three decreases earlier in the year (Source: ECB). Global and regional interest rate increases may increase the cost at which the Group and its tenants are able to obtain new financing and refinance their existing liabilities.

As a result, negative macroeconomic trends such as renewed high inflation levels and interest rates or their volatility, any public health crisis, or other political, social and economic developments over which the Group has no control could result in lower demand for the Group’s industrial and logistics property, rising vacancy rates and higher risks of default by tenants and other counterparties.

The occurrence of any one or a combination of the abovementioned factors may have a material adverse effect on the Group’s business, financial condition, results of operations, cash flows and prospects.

The Group is exposed to risks relating to the war in Ukraine and other geopolitical tensions.

In February 2022, Russia launched a full scale military invasion of Ukraine. While the length and impact of the ongoing war is unpredictable, it has led to global market disruptions, including supply chain interruptions, significant volatility in commodity and energy prices as well as in credit and capital markets and may, as a result, negatively affect the economy of the countries where the Group operates. In particular, the war has already led and may continue to lead to further significant increase in prices of commodities and energy. This may put an additional financial strain on corporates and households in Europe and has exacerbated and may further exacerbate supply chain risks.

In addition, political tensions between the United States and China and the tensions between China and Taiwan, combined with potential spillover effects on the worldwide economic and political situation, can further elevate geopolitical risks. The president of the United States has repeatedly voiced his intention to introduce new trade tariffs for select goods imported to the United States. An example of such new tariffs was the introduction of tariffs in February 2025 on imports from Canada, Mexico and China. The president of the United States has recently also raised tariff threats against other economies, including the EU and BRICS member countries (Brazil, Russia, India, China, South Africa, Egypt, Ethiopia, Indonesia, Iran, and the United Arab Emirates). Beyond country-specific tariffs the president of the United States has also suggested the possibility of new global tariffs on semiconductors, pharmaceuticals, oil, steel, aluminium, and copper. The potential introduction of additional trade tariffs between the United States and other countries, the continuation of the established tariffs, or the creation of other barriers to the free trade of goods, may lead to a further increase in prices of goods and services. Moreover, certain anticipated policies of the new Trump administration in the United States, along with the rise of multiple EU-sceptic parties across the EU, could cause further uncertainty and instability in the regions where the Group operates.

Further, the political instability in the Middle East and the escalation of regional conflicts may lead to a rise in oil and gas prices, which, in turn, could increase inflationary pressures and market volatility. Such conflicts may also increase the inflow of refugees to Europe that may put a significant strain on public services of the countries in which the Group operates.

The ongoing geopolitical tensions related to the war in Ukraine and other geopolitical tensions, as well as any escalation of conflicts and related economic or other sanctions, or the introduction of new trade tariffs, could therefore negatively affect global macroeconomic conditions and the countries where the Group operates, and in turn have a material adverse effect on the Group's business, financial condition, results of operations, cash flows and prospects.

The Group is exposed to the risk of experiencing lower demand for its logistics property.

The Group's primary business activity is investing in, owning, developing and managing logistics real estate and the Group's income is mainly derived from rental payments received from the tenants occupying the Group's properties. As of 31 December 2024, the Group's core Occupancy Rate amounted to 94 per cent. of its GLA. However, there is no guarantee that the Group will be able to maintain its current occupancy rates, in particular by retaining its largest tenants with similar rental levels and under similar lease terms.

The Group's occupancy rates may be affected by the quantity and quality of competing logistics properties in the location where the Group operates, the age, quality and design of a property relative to comparable properties in the local market, the location of a property relative to transportation infrastructure and urban centres, the maintenance standards and upkeep of a property including any work conducted by third-party service providers, renovation work required on vacant property before it can be re-let, and perceptions regarding the safety, convenience and attractiveness of such property. Additionally, demand for the Group's property may be affected by the location of such property vis-à-vis key transportation hubs, as well as volume and importance of road transportation and logistics services for the Group's current and prospective tenants. Since the Group develops and plans to develop new logistics properties, the Group's occupancy rates may be further impacted by balance between local supply and demand for logistics property. In case of decreasing demand for such properties, the Group may become unable to rent or sell its properties at profitable prices.

Further, the demand for commercial properties and the ability of such properties to generate income and sustain market value is based on a number of factors, including, among other things, overall conditions in the European, national and regional economies (see "—The Group is exposed to economic conditions and other events and circumstances that affect the markets in which the Group operates." above for more information on the risks related to the markets where the Group operates).

Decrease in demand for the Group's property may force the Group to offer financial and other incentives to its new and renewing tenants, which may subsequently negatively affect the Group's net operating income, operating expenses, market value of the Group's properties and the Group's ability to obtain discretionary financing in a timely manner. Failure to sustain adequate occupancy rates may have a material adverse effect on the Group's business, financial condition, results of operations, cash flows and prospects.

The Group's financial performance relies on its ability to attract and retain tenants, which may suffer as a result of increased competition from other property owners, operators and developers.

The Group is exposed to competition from other property owners, operators and developers of logistics and real estate, with whom the Group competes for tenants. Some of the buildings within the Group's portfolio may be older or located in less attractive areas as opposed to properties of other Group's competitors and thus may not satisfy the current or future needs of its existing or prospective tenants. The competition for tenants may also weaken the Group's ability to attract new tenants and retain existing tenants and may have a negative effect on the terms of the Group's lease agreements, including the amount of rent charged by the Group and the incentives provided by the Group to its tenants. Moreover, some of the major tenants may commence in-house development operations, which may negatively affect the Group's financial performance. The materialisation of any of the abovementioned risks may have a material adverse impact on the Group's business, financial condition, results of operations, cash flows and prospects.

The Group's financial performance may be adversely affected by tenants defaulting on their lease obligations or failing to renew leases.

If any of the Group's tenants default on their lease obligations or commitment to occupy a preleased development project, exercise a break option clause or other termination rights in their lease agreement or fail to renew their lease on expiration, whether due to their financial difficulties, the decision to lease premises provided by a competitor of the Group, experiencing a change in their needs for logistics or premises or otherwise, the Group is exposed to the risk of being unable to find a replacement tenant on a timely basis. Until the Group finds a new tenant, some of the Group's properties or a part thereof may remain vacant, pressuring the Group to bear all their maintenance and operating costs, including, heating, security, electricity, insurance, service charge liabilities and similar costs, and not being able to recharge those costs to the tenants.

If a material number of the Group's tenants were unable to meet their lease obligations, became insolvent, or if, for any other reason, rental payments could not be collected, the income from, and the market value of, the Group's properties would be adversely affected. As a result, these circumstances could have a material adverse effect on the Group's ability to maintain rental income and recharge certain fixed costs which the Group has to pay regardless of whether it receives payments from tenants to fund such expenses.

Moreover, if the Group leases its empty premises to a new tenant, there is no guarantee that such tenant will be of equivalent standing as the Group's existing tenants or that the Group will be able to agree on rental terms which are equal to, or on equally favourable terms to, those under the previous leases. Such risks may be exacerbated in respect of tenants occupying multiple properties or those occupying bespoke or build-to-suit properties, as such properties may be difficult to re-let without further expenditure required to make the property suitable for a new prospective tenant.

As such, the materialisation of the abovementioned risks could have a material adverse effect on the Group's business, financial condition, results of operations, cash flows and prospects.

The Group may not be able to successfully implement its key strategies or manage its growth.

The financial performance and success of the Group is largely dependent on the Group's ability to successfully implement its key strategies. As of the date of this Offering Circular, the Group plans to primarily focus on proactive asset management and continuous property enhancements, risk-controlled land bank acquisitions and development, selective acquisitions and disposals of properties and continued focus on sustainability and social responsibility (see also "Description of the Issuer–Strategies" below).

There is no guarantee that the Group will be able to successfully implement its key strategies, realise any benefit from the same or improve its results of operations. A number of factors beyond the Group's control may adversely affect the implementation of the Group's key strategies, such as an increase in operating costs or competition, legal and regulatory developments or general economic conditions.

The Group may face challenges in achieving future growth including continuous improvement of its managerial, technical and operational knowledge, implementation of an effective management information system, continuous recruitment and training of managerial and other professional staff to satisfy its business requirements, obtaining sufficient financial resources to fund its on-going operations and future growth, management of relationships with a greater number of tenants, suppliers, contractors, lenders and other third parties, and strengthening its internal control and compliance functions to ensure that the Group complies with its regulatory and contractual obligations.

There can be no assurance that issues such as capital constraints, delays relating to regulatory and contractual compliance obligations, operational difficulties at new or existing locations, difficulties in integrating new acquisitions into the Group's existing business and operations and managing the training of an increasing number of personnel to manage and operate the expanded business will not occur and thus adversely affect the Group's ability to successfully implement its key strategies. Any failure to successfully implement the Group's key strategies or manage the impact of its growth on its operational and managerial resources and control systems could have a material adverse effect on the Group's business, financial condition, results of operations, cash flows and prospects.

The performance of the Group's property portfolio is exposed to concentration risks.

The Group's property portfolio is exposed to concentration risk, as the Group depends on several major tenants from a limited number of sectors for most of its revenue. As of 31 December 2024, the Group had a base of around 500 tenants, out of which the top two tenants contributed 8.65 per cent. and 7.83 per cent., respectively, of the Annualised Headline Rent receivable by the Group as of 31 December 2024. As of the same date, the Group's top 20 tenants amounted to 36.25 per cent. of the Annualised Headline Rent receivable by the Group as of 31 December 2024. Such concentration of the total Annualised Headline Rent may result in greater dependence of the Group's financial performance on the revenue from a limited number of top tenants.

The Group is also exposed to the risk associated with concentration of tenants in certain sectors. As of 31 December 2024, the tenants active in third-party logistics represented 38 per cent. of the Annualised Headline Rent, followed by tenants active in non-food consumer goods, grocery distribution and wholesaling, automotive industry, light manufacturing and other, together accounting for 23 per cent., 15 per cent., 8 per cent., 6 per cent. and 10 per cent. of the Annualised Headline Rent, respectively. As a result, the Group's property portfolio may become more susceptible to fluctuations in value resulting from adverse economic or business conditions affecting in particular these sectors, as an economic decline in the sectors in which the Group's tenants operate can cause one or more significant tenants to cease operations or become insolvent. Additionally, the automotive industry, in particular, may face widespread disruptions due to shortages of chips, aluminium or other components.

In addition, as of 31 December 2024, the Group's yielding properties were primarily located in Germany, the Czech Republic, Poland and Spain, which accounted for 33 per cent., 19 per cent., 14 per cent. and 8 per cent., respectively, of the Group's portfolio in terms of Property Value. The remaining yielding properties are located in France, Romania, Slovakia, Italy, the Netherlands and Austria. At the same time, 60 per cent. of the Group's portfolio in terms of Property Value was located in Western Europe,¹ while the remaining 40 per cent. was located in CEE². The performance of the Group's property portfolio may be disproportionately impacted by events or market developments occurring in these countries or in Europe generally (see also "The Group is exposed to economic conditions and other events and circumstances that affect the markets in which the Group operates." above for more information on the risks related to the markets where the Group operates). Such developments may result in lower demand for logistics facilities, potentially leading to less favourable lease terms, increased vacancy rates and decreased rent levels for the Group's property portfolio. In the event of a decline in the attractiveness of any single national market where the Group's assets are located, or if there is a downturn or illiquidity in such market, the Group may be unable to rent or sell its properties in such market effectively.

The materialisation of any of the above risks could have a material adverse effect on the Group's business, financial condition, results of operations, cash flows and prospects.

The Group is exposed to risks associated with the permitting of its development activities.

To commence a construction of a new building, the Group needs to obtain the necessary permits from the responsible authorities. Even though the responsible authorities are generally obliged to grant such a permit if all applicable technical and legal requirements are satisfied, the authorities may, on a case-by-case basis, decide to grant building permits under specific conditions or constraints or may even refuse to grant such permits at all.

Furthermore, objections raised by municipalities, owners of surrounding plots of land and other interested parties may delay the process of granting of permits or otherwise materially adversely affect the Group's ability to undertake development activities. In particular, the Group's development projects may face public opposition and the Group may be forced to make concessions in order to reach an agreement with the relevant municipality and the interested parties. If the Group fails to reach such an agreement, it may be forced to amend or even abandon its development project. Prolonged negotiations with the relevant municipality and the interested parties during the permitting process may significantly delay the development project.

Such risks are further exacerbated by the fact that some of the European legal systems of the Group's countries of operation tend to be more formalistic and stricter with respect to granting permits.

The Group is exposed to risks associated with unavailability of properties suitable for acquisition.

As part of its business strategy, the Group aims to continue to expand its property portfolio through selective strategic and complementary acquisitions of buildings and land. However, the Group's acquisition strategy may be hindered by unavailability of selected properties, or availability of such properties only on unfavourable conditions or at unattractive prices. In addition, the availability of properties suitable for acquisition might be limited due to various factors, such as decreasing sales of real estate by municipalities or private sellers. Constricted availability of properties could increase competition for acquisitions of properties that would be suitable for the Group. Competition for available properties has been further increasing as new investors with no previous real estate experience enter the market to compete with the established owners and developers of real estate. All of these factors may result in a price increase or even a complete unavailability of suitable properties that are in the strategic focus of the Group.

A limited availability of land suitable for development in densely populated areas, together with the increasing resistance from municipalities and local communities towards large, ad hoc big box assets hinder the Group's development of new stock.

Prior to acquiring a property, the Group carries out an economic feasibility analysis. Such analysis is subject to a wide variety of factors and subjective assessments and is based on various assumptions. When making a decision to acquire a property, the Group may overestimate the potential of target properties, cost savings and synergies, which may not develop in line with the Group's estimates. The Group may further base its decisions to acquire a property on inaccurate information or assumptions that may turn out to be incorrect. The Group may also overestimate the likelihood of obtaining the required government permits and approvals for development properties. Such errors may only become apparent at a late stage of the acquisition process and subsequently force the Group to recognise fair value losses in its statement of income. Any inability or failure to identify and successfully acquire attractive properties at commercially acceptable terms could limit the Group's ability to grow its business effectively and adversely affect the Group's business, financial condition, results of operations, cash flows and prospects.

The Group is exposed to risks associated with defects of acquired properties that may not be discovered by prior due diligence.

Before acquiring a property, the Group performs due diligence in order to evaluate the property and identify risks associated with it. When conducting due diligence, the Group typically relies on external experts with the aim to achieve maximum scrutiny of the acquired property. However, the Group cannot guarantee that all of the potential liabilities and risks related to the property will be identified during due diligence or that the Group will have recourse to the seller of the property for the non-disclosure of any such risks or to the authors of due diligence reports for professional negligence when preparing the due diligence reports.

In addition, when conducting due diligence, it may not even be possible to identify all documents that should be reviewed. Due diligence in any scope thus in general cannot identify all risks. There is a risk that the seller may not provide, or be in possession of, all the required information and documents and this may lead to the materialisation of risks not identified during the due diligence. These risks, among others, relate to title and security searches, material contracts (such as access to the site and connection to utilities), rights of third parties, litigation, management of the property, tax issues, planning permissions and conditions, technical status of the building including permits, licences, fire and health and safety certificates and the compliance with related regulations as well as restrictions in connection with historic preservation and environmental laws.

When the Group does not acquire a property directly but rather by acquiring the company that owns such property, additional risks arising from, among other things, the target company's corporate structure, financial and tax liabilities and third-party claims may arise and may not be identified sufficiently, or at all, by the Group's due diligence.

Although the properties acquired by the Group are also inspected prior to purchase in the course of a technical due diligence investigation, it is possible that damage or quality defects could remain entirely undiscovered, or that the scope of such problems may not be fully apparent in the course of the due diligence investigation. As a result, the Group may be subject to claims due to such defects or problems and the Group may be exposed to substantial undisclosed or unascertained liabilities relating to properties that were incurred or that arose prior to the completion of the Group's acquisition of such properties. Although the Group may obtain contractual protection against such claims and liabilities from the seller (for instance, by way of indemnity or warranty claims), such contractual protection may not be enforceable or effective.

Because sellers typically exclude liability for hidden defects, they are typically not liable for defects that could have been identifiable in the course of the technical due diligence; also, liability of the sellers is typically capped, so that the Group may not be able to fully recover the loss incurred by it under the given indemnity. Even where liability for hidden defects has not been fully excluded, it is possible that the representations and warranties made in the purchase agreement with respect to the property fail to cover all risks and potential problems relating to the acquisition. Any claims for recourse that the Group may have against parties from which it has purchased property may fail because of the expiration of warranty periods and the statute of limitations, lack of proof that the seller knew or should have known of the defect or the insolvency of the seller. In addition, it is not possible to fully avoid the risk that some properties acquired by the Group may contain ground contamination, hazardous materials, other residual pollution or wartime relics, potentially including unexploded ordnance. The discovery of such issues can lead to substantial project delivery delays and their remediation and related additional measures could involve considerable additional costs. Moreover, the existence or even merely the suspicion of the existence of wartime ordnance, hazardous materials, residual pollution or ground contamination can negatively affect the value of a property and the ability of the Group to sell, or to operate such a property.

Any of the above events or circumstances could have a material adverse effect on the Group's business, financial condition, results of operations, cash flows and prospects.

The Group is exposed to risks associated with the construction and refurbishment of real estate.

As part of its business, the Group develops new properties. The real estate development business is subject to certain risks arising from the complexity of projects, such as higher-than-expected costs, breaches of labour laws, delays in completion, the application of regulations, health and safety or environmental constraints, unknown legal claims, unforeseeable underground conditions that may result in construction delays and unexpected costs.

The Group outsources the construction works to a selected construction company acting as a general contractor, which further sub-contracts some parts of the work to other parties. The Group is exposed to the risk of such third-party contractors not performing their obligations under the contracts with the Group, including as a result of shortages in raw materials and unavailability of skilled workers. See “–The Group is dependent on the performance of third-party contractors and suppliers.” for more information on the risks associated with the Group's dependence on third-party contractors and suppliers.

In the event of speculative commencement of building construction before a lease agreement with a tenant is signed, the Group is also exposed to the risk of cost overruns and project delays if it becomes necessary to substantially change the design of the building in order to accommodate the preferences of the tenant, once such tenant is found.

These risks could result in the abandonment of projects after significant feasibility study costs and management attention have been expended or could lead to substantial project delivery delays, which could adversely impact the Group's profitability and the value of its properties. The Group may also incur significant opportunity cost when it is not able to carry out development activities in a timely manner, or at all, due to the above and other factors and as a result the Group's land bank's potential may not be maximised. Furthermore, it typically takes several months or years from the commencement of a project to completion of a new logistics park, and demand for premises in particular locations may change significantly between the time the Group makes the decision to enter a particular market or region and the time at which a logistics park commences operation.

Failure to complete a development project, including redevelopment or refurbishment investment project, in accordance with its original schedule or business case may result in returns on investment being lower than originally expected. Such failure may also result in breach of obligations undertaken by the Group under agreements with future tenants of the property under development. As a result, the Group may be exposed to potential claims brought by those tenants against the Group and to inherent deterioration of the relationships with those tenants. Failure to generate expected returns due to any of the abovementioned events or circumstances could have a material adverse effect on the Group's business, financial condition, results of operations, cash flows and prospects.

The Group's properties may not satisfy current standards and require refurbishment.

Some of the Group's properties might be old or not meet the current standards. Additionally, increasing sustainability and energy efficiency standards may render certain properties non-compliant with future regulatory requirements and market standards. This could result in some of the Group's properties becoming stranded assets - properties that lose value or become obsolete due to their inability to comply with future sustainability criteria. In such cases, the properties owned by the Group may from time to time require investment for targeted modernisation, expansion or renovation. Such measures may lead to additional costs being incurred, exceeding the costs of general maintenance. The Group could underestimate the amount designated for investment in targeted modernisation, renovation or expansion of its properties, as such costs may increase due to various factors. The Group may be further exposed to risks related to delays in the implementation of modernisation, renovation or expansion measures against which the Group might not have been contractually protected. The materialisation of such risks may have a material adverse effect on the Group's business, financial condition, results of operations, cash flows and prospects.

The Group's land bank may not ultimately be beneficial to the Group.

As of 31 December 2024, the Group had a land bank of approximately 3.5 million square metres (“sqm”). Under the applicable zoning rules, this translates into more than 1.6 million sqm of potential lettable area. In addition, the Group has contractually secured additional 1.6 million sqm of potential lettable area under exclusive options. As a result, the Group is exposed to the risk associated with holding a substantial amount of land for future development, or for long periods of time. The Group's returns can be diluted should the land bank potential is not fully utilised.

Furthermore, demand for warehouse space in particular locations may change significantly between the time when the Group makes the decision to enter a particular market or region and the time when a logistics park commences operation, as it usually takes several months or years from the commencement of a project to completion of a new logistics park. Changes in the economic situation in Europe or changes in the logistics markets may result in tenants changing their property requirements, which may expose the Group to the risk of holding land located in undesirable areas. Conversely, there is also a risk that the Group's land bank will not be large enough, both generally and specifically in areas with high demand, which may constrain the Group's growth opportunities.

The Group may be further required to incur additional costs or take certain action in connection with the development of land given the changes in governmental policy, such as changes in the zoning, planning and building regulations, which may render the development of logistics property unprofitable (see “—Legal and regulatory risks—The Group is exposed to risks relating to zoning, planning and building laws and regulations and changes thereof.” below for more information on risks related to zoning, planning and building regulations). The materialisation of any of the abovementioned risks may have material adverse impact on the Group's business, financial condition, results of operations, cash flows and prospects.

The Group may not be able to pass onto tenants its operating, maintenance and capital expenditure costs or to successfully recover such costs.

The Group is subject to a number of operating costs and expenses and capital expenditure, including property taxes, energy, utilities, or insurance costs, certain maintenance costs and related charges. Some of these must be borne by the Group throughout the period of ownership of the property, regardless of whether the property is generating income to pay such expenses. The Group would typically pass such costs onto its tenants to the extent permitted in the relevant lease agreement and by the applicable legislation. However, the Group may be unable pass such costs in certain circumstances, such as when a property is vacant or when a tenant's lease agreement or the applicable legislation does not allow this practice. Energy costs (electricity, natural gas and oil) remaining at high levels or increasing in the future due to, among other things, the war in Ukraine, the associated sanctions and the reduction in the supply of Russian gas to the EU (see “—The Group is exposed to risks relating to the war in Ukraine and other geopolitical tensions.”), could adversely affect the Group's operating costs and expenses, as the Group may be unable to pass all such increased costs on to its tenants.

Any increase in the Group's operating, maintenance and capital expenditure costs which it is unable to pass on to its tenants could have an adverse effect on the Group's business, financial condition, results of operations, cash flows and prospects.

The valuations performed on the Group's property portfolio represent the analysis and opinion of independent experts and may not be an accurate reflection of their present or future value and the Group's financial statements may be affected by fluctuation in the fair market value of its property portfolio as a result of revaluations. A significant part of the Group's annual profits or losses may be impacted by non-cash portfolio revaluations. Property valuation is inherently subjective and uncertain and based on assumptions which may prove to be inaccurate or affected by factors outside of the Group's control.

The financial statements of the Group reflect property valuations carried out by external valuers (as defined by the Royal Institution of Chartered Surveyors' Valuation – Global Standards 2024) and are not guarantees of present or future value. Property valuations are inherently subjective due to the individual nature of each property, their lack of liquidity and the markets in which such properties are situated. One external appraiser may come to a different conclusion than another external appraiser would come to if they were valuing the same property, and likewise, the same external appraiser may come to a different conclusion at different stages of market development. These differences may be due to the use of different methodologies. Any change in valuation methodology may result in gains or losses in the Group's consolidated financial statements based on the valuation methodology update. In addition, property valuations are made on the basis of information and assumptions which may not prove to be accurate. This is particularly so when the record of transactional experience against which property valuations can be benchmarked is limited or non-existent.

In valuing properties, the valuers are required to make certain key assumptions in respect of matters including, but not limited to, the existence of willing buyers, title to the property, condition of structure and services, deleterious materials, environmental matters, legal matters, statutory and regulatory requirements and planning, estimated market rental values, market-based yields, expected future rental revenues from the property and other factors. In respect of properties which may require development, redevelopment or refurbishment, the development considered achievable, assumed timescale, the assumed future development cost and an appropriate finance rate and profit rate and/or discount rate are also used to determine the property value together with market evidence and recent comparable properties where appropriate.

Property valuations are complex, involve the use of data which is not publicly available and involve a degree of subjective professional judgement by the valuer. The adoption of different assumptions would be likely to produce different valuation results. The assumptions made may prove to be inaccurate or not borne out by future events and could negatively affect the valuation of the Group's properties. Different external valuers may arrive at different conclusions in respect of the same property, and the same external valuer may come to different conclusions at different times.

The Group follows the accounting principles in determination of fair value. There can be no assurance that any valuation could be realised in a third-party sale. The net proceeds realised from any future disposal may differ from the corresponding valuation, and such variations may be material and the relevant Group member may not be able to realise the property valuation. Net proceeds realised from any future disposal will also be impacted by the relevant transaction costs. At the end of 2024, the Group reassessed the transaction costs, and decided to move to the Net Market Value approach, applying country specific market standard transaction costs at asset level. The Group's current accounting practice is to consider the market value of its properties. Non-current assets that are accounted for in accordance with the fair value model in IAS 40 Investment Property are recorded at market value, based on valuation provided by the independent appraiser. Assets held for sale are generally measured at the lower of their carrying amount and fair value less costs to sell. The valuations given to properties and reflected in the Group's financial statements may exceed or be below the actual amount of net proceeds which would be realised on the relevant property at the time of any sale, and are subject to fluctuation over time. In the exceptional event that the Group would achieve a different price upon specific circumstances, the Group would recognise subsequent gain or loss from sale, when the asset is sold.

In addition, valuation of the Group's real estate portfolio may be affected by currency fluctuations and the general macro-economic environment. Such variations may be driven by factors outside the control of the Group and adversely affect, among other things, calculation of financial covenants under the terms of the Notes. In particular, the war in Ukraine, other conflicts and geopolitical tensions, increased inflation and interest rates or their volatility, a banking crises, any public health crises and the related government-imposed restrictions in response thereto could have a negative impact on the valuation of the Group's real estate portfolio.

Any increase or decrease in the value of the Group's property portfolio is recorded as a revaluation gain or loss in the Group's financial statements for the period during which the revaluation occurs. As a result, the Group could have significant non-cash revaluation gains and losses from period to period depending on the change in fair value of its property portfolio, whether or not any properties are sold. If market conditions and the prices of comparable properties are unfavourable, revaluation losses from the Group's existing properties could occur in the future.

To the extent that valuations of the Group's properties do not fully reflect the value of the underlying properties, whether due to the above factors or otherwise, this may have a material adverse effect on the Group's business, financial condition, results of operations, cash flows and prospects.

The Group is exposed to risks stemming from central banks' monetary policy decisions. Any rise in interest rates could have material adverse effects on the real estate market and on the Group.

The Group finances its business activities either with its own or borrowed capital resources. Monetary policy decisions imposed by the central banks in the respective states in which the Group operates, as well as the ECB, may have a significant impact on interest rates and such policies are subject to constant change.

In February 2025, the ECB decreased its three key interest rates by a further 25 basis points and specifically the deposit facility to 2.75 per cent. (Source: ECB). Any increase in interest rates may adversely affect the Group's ability to finance any of its planned acquisitions, development, modernisations, maintenance and refurbishments of real estate portfolios by debt capital or the Group's ability to refinance its debts once they become due.

Interest rate fluctuations could affect the floating interest rates applicable to the Group's bank loans with floating interest rates that have not been hedged. However, many loans have been swapped to fixed rate to reduce the amount of debt exposure to interest rate fluctuations and costs of borrowing. As of 31 December 2024, the Group's floating interest rates exposure from unhedged bank loans amounted to EUR 50 million. The particular hedging decisions made by the Group are determined with regard to the facts and circumstances existing at the time of the hedging decision, which may differ from time to time. However, there is no guarantee that any of the stated instruments or strategies used to hedge debt exposure will be effective or suitable for implementation, which may expose the Group to additional losses. Moreover, the Group's risk management procedures may not always have the desired effect. The materialisation of any of the abovementioned risks could adversely affect the Group's business, financial condition, results of operations, cash flows and prospects.

The Group is dependent on good relations with its employees and is exposed to risks related to its ability to attract and retain employees.

The Group is an integrated business with significant in-house investment, property development and asset management capabilities, and necessary support functions such as finance, legal, IT, tax and treasury. Employees in the Group's investment, property development and asset management departments in particular play a critical role in the Group's ability to continue providing services to its tenants and to further develop and grow the Group's portfolio. Consequently, these employees are instrumental to the successful implementation of the Group's business strategy. As of 31 December 2024, 7 per cent. of the Group's employees were employed in the Group's construction department, 9 per cent. in the property development department, 11 per cent. in the property management department and 8 per cent. in the asset management department.

In the event that the Group fails to attract and retain adequately skilled employees designated for management and technical roles at economically reasonable compensation levels, the Group's operations may be negatively affected.

Any ongoing labour dispute affecting the Issuer, or any of its direct or indirect subsidiaries which employ property and asset management teams, exposes the Group to the risk of a substantial interruption of the Group's business operations.

As of the date of this Offering Circular, the Group's employees are not unionised; however, there is no guarantee that they will not unionise in the future. Upon unionisation, the Group's employees may increase their bargaining power and other rights, which may put pressure on the Group to spend a substantial amount of time and resources on altering or amending employees' terms of employment or making staff reductions.

The Group is dependent on its senior management team and other qualified personnel and may not be able to attract and retain them.

The Group's ability to maintain its competitive position and to implement its business strategy is largely dependent on retaining the Issuer's Senior Management (as defined in "Issuer Management") and the other senior executives and skilled personnel within the Group's management structure. See "Issuer Management" for more information on the persons responsible for the management of the Issuer's operations). The Group's competitive position and business strategy is further dependent on its ability to attract and retain additional qualified personnel who have experience in the Group's industry and in operating a business of the Group's size and complexity. The Group has not entered into a key person insurance scheme with respect to its Senior Management.

The Group may not be able to locate, employ or retain, on acceptable terms or at all, executives with the required qualification and experience. Any shortage of adequately skilled candidates may pressure the Group to increase wages in order to attract suitably skilled candidates, which may increase the Group's operating expenses. The Group is exposed to the risk of losing industry and property specific knowledge as well as relationships with its lenders, key tenants and industry personnel and of delay in key decisions in the event that any of the abovementioned individuals, or of any senior member of management, leaves the Group. Any of the abovementioned factors could have a material adverse effect on the Group's business, financial condition, results of operations, cash flows and prospects.

The Group is dependent on the performance of third-party contractors and suppliers.

In the ordinary course of its business, the Group enters into various contracts with third-party contractors. The Group engages third-party construction companies as general contractors for the construction or refurbishment of its properties. In case of unsatisfactory performance of any such contractor or any such contractor becoming bankrupt or insolvent, it may be necessary for the Group to take other actions, such as replacement of contractor, in order to remedy such situation.

In the agreements on construction of new properties, the Group customarily agrees with its general contractors on a guaranteed maximum price. Such price cannot subsequently be adjusted to take into account any future changes in prices of the materials or the labour costs. In case of a material increase in prices, a contractor might be unable to perform its obligations, under its agreement with the Group, profitably. This may increase the risk of such contractor becoming insolvent, raising a legal claim to amend the price agreed, choosing to underperform its obligations or suspending works until it manages to secure a supply of cheaper materials or labour.

Events like the war in Ukraine (see "—The Group is exposed to risks relating to the war in Ukraine and other geopolitical tensions."), rising inflation rates, together with higher interest rates (see "—The Group is exposed to economic conditions and other events and circumstances that affect the markets in which the Group operates."), may pose operation risks for the Group if its contractors or suppliers become bankrupt or insolvent.

The Group further engages general suppliers for providing services to its tenants. The Group may be forced to take necessary actions in the event that any supplier performs its services in unsatisfactory way, such as replacement of such supplier.

Apart from third-party contractors and suppliers, the Group is further exposed to the risk associated with the performance of third-party letting agents. If the performance of any of the third-party letting agent become unsatisfactory or the relationship between the Issuer and any third-party letting agent deteriorates, the Group's business may be adversely affected by decrease in number of tenants and decrease in generated rental income. Moreover, the Group may be subsequently forced to take necessary actions, such as replacement of such letting agent, in order to avoid negative effects on its business operations.

The materialisation of any of the abovementioned risks could have a material adverse effect on the Group's business, financial condition, results of operations, cash flows and prospects.

The Group is dependent on the availability of public utilities and services, especially for water, gas and electricity.

Public utilities, especially those that provide water, gas and electricity, are fundamental for the sound operation of the Group's properties. The delayed delivery or any material reduction or prolonged interruption of these services could allow tenants to terminate their leases, claim discounts on their rent and, if agreed, to claim payment of contractual penalties, or could result in an increase in the Group's costs, as the Group may be forced to use backup generators or back-up water supplies. However, these could be insufficient to fully operate the Group's properties and could result in the Group's inability to provide services. Any reduction, interruption or cancellation of such services could have a material adverse effect on the Group's business, financial condition, results of operations, cash flows and prospects.

The Group is exposed to risks relating to interruption or failure of the Group's information technology systems.

The Group is dependent on the proper functioning of its information systems and processes, for instance its enterprise resources planning (ERP) systems. The Group's systems and the systems on which it relies are vulnerable to damage or interruption from various factors, including but not limited to power loss, telecommunication failures, data corruption, network failure, computer viruses, hacking, security breaches, natural disasters, theft, vandalism or other acts. A disaster or disruption in the infrastructure that supports the Group's businesses could have a material adverse effect on its ability to continue to operate the Group's business without interruption and, as a result, damage the Group's reputation. The risk of cyber-attacks on companies and institutions, damage to and interruptions of technology, network systems and infrastructure could increase as a result of Russia's military action against Ukraine and in response to the consequent sanctions imposed by the United States, the EU, the UK and other countries (see also "The Group is exposed to risks relating to the war in Ukraine and other geopolitical tensions."). With the growing use of artificial intelligence, such attacks are becoming more common and easier to launch, increasing the potential for widespread disruptions. Such attacks could adversely affect the Group's ability to maintain or enhance its cyber security, data protection measures and the resilience of critical business function. The Group is also reliant on the general and timely functioning of banking systems and associated technology in order to receive and make payments. Any cessation of the ordinary functioning of the banking system or any interruption of payment systems may impact the ability to collect rents from tenants or make payments to external parties. The materialisation of any of these risks could have a material adverse effect on the Group's business, financial condition, results of operations, cash flows and prospects.

Unauthorised access to personal data or sensitive business data could damage the Group's business and reputation.

In the ordinary course of its business, the Group accumulates, stores and uses certain data that is sensitive or commercially valuable. The Group's information technology systems and networks may be vulnerable to data breaches, unauthorised access, malicious software, computer viruses and other security issues. There is no guarantee that regular testing, security reviews and training and awareness campaigns conducted by the Group will prevent any leakage or unauthorised access to the personal and sensitive business data. In the event of unauthorised access or loss or leakage of such data, the Group may be exposed to the reputational damage and damage to its business, including the imposition of fines, loss of tenants, rental income and other financial losses, any of which may have a material adverse effect on the Group's business, financial condition, results of operations, cash flows and prospects.

The Group is exposed to risks related to climate change.

The Group may be exposed to the risk of damage to the Group's property caused over time by changes in weather conditions and physical environment or natural disasters. Although the Group makes efforts to mitigate the effects of climate change on its properties, there is no guarantee that the Group's investments will be sufficient or invested in the right type of measures designed to mitigate such effects. The Group may be exposed to the risk of unprofitable investments if climate risk or natural disaster is not appropriately considered and failure of the Group to invest in any mitigation measures could result in investments being written off.

Moreover, ongoing changes in weather conditions and physical environment may also pressure the Group to incur higher operating expenses, for example in connection with temperature level changes or as a result of insurers reducing their liability or introducing new insurance premiums. This may result in the Group being exposed to higher excess levels or higher insurance costs in relation to insurance of properties located in vulnerable areas.

The Group may be further affected by environmental political decisions, which may result in higher taxes or necessary additional investments, restrictions to road transportation or increasing costs for such transportation. Additionally, the Group may be also affected by increased requirements related to climate change imposed by investors, tenants and other stakeholders of the Group. Any of the abovementioned risks may have a material adverse effect on the Group's financial condition, results of operations, cash flows and prospects.

The Group may experience material losses or damage related to its properties and such losses may not be covered by insurance.

The Group may experience losses related to its properties arising from natural disasters, vandalism or other crime, faulty construction or accidents, fire, war, acts of terrorism or other disasters, and may face related damage claims invoked by its tenants. Even though the Group maintains insurance protection that it considers adequate in the ordinary course of operations, including protection against material damage to its business assets caused by, among other things, fire, explosions, earthquakes, flooding and theft, there is no guarantee that the insurance will be sufficient or provide effective coverage under all circumstances and against all hazards or liabilities to which the Group may be exposed. Certain types of risks, usually of a catastrophic nature, may be uninsurable under any insurance policy, such as risks associated with war or nuclear accident and the impact of public health crises. Further, the Group has no insurance against cyber-risks, including data loss or cyber-attacks. The Group also does not insure its projects that are under construction and instead transfers the risks to contractors' all-risks insurance.

Although insurance policies on some of the Group's properties may cover losses that are generally catastrophic in nature, such as terrorism, earthquakes and floods, there is no guarantee that such insurance policy will be able to cover all losses incurred in any particular case. Moreover, insurance of some of the Group's properties in certain risk areas are subject to policy limits insufficient to cover losses or to higher levels of insurance excess.

The Group is exposed to the risk of losing the capital invested in the damaged properties as well as the anticipated future cash flows from such properties if either the Group or one or more of the Group's tenants experience a loss either not covered by insurance or exceeding the Group's insurance policy limits. Materialisation of any of the abovementioned risks including damages or third-party claims for which the Group is not fully insured, and increases in insurance costs and other adverse changes in the insurance markets may have a material adverse effect on the Group's business, financial condition, results of operations, cash flows and prospects.

The Group may be unable to dispose of its properties profitably.

Given the potentially limited number of buyers for the Group's properties as well as a buyer's willingness to pay fair value at the time the Group decides to sell, the Group is exposed to the risk that its properties may be relatively illiquid. Such circumstances may reduce the Group's ability to dispose of such properties within a timely manner or at satisfactory prices. Moreover, there may be a significant deficit between the carrying value of the property on the Group's consolidated balance sheet and the price achieved at the time of the sale of such property and the Group may not be able to achieve a sales price at, or above, the book value of the property sold in the event of an accelerated sale or a sale required to comply with covenants contained in the Group's financing arrangements, including the Notes, or in the case of enforcement of security by a lender. Additionally, if the Group is unable to sell its properties at satisfactory prices, this may limit its ability to acquire new properties in which the Group intends to invest in the future. Materialisation of any of the abovementioned risks, including the failure of the Group to conduct sales of its properties at acceptable prices in the future, may have a material adverse impact on the Group's business, financial condition, results of operations, cash flows and prospects.

The Group is exposed to litigation risk, including risks associated with the acquisition, ownership and development of its properties.

In its ordinary course of business, the Group may be subject to governmental, regulatory, legal or arbitral proceedings and claims, such as disputes with the Group's tenants and suppliers, labour disputes, indemnity claims, government audits and proceedings and tax audits and proceedings, as well as litigation associated with the Group's acquisitions and ownership titles. The Group may be exposed to the risk associated with potential financial exposure in relation to any such litigation. As of 31 December 2024, the Group had no significant provisions for claims and legal disputes.

Moreover, any litigation, regardless of its outcome, may materially affect the Group's reputation in the market or the Group's relationship with tenants or suppliers. Any litigation proceedings, even in the case of their settlement, may involve internal and external costs, regardless of the outcome of the relevant proceedings, and there is no guarantee that such incurred costs will be fully reimbursable, will not divert senior management's time or force the Group to use other resources that could otherwise be utilised elsewhere in the Group's business. Each of the abovementioned consequences of litigation could have a material adverse effect on the Group's business, financial condition, results of operations, cash flows and prospects.

On the other hand, the Group may face liabilities in relation to its sold assets. Moreover, the Group's liabilities related to construction or other defects in the properties disposed of by it, may be attributable to the Group even if the Group has not been aware of such defects. The materialisation of any or all of the abovementioned risks may have a material adverse effect on the Group's business, financial condition, results of operations, cash flows and prospects.

The Group is exposed to risks associated with its controlling shareholder.

The Issuer and the Group are indirectly wholly owned by GIC (Realty) Private Limited (the "Ultimate Shareholder"), who, as of the date of this Offering Circular, owns, through its associated entities, 100 per cent. of the share capital of the Issuer via Euro Vitus Private Limited, the sole shareholder of the Issuer (the "Shareholder"). The Ultimate Shareholder can exercise influence over the Group's legal and capital structure, funding and business strategies, and its interests may in some cases differ from those of the Issuer or of Noteholders.

If the Group were not to receive additional equity or shareholder loans when necessary to achieve its goals, the business opportunities and activities of the Group may be negatively affected. The Group may also be exposed to risks associated with potential future changes in its ownership structure. For instance, some of the Group's financing documents include a change of control provision, which may be triggered as a result of a change in the Group's ownership structure. Any new shareholder may change the business strategy of the Group and there is no guarantee that such strategy will be successfully implemented. In addition, such new shareholder might not be willing to or capable of providing the Group with additional equity, which may adversely affect the business opportunities and activities of the Group.

The Group is exposed to risk associated with lease of its rooftop areas for operation of photovoltaic solar power plants.

The Group leases some of the rooftop areas of its buildings for the operation of photovoltaic ("PV") solar power plants. The PV solar power plants operated in the rooftop areas of the Group's buildings may encounter operational difficulties that may result in equipment failures or accidents damaging the Group's property. The Group faces the risk that tenants may be unable to compensate the damages incurred on the Group's property and such damage may not be covered by insurance. The materialisation of any of the abovementioned risks may adversely affect the Group's business, financial condition, results of operations, cash flows and prospects.

Risks related to the Group's financial condition

The Group's leverage and debt service obligations could adversely affect its business and prevent it from fulfilling its obligations with respect to its indebtedness, and the Group may not be able to successfully renew or refinance such indebtedness as it matures, or may only be able to renew or refinance its indebtedness on less favourable terms.

As of 31 December 2024, the Group's External Indebtedness amounted to EUR 4.724 billion. The amount of the Group's indebtedness may trigger significant consequences, such as impediment of the Group's ability to meet its obligations in respect of outstanding indebtedness, increase of the Group's vulnerability and reducing its flexibility towards general adverse economic and industry conditions. There is no guarantee that the Group's outstanding indebtedness will not require a substantial portion of the Group's cash flow from operations to be dedicated to the payment of principal of, and interest on, the outstanding indebtedness. Such utilisation of cash flow may limit the ability of the Group to obtain, or reduce the availability of such cash flow for, additional financing, funding, capital expenditures, acquisitions, or other general corporate purposes.

Additionally, the Group may incur substantial additional indebtedness in the future. The Group's performance indicators may be adversely affected and result in higher interest expenses arising from any additional debt incurred that is related to future acquisitions, construction or development.

The Group is further exposed to the risk associated with its ability to renew, extend or refinance loans and other obligations as they mature, given the Group's dependence on access to borrowing facilities in order to meet its financial requirements. The ability of the Group to access the capital markets and other forms of financing (or refinancing), including the associated costs, depend on current economic conditions. The countries in which the Group operates have after historically high levels of inflation in 2022 and 2023 recently experienced lower levels of inflation, which has led to lower interest rates set by national banks. For example, in February 2025, the ECB has decreased its deposit facility rate to 2.75 per cent. (Source: ECB). Increases in inflation may lead to higher interest rates set by national banks (see "The Group is exposed to economic conditions and other events and circumstances that affect the markets in which the Group operates" for more information). In addition, the Group also depends on the Issuer's credit rating. The Issuer has been rated BBB (Stable) by S&P as of the date of this Offering Circular. If the Issuer's credit rating decreases, the Group may face the risk of higher credit margins and other expenses on its future borrowings or limited access to credit and bond markets and other forms of financing (or refinancing). The ability of the Issuer to retain its rating at the same level is dependent on various factors, including factors beyond its control, such as property valuations, market conditions or even the Group's ownership structure.

There is no guarantee that at the relevant time there will be sufficient available credit for redemption of the Notes or refinancing of the Group's indebtedness, as the availability of funds in the credit market is subject to fluctuations. In the event that the financial performance of the Group does not meet its existing contractual obligations or market expectations, the Group may not be able to refinance its existing facilities on favourable terms or at all. Moreover, the further development or competitiveness of the Group may be severely limited if the Group becomes unable to obtain the required financing as and when needed, or is only able to do so under onerous terms. In the case of inability to refinance the indebtedness, including the Notes, the Issuer may be forced to sell some or all of its properties, regardless the market conditions, in order to repay such indebtedness, and there is no guarantee that the properties will be realised within its assessed fair value. Furthermore, the ability of the Group to raise additional capital may be impacted by various factors, such as changes in market interest rates, restrictive covenants included in the Group's debt instruments or decreases in the Issuer's credit rating. The Group's ability to pay its debts as they become due or fund other liquidity needs may be limited if the Group does not generate sufficient cash flows or will not obtain funds in the sufficient amount from future financings or at acceptable interest rates.

The materialisation of any of the abovementioned risks may have a material adverse effect on the Group's business, financial condition, results of operations, cash flows and prospects.

The Group is exposed to liquidity risk.

The Group is exposed to the risks arising out of its obligations associated with financial liabilities settled by cash delivery or another financial asset. The main sources of the Group's liquidity are available cash, the committed EUR 750 million revolving credit facility (of which EUR 690 million remains unutilised as of the date of this Offering Circular), the committed EUR 100 million revolving credit facility (of which EUR 100 million remains unutilised as of the date of this Offering Circular), the committed EUR 100 million revolving credit facility (of which EUR 100 million remains unutilised as of the date of this Offering Circular) and another uncommitted EUR 50 million cash pool overdraft limit, which are available on a short notice and can be utilised for general corporate purposes, including for funding of new acquisitions. See "Description of the Issuer—Material Contracts" for more information. As of 31 December 2024, the Group's external indebtedness (consisting of bonds and bank borrowings) with contractual maturity in 2025, 2026, 2027, 2028, 2029, 2030, 2031, 2032 and 2035 amounted to EUR 0 million, EUR 500 million, EUR 850 million, EUR 525 million, EUR 640 million, EUR 850 million, EUR 321 million, EUR 500 million and EUR 500 million, respectively. The Group evaluates its liquidity risk based on monitoring changes within its financing structure and comparison of such changes with the Group's liquidity risk management strategy. In order to meet expected operational expenses, the Group aims to preserve sufficient amount of liquidity available on demand and assets with short maturity. Such preservation safeguards, however, exclude the impact of extreme unpredictable events, such as natural disasters. The Group's business, financial condition, results of operations, cash flows and prospects may be adversely affected in the event that the abovementioned liquidity risk management will not be effective, not followed or not result in intended impact.

The Group is exposed to currency fluctuation risks.

The Group conducts its business operations in a number of different countries across Europe and is therefore exposed to fluctuations in the value of currencies. The Group is exposed to foreign currency risks due to its operations and investments outside of the euro area, mainly in the Czech Republic, Poland and Romania.

In order to prepare its financial statements, the Issuer must convert the values of the assets, liabilities, revenues and expenses denominated in CZK, PLN and RON into euro at exchange rates applicable in the relevant time period. Equity investments into subsidiaries outside the euro area are not hedged, which creates non-cash translation differences and a weaker currency rate reduces the value of these investments as well as the equity of the Group. The translation of the income statements in local currencies into euro has a currency rate impact on the Group's income metrics, such as the earnings. Accordingly, significant movements in currency rates may have a material adverse effect on the Group's business, results of operations and financial condition.

In addition, in the non-Euro countries where the Group operates, the rental income is contractually euro-denominated, although paid in the local currency. Although the Group finances these countries internally in euro so that changes in operating profit due to currency fluctuations are partly offset by changes in financial expenses, there is no guarantee that these measures will be sufficient to offset the negative impact of currency fluctuations. Accordingly, significant movements in currency rates may have a material adverse effect on the Issuer's business, results of operations and financial condition.

Legal and regulatory risks

The Group is exposed to risks relating to zoning, planning and building laws and regulations and changes thereof.

When developing its properties, the Group is obliged to comply with restrictions imposed by applicable zoning, planning and building laws and regulations and changes thereof.

It cannot be excluded that between the time when the Group acquires a land plot and the time when the Group commences development activities, the general planning, zoning or building regulation designated for the area of the Group's development plans or applicable to new developments generally changes. In such case the Group would have to initiate a change of the particular planning and zoning regulation, which may take longer or require additional resources and lead to the delay or abandonment of the project in the event that the proposed change of the planning and zoning regulation is not achieved to the Group's benefit or at all.

Introduction of new planning, zoning or building regulations may also result in additional expenditures incurred to implement and comply with such requirements. These may include modernisations or refurbishment to comply with energy efficiency standards or environmental, health and safety requirements, which may not always be possible to charge to tenants. The Group may also face delays in the development process resulting from such changes in the applicable regulations. Some changes in the regulation may reduce the size of the properties that may be built on the Group's land, reducing their potential to generate rental income. In some circumstances, the newly imposed regulations may not allow the Group to profitably develop some of its contemplated projects.

In the event of non-compliance with such restrictions or limitations, the Group may face adverse consequences such as fines or other sanctions, prohibition of use or demolition orders, including injunctions ordering the Group to limit or cease its business operations, suspension or revocation of obtained permits and other enforcement measures.

The materialisation of any of the abovementioned risks could adversely affect the Group's business, financial condition, results of operations, cash flows and prospects.

The Group is subject to various regulations in the countries in which it operates and is exposed to the risks resulting from changes to the regulatory environment, or a failure to comply with applicable laws, regulations, licensing requirements and codes of practice.

The Group is subject to laws and regulations governing the ownership, development and leasing of property, employment standards, environmental matters, sanctions, anti-money laundering, anti-bribery and anti-corruption provisions, taxes and other matters in various jurisdictions. It is possible that future changes in applicable EU, national or local laws or regulations or changes in their enforcement or regulatory interpretation could result in changes in the legal requirements affecting the Group (possibly with retroactive effect).

Various laws and regulations, including fire and safety requirements, environmental regulations, land use restrictions and taxes affect the Group's properties. If the Group's properties do not comply with the requirements of these laws and regulations, the Group may incur administrative or civil fines. Changes in laws, rules, regulations or ordinances could require significant unanticipated expenditures or impose restrictions on the development, construction or sale of properties. Such laws, rules, regulations or ordinances may also adversely affect the Group's ability to operate or resell properties.

Any of these circumstances may have an adverse effect on its business, results of operations, financial condition and prospects. In addition, the political conditions in the jurisdictions where the Group operates are also subject to change. Any changes in investment policies or shifts in political attitudes may adversely affect the Group's operations.

Any changes in the laws to which the Group is subject, in the jurisdictions in which it operates, could materially affect the rights and title to the Group's properties. For instance, the use of the Group's properties may be limited by changes in regulatory requirements, such as urban development regulations and general planning law requirements, between the time the Group acquires the property and the time it receives all the required authorisations and permits. This may, for instance, prevent the Group from using its property for logistics activities or may adversely affect the Group's ability to sell, lease, redevelop or finance the affected properties (see also "The Group is exposed to risks relating to zoning, planning and building laws and regulations and changes thereof" below).

Failure to comply with these regulations may result in the assessment of administrative, civil and criminal penalties, or even the issuance of injunctions to limit or cease operations, the suspension or revocation of permits and other enforcement measures that could have the effect of limiting the Group's operations.

The materialisation of any of the above risks could have a material adverse effect on the Group's business, financial condition, results of operations, cash flows, prospects and reputation.

The Group could become liable for environmental-law violations, regardless of whether it caused such violations.

The Group could become liable in the form of fines, damages or remedial costs for non-compliance with environmental laws and regulations in the jurisdictions where its properties are located.

These laws and regulations generally govern wastewater discharges, air emissions, olfactory discomfort, the operation and removal of underground and above-ground storage tanks, the use, conservation and protection of soil, the use, storage, treatment, transportation and disposal of solid hazardous materials, the remediation of contaminated property associated with the disposal of solid and hazardous materials and other health and safety-related concerns. Some of these laws and regulations may impose joint and several liability on tenants or the Group for the costs of investigation or remediation of contaminated properties payable to a governmental entity or a third party, regardless of fault or of the legality of the original disposal. For example, a current or former owner or manager of real property may be liable for the cost to remove or remediate hazardous or toxic substances, waste or petroleum products on, under, from, or in such property. These costs could be substantial and liability under these laws may attach whether or not the Group was aware of, or was responsible for, the presence of such contamination. Even if more than one person may have been responsible for the contamination, each liable party may be held entirely responsible for all of the clean-up costs incurred. These environmental risks are particularly severe with respect to plots of land or brownfields located in countries where reliable documentation for past contamination does not exist or where the laws governing environmental matters are unclear or in development. These risks are not always predictable or under the Group's control.

While the Group may have obtained, and will seek to obtain in the future, certain indemnities relating to environmental liabilities in any purchase agreement (particularly where any specific environmental liability risks may have been identified), it may not be possible for the Group to recover the full costs or losses incurred or suffered under such indemnity (see also "Risks related to the Group's business activities and industry—The Group is exposed to litigation risk, including risks associated with the acquisition, ownership and development of its properties").

However, should the Group fail to comply with existing or proposed stricter environmental, health and safety laws and enforcement policies in the future, or fail to deal adequately with environmental issues, this could result in substantial costs and liabilities and could subject the Group's properties (or those formerly owned or managed by the Group) to more rigorous scrutiny than is currently the case. Thereby the Group's reputation may be damaged, and it may be required to pay penalties or fines or take remedial actions. An adverse outcome of any of these may as well include the imposition of civil or criminal liability on the Group or its officers and could have a significant impact on the Group's business, financial condition, results of operations, cash flows and prospects.

In addition, third parties may sue the Group for damages based on personal injury, environmental or property damage, violations of environmental laws, or for other costs, including investigation and clean-up costs, resulting from environmental contamination. The presence of contamination on one of the Group's properties, or the failure to properly remediate a contaminated property, could result in substantial expenditures with respect to the de-contamination and adversely affect the Group's ability to sell or lease the property or borrow using the property as collateral. In addition, if contamination is discovered on the Group's properties, environmental laws may impose restrictions on the manner in which the property may be used or businesses may be operated, and these restrictions may require substantial expenditures or prevent the Group from entering into leases with prospective tenants. Moreover, if the Group's permits are successfully challenged for violations of the environmental laws, this could lead to the suspension or revocation of permits and other enforcement measures that could have the effect of limiting the Group's operations and development activities.

There can be no assurance that future laws, ordinances or regulations will not impose any material environmental liability, or that the environmental condition of the Group's properties will not be affected by the operations of tenants, by the existing condition of the land, or by operations in the vicinity of the properties. There can be no assurance that these laws, changes in these laws, or the materialisation of any of the above risks, will not have a material adverse effect on the Group's business, financial condition, results of operations, cash flows and prospects.

The Group is exposed to risks relating to certain properties in its portfolio which are subject to legacy contractual restrictions, statutory encumbrances, competing claims, pre-emption rights or other limitations.

The Group's property portfolio is subject to restrictions under applicable planning, building, environmental and other laws and regulations in the countries where it operates. The buildings and plots of land in the ownership of the Group may be subject to contractual and statutory encumbrances, competing claims, pre-emption rights and other limitations, which may not be covered, sufficiently or at all, by the Group's insurance policies and which may impact their value and the Group's ability to use and dispose of its properties as it would otherwise see fit.

In addition, it cannot be guaranteed that certain Group's properties are not in technical violation of easement rights or encroachment requirements, which could result in the Group's obligation to pay compensation to third parties or the relevant authorities.

As a result of the above or other restrictions, the Group may incur additional expenses and experience delays during the development of its properties or not be able to develop them at all. Non-compliance with such restrictions may have consequences ranging from governmental to civil fines, administrative and penal sanctions to prohibition of use or demolition orders, including injunctions to limit or cease operations, the suspension or revocation of permits and other enforcement measures.

The materialisation of any of the above risks could adversely affect the Group's business financial condition, results of operations, cash flows and prospects.

The Group is exposed to risks relating to potential property tax increases.

The properties of the Group including any properties the Group will develop or acquire in the future are subject to property taxes. Property taxes may increase as a consequence of changes in property tax rates and in connection with the assessment or reassessment of the Group's properties by taxing authorities. The Group has recently experienced particular regional property tax increases in the Czech Republic, Romania and Slovakia, and the Group is generally subject to annual revision of property taxes in Poland.

A German property tax reform is effective since January 2025, which may result in an increase in property tax applicable to the Group's properties located in Germany.

The Group regards property taxes as recoverable expenses and generally charges any such increases to its tenants as an expense related to the properties which they occupy. However, the Group remains ultimately responsible for payment of property taxes to the government by virtue of the Group's ownership of the properties. In the event of increases in property taxes, the Group's tenants may be unable to make the required tax payments, which may require the Group to carry out any of the outstanding payments from its own resources. Additionally, the Group is generally responsible for property taxes in respect of any vacant space within the Group's properties.

Any of the abovementioned factors associated with property tax increases may adversely affect the Group's business, financial condition, results of operations, cash flows and prospects.

The Group's properties may be subject to environmental regulations.

The introduction of the Directive (EU) 2023/959 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 10 May 2023 amending Directive 2003/87/EC establishing a system for greenhouse gas emission allowance trading within the Union EU ("ETS 2") may be expected to increase the costs associated with energy consumption and carbon emissions, especially for buildings with poor energy efficiency or reliance on fossil fuel. The energy costs are covered by the Group's tenants, either via direct utility contracts or through re-invoicing of utility costs by the Group. In certain circumstances, these increased costs may adversely affect the demand for the Group's leasable properties. This could negatively impact the Group's ability to maintain current occupancy levels, industrial leasing revenue, and the overall profitability of its properties. Such developments could have a material adverse effect on the Group's business, financial condition, results of operations, cash flows, and prospects.

The Group is exposed to risks relating to the tax positions taken in the course of the Group's business and is exposed to the risk of the imposition of any new taxes, or changing interpretations or application of tax regulations.

The Group takes tax positions in the course of its business with respect to various tax matters, including but not limited to the taxation of foreign exchange results, taxation of dividends, capital gains and other revenues, compliance with the arm's length principles in respect of transactions with related parties, the tax deductibility of interest and other operating as well as financial costs and the amount of depreciation or write-down on assets the Group can recognise for tax purposes.

As a vertically integrated group, the Group and its subsidiaries are in the process of concluding and will continue to conclude in the future, a significant number of transactions with related parties across various jurisdictions. Specifically, these transactions relate to the provision of various property management and administration services, development and construction management services and intra-group financing. Although the Group endeavours to follow the arm's length principle as well as unified standards in respect of dealings with affiliates, the Group cannot preclude potential disputes with tax authorities regarding transactions with related parties resulting in potential underpayment of taxes. If any tax authority disagrees with the Group on any interpretive matter or challenges any tax position taken or specific transaction(s), the Group or its subsidiaries may be subject to unexpected tax liabilities or penalties.

In addition, the imposition of any new taxes in the countries in which the Group operates, or changing interpretations or application of tax regulations by either tax authorities or courts; harmonisation of national and EU tax law and regulation; evolution of longstanding international norms that determine each country's jurisdiction to tax cross-border activities, such as the Base Erosion and Profit Shifting project currently being undertaken by the G20 and the Organisation for Economic Cooperation and Development and the corresponding EU and national regulations; significant tax disputes with tax authorities; any change in the tax status of any member of the Group; and the possible imposition of penalties and other sanctions due to incorrectly reported or unpaid tax liabilities, may result in additional amounts due by the Group.

The materialisation of any of the above risks could have a material adverse effect on the Group's business, financial condition, results of operations, cash flows and prospects.

The Group is exposed to risks relating to failing to abide by climate change regulations and support and integrate ESG standards into its business strategy and practices.

The Group has been subject to climate change regulations, including those related to greenhouse gas emissions, renewable energy targets and environmental protection, and expectations regarding environmental, social and governance (“ESG”) standards, which are subject to ongoing evolution at both domestic and international levels. Changes in legislation, governmental policies, or international agreements aimed at mitigating climate change and implementing ESG standards could impose new requirements or stricter standards on the Group’s business activities and increase the Group’s costs associated with compliance with such requirements. Compliance with evolving climate regulations and ESG standards may necessitate substantial capital expenditures, operational changes, or investments in new technologies. Such measures could lead to increased costs, reduced competitiveness, or constraints on the Group’s ability to expand or operate in certain jurisdictions. Moreover, failure to comply with these evolving regulatory requirements and ESG standards could result in fines, penalties, legal liabilities, or reputational damage. Furthermore, the uncertainty surrounding future climate change regulations and ESG standards and their enforcement may impact the Group’s ability to accurately forecast and plan for its business activities. Changes in regulatory frameworks or market conditions could require the Group to adapt its strategies, potentially resulting in additional costs, delays, or disruptions to its operations.

The materialisation of any of the above risks could have a material adverse effect on the Group’s business, financial condition, results of operations, cash flows, prospects and reputation.

The Group’s properties may be subject to state bodies exercising their right of expropriation or directing a compulsory purchase.

The Group’s properties may be, under certain circumstances, subject to expropriation, for example to complete public works, redevelopment or infrastructure projects. Typically, compensation must be paid to the owner of the property; however, there can be no assurance that compensation in respect of any expropriation will be adequate in all circumstances.

Such events could reduce the Group’s rental income and the value of its property portfolio, which could have a material adverse effect on the Group’s business, financial condition, results of operations, cash flows and prospects.

RISKS RELATING TO THE NOTES

The Notes may be redeemed prior to maturity.

In the event that, as a result of a change in law or regulation, the Issuer would be obliged to increase the amounts payable in respect of any Notes due to any withholding or deduction for or on account of, any present or future taxes, duties, assessments or governmental charges of whatever nature imposed, levied, collected, withheld or assessed by or on behalf of any Tax Jurisdiction as provided in Condition 12 (Taxation) or any political subdivision thereof or any authority therein or thereof having power to tax, and such obligation cannot be avoided by reasonable measures, the Issuer may redeem all outstanding Notes in accordance with the Conditions.

If in the case of any particular Tranche of Notes the Pricing Supplement specifies that the Notes are redeemable at the Issuer’s option in certain other circumstances and accordingly the Issuer may choose to redeem the Notes at times when prevailing interest rates may be relatively low. In such circumstances an investor may not be able to reinvest the redemption proceeds in a comparable security at an effective interest rate as high as that of the Notes and may only be able to do so at a significantly lower rate. An optional redemption feature is likely to limit the market value of the Notes. During any period when the Issuer may elect to redeem the Notes, the market value of the Notes generally will not rise substantially above the price at which they can be redeemed. This also may be true prior to any redemption period.

There is no active trading market for the Notes.

The Notes are new securities which may not be widely distributed and for which there is currently no active trading market (unless in the case of any particular Tranche, such Tranche is to be consolidated with and form a single series with a Tranche of Notes which is already issued). Although applications have been made to the Luxembourg Stock Exchange for the Notes to be admitted to trading on the Euro MTF Market there can be no assurance that such application will be accepted, that any particular Tranche of Notes will be so admitted, or that an active trading market will develop or, if developed, that it will continue. In addition, the ability of the Dealers to make a market in the Notes may be impacted by changes in regulatory requirements applicable to the marketing, holding and trading of, and issuing quotations with respect to, the Notes. Therefore, investors may not be able to sell their Notes easily or at prices that will provide them with a yield comparable to similar investments that have a developed secondary market. Illiquidity may have a severely adverse effect on the market value of Notes. If the Notes are traded after their initial issuance, they may trade at a discount to their initial offering price, depending upon prevailing interest rates, the market for similar securities, general economic conditions and the financial condition of the Issuer.

Credit Rating may not reflect all risks.

As of the date of this Offering Circular, the Issuer has been assigned a rating of BBB (Stable) by S&P. Tranches of Notes to be issued under the Programme may be rated or unrated. Where a Tranche of Notes is rated, the applicable rating(s) will be specified in the relevant Pricing Supplement. Such rating will not necessarily be the same as the rating(s) assigned to the Issuer, the Programme or to Notes already issued. One or more independent credit rating agencies may also assign credit ratings to the Notes, which may not necessarily be the same ratings as the Issuer or any rating(s) assigned to Notes already issued. Such ratings may not reflect the potential impact of all risks related to structure, market, additional factors discussed in this section, and other factors that may affect the value of the Notes. A credit rating is not a recommendation to buy, sell or hold securities and may be subject to suspension, reduction or withdrawal at any time by the assigning rating agency. Actual or anticipated changes or downgrades in the Issuer's credit ratings, including any announcement that the Issuer's ratings are under further review for a downgrade, could affect the market value of the Notes and increase the Issuer's borrowing costs.

In general, European regulated investors are restricted from using a rating for regulatory purposes if such rating is not (1) issued by a credit rating agency established in the EEA and registered under the EU CRA Regulation or (2) provided by a credit rating agency not established in the EEA but is endorsed by a credit rating agency established in the EEA and registered under the EU CRA Regulation or (3) provided by a credit rating agency not established in the EEA which is certified under the EU CRA Regulation. Similarly, in general, UK regulated investors are restricted from using a rating for regulatory purposes if such rating is not (1) issued by a credit rating agency established in the UK and registered under the UK CRA Regulation or (2) provided by a credit rating agency not established in the UK but is endorsed by a credit rating agency established in the UK and registered under the UK CRA Regulation or (3) provided by a credit rating agency not established in the UK which is certified under the UK CRA Regulation.

If any applicable requirements of the EU CRA Regulation or the UK CRA Regulation are not, or cease to be, satisfied with regard to any rating of the Notes, EU regulated investors or, as applicable, UK regulated investors may not be able to use such rating for regulatory purposes and the Notes may have a different regulatory treatment for such investors. This may result in EU regulated investors or UK regulated investors, as applicable, being unable to acquire, or being obliged to sell, the Notes; and this may impact the value of the Notes and their liquidity in the secondary market. The list of registered and certified rating agencies published by the European Securities and Markets Authority on its website in accordance with the EU CRA Regulation, and the list of registered and certified rating agencies published by the United Kingdom Financial Conduct Authority (the "FCA") on its website in accordance with the UK CRA Regulation, are not conclusive evidence of the status of any such rating agency, as there may be a delay between certain supervisory measures being taken against a relevant rating agency and the relevant list being updated.

Certain information with respect to the credit rating agencies and ratings if a Tranche of Notes is rated will be disclosed in the applicable Pricing Supplement.

Modifications waivers and substitution.

The Conditions and the Trust Deed contain provisions for calling meetings of Noteholders (including by way of conference call or by use of videoconference platform) to consider matters affecting their interests generally, or to pass resolutions. These provisions permit defined majorities to bind all Noteholders including Noteholders who did not attend and vote at the relevant meeting and Noteholders who voted in a manner contrary to the majority.

The Conditions and the Trust Deed also provide that the Trustee may, without the consent of Noteholders, (i) agree to any modification of, or to the waiver or authorisation of any breach or proposed breach of, any of the provisions of the Notes, the Conditions, the Trust Deed or the Agency Agreement or (ii) determine that any Event of Default or potential Event of Default shall not be treated as such or (iii) agree to the substitution of another company in place of the Issuer provided certain conditions are fulfilled and the Trustee is of the opinion that to do so would not be materially prejudicial to the interest of the Noteholders.

Subject to and in accordance with Condition 7(n) (Benchmark Replacement(Independent Adviser)) and Condition 6 (f) (Interest – Floating Rate Notes referencing SOFR), in certain circumstances the Trustee shall be obliged to consent to certain changes to the interest calculation of Floating Rate Notes, without the consent of Noteholders.

Accordingly, there is a risk that the terms of the Notes, the Conditions, the Trust Deed or the Agency Agreement may be modified, waived or amended in circumstances where a Noteholder does not agree to such modification, waiver or amendment, which may adversely impact the rights of such Noteholder.

Notes with integral multiples.

In relation to any issue of Notes which have a denomination consisting of the minimum Specified Denomination plus a higher integral multiple of another smaller amount, it is possible that the Notes may be traded in amounts in excess of the minimum Specified Denomination that are not integral multiples of the minimum Specified Denomination. Noteholders who, as a result of trading such amounts, hold a principal amount of Notes other than a multiple of the minimum Specified Denomination will receive definitive Notes in respect of their holding (provided that the aggregate amount of Notes they hold is in excess of the minimum Specified Denomination), however, any such definitive Notes which are printed in denominations other than the minimum Specified Denomination would not be able to sell the remainder of its holding and may be illiquid and difficult to trade. Furthermore, a Noteholder who, as a result of trading such amounts, holds a principal amount of less than the minimum Specified Denomination may not receive a definitive Note in respect of such holding (should definitive Notes be printed) and would need to purchase a principal amount of Notes such that its holding amounts to a Specified Denomination.

The Global Notes are held by or on behalf of Euroclear and Clearstream, Luxembourg, and holders of the Notes will have to rely on their procedures for transfer, payment and communication with the Issuer.

Notes issued under the Programme may be represented by one or more Global Bearer Notes or Global Registered Notes (together the “Global Notes”) (as the case may be). Such Global Notes will be deposited with a common depositary or common safekeeper, as the case may be, for Euroclear and Clearstream, Luxembourg. Except in the circumstances described in the relevant Global Note, holders of the Notes will not be entitled to receive definitive Notes or, in the case of Global Registered Notes, Individual Note Certificates. Euroclear and Clearstream, Luxembourg will maintain records of the beneficial interests in the Global Notes. While the Notes are represented by one or more Global Notes, holders of the Notes will be able to trade their beneficial interests only through Euroclear and Clearstream, Luxembourg and their participants.

While the Notes are represented by one or more Global Notes the Issuer will discharge its payment obligations under the Notes by making payments to the common depositary or common safekeeper, as the case may be, for Euroclear and Clearstream, Luxembourg for distribution to their account holders. A holder of a beneficial interest in a Global Note must rely on the procedures of Euroclear and Clearstream, Luxembourg to receive payments under the relevant Notes. The Issuer has no responsibility or liability for the records relating to, or payments made in respect of, beneficial interests in the Global Notes.

Holders of beneficial interests in the Global Notes will not have a direct right to vote in respect of the relevant Notes. Instead, such holders will be permitted to act only to the extent that they are enabled by Euroclear and Clearstream, Luxembourg to appoint appropriate proxies.

Interest Rate Risks.

Investment in fixed rate Notes involves the risk that subsequent changes in market interest rates may adversely affect the value of fixed rate Notes.

The Notes may not satisfy the Eurosystem eligibility criteria.

The NGN and NSS (each as defined in “Forms of the Notes” below) have been introduced to allow for the possibility of debt instruments being issued and held in a manner which will permit them to be recognised as eligible collateral for the Eurosystem (as defined in “Forms of the Notes” below) and intra-day credit operations by the Eurosystem either upon issue or at any or all times during their life. However in any particular case such recognition will depend upon satisfaction of the Eurosystem eligibility criteria at the relevant time. Investors should make their own assessment as to whether the Notes meet such Eurosystem eligibility criteria.

The value of the Notes could be adversely affected by a change in English law or administrative practice.

The “Terms and Conditions of the Notes” are governed by English law in effect as at the date of this Offering Circular. No assurance can be given as to the impact of any possible judicial decision or change to English law or administrative practice or the official application or interpretation of English law after the date of this Offering Circular and any such change could materially adversely impact the value of any Notes affected by it.

If an investor holds Notes which are not denominated in the investor's home currency, it will be exposed to movements in exchange rates adversely affecting the value of its holding. In addition, the imposition of exchange controls in relation to any Notes could result in an investor not receiving payments on those Notes.

The Issuer will pay principal and interest on the Notes in the currency specified in the applicable Pricing Supplement (the “Specified Currency”). This presents certain risks relating to currency conversions if an investor’s financial activities are denominated principally in a currency or currency unit (the “Investor’s Currency”) other than the Specified Currency. These include the risk that exchange rates may significantly change (including changes due to devaluation of the Specified Currency or revaluation of the Investor’s Currency) and the risk that authorities with jurisdiction over the Investor’s Currency may impose or modify exchange controls. An appreciation in the value of the Investor’s Currency relative to the Specified Currency would decrease: (1) the Investor’s Currency-equivalent yield on the Notes; (2) the Investor’s Currency equivalent value of the principal payable on the Notes; and (3) the Investor’s Currency equivalent market value of the Notes.

Government and monetary authorities may impose (as some have done in the past) exchange controls that could adversely affect an applicable exchange rate or the ability of the Issuer to make payments in respect of the Note. As a result, investors may receive less interest or principal than expected, or no interest or principal.

A partial redemption may affect the liquidity of the Notes of the same Series in respect of which such option is not exercised.

An early redemption at the option of the Issuer (as described in Condition 9(c) (Redemption at the option of the Issuer)) or an early redemption at the option of the Noteholders in respect of certain Notes may affect the liquidity of the Notes of the same Series in respect of which such option is not exercised. Depending on the number of Notes of the same Series in respect of which a partial redemption of the Notes at the option of the Issuer or at the option of the Noteholders is made, any trading market in respect of those Notes in respect of which such option is not exercised may become illiquid.

The market value of the Notes issued at a substantial discount or premium is subject to greater volatility.

The market values of securities issued at a substantial discount (such as Zero Coupon Notes) or premium from their principal amount tend to fluctuate more in relation to general changes in interest rates than do prices for conventional interest-bearing securities. Generally, the longer the remaining term of the securities, the greater the price volatility as compared to conventional interest-bearing securities with comparable maturities.

Regulation of benchmarks may lead to future reforms or discontinuation.

The Euro Interbank Offered Rate (“EURIBOR”) and other interest rates or other types of rates and indices which are deemed to be benchmarks have been subject to significant regulatory scrutiny and legislative intervention in recent years. This relates not only to creation and administration of benchmarks, but, also, to the use of a benchmark rate. In the EU, for example, Regulation (EU) No. 2016/1011, as amended (the “EU Benchmarks Regulation”) applies to the provision of, contribution of input data to, and the use of, a benchmark within the EU, subject to certain transitional provisions. Similarly, Regulation (EU) No. 2016/1011 as it forms part of domestic law of the UK by virtue of the EUWA (the “UK Benchmarks” Regulation”) applies to the provision of, contribution of input data to, and the use of, a benchmark within the UK, subject to certain transitional provisions.

Legislation such as the EU Benchmarks Regulation or the UK Benchmarks Regulation, if applicable, could have a material impact on any Notes linked to EURIBOR or another benchmark rate or index- for example, if the methodology or other terms of the benchmark are changed in the future in order to comply with the terms of the EU Benchmarks Regulation or UK Benchmarks Regulation or other similar legislation, or if a critical benchmark is discontinued or is determined to be by a regulator to be “no longer representative”. Such factors could (amongst other things) have the effect of reducing or increasing the rate or level or may affect the volatility of the published rate or level of the benchmark. They may also have the effect of discouraging market participants from continuing to administer or contribute to certain “benchmarks,” trigger changes in the rules or methodologies used in certain “benchmarks” or lead to the discontinuance or unavailability of quotes of certain “benchmarks”.

Although EURIBOR has subsequently been reformed in order to comply with the terms of the EU Benchmarks Regulation, it remains uncertain as to how long it will continue in its current form, or whether it will be further reformed or replaced with the Euro Short Term Rate (“€STR”) or an alternative benchmark.

The elimination of EURIBOR or any other benchmark, or changes in the manner of administration of any benchmark, could require or result in an adjustment to the interest calculation provisions of the Conditions (as further described in Condition 7(n) (Benchmark Replacement-Independent Adviser), or result in adverse consequences to holders of any Notes linked to such benchmark (including Floating Rate Notes whose interest rates are linked to EURIBOR or any other such benchmark that is subject to reform). Furthermore, even prior to the implementation of any changes, uncertainty as to the nature of alternative reference rates and as to potential changes to such benchmark may adversely affect such benchmark during the term of the relevant Notes, the return on the relevant Notes and the trading market for securities (including the Notes) based on the same benchmark.

The administrator of SONIA, SOFR or €STR or any related indices may make changes that could change the value of SONIA, SOFR or €STR or any related index, or discontinue SONIA, SOFR or €STR or any related index.

Newer reference rates or any related indices and rates that fall outside the scope of the EU Benchmarks Regulation and UK Benchmarks Regulation may also be subject to changes or discontinuation. For example, the Bank of England, the Federal Reserve, Bank of New York or the European Central Bank (or their successors) as administrators of the Sterling Overnight Index Average (“SONIA”) (and the SONIA Compounded Index), the Secured Overnight Financing Rate (“SOFR”) (and the SOFR Compounded Index) or €STR, respectively, may make methodological or other changes that could change the value of these risk-free rates and/or indices, including changes related to the method by which such risk-free rate is calculated, eligibility criteria applicable to the transactions used to calculate SONIA, SOFR or €STR, or timing related to the publication of SONIA, SOFR or €STR or any related indices. In addition, the administrator may alter, discontinue or suspend calculation or dissemination of SONIA, SOFR or €STR or any related index (in which case a fallback method of determining the interest rate on the Notes will apply). The administrator has no obligation to consider the interests of Noteholders when calculating, adjusting, converting, revising or discontinuing any such risk-free rate.

Interest rate “fallback” arrangements may lead to Notes performing differently or the effective application of a “fixed rate”.

If a relevant benchmark (including any page on which such benchmark may be published (or any other successor service)) becomes unavailable or a Benchmark Event or a Benchmark Transition Event (each as defined in the Conditions), as applicable, occurs, the Conditions of the Notes provide for certain fallback arrangements. Such fallback arrangements include the possibility that the rate of interest could be set by reference to a successor rate or an alternative rate and that such successor rate or alternative reference rate may be adjusted (if required) in accordance with the recommendation of a relevant governmental body or in order to reduce or eliminate, to the extent reasonably practicable in the circumstances, any economic prejudice or benefit (as applicable) to investors arising out of the replacement of the relevant benchmark, although the application of such adjustments to the Notes may not achieve this objective.

Any such changes may result in the Notes performing differently (which may include payment of a lower interest rate) than if the original benchmark continued to apply. It is also possible that such an event may be deemed to have occurred prior to the issue date for a Series of Notes. Moreover, due to the uncertainty concerning the availability of successor rates and alternative reference rates and the involvement of an Independent Adviser (as defined in the Conditions) in certain circumstances, the relevant fallback provisions may not operate as intended at the relevant time. Additionally, in certain circumstances, the ultimate fallback of interest for a particular Interest Period may result in the rate of interest for the last preceding Interest Period being used, which may result in the effective application of a fixed rate for Floating Rate Notes based on the rate which was last observed on the Relevant Screen Page.

Any such consequences could have a material adverse effect on the value of and return on any such Notes. Investors should consult their own independent advisers and make their own assessment about the potential risks arising from the possible cessation or reform of certain reference rates in making any investment decision with respect to any Notes linked to or referencing a benchmark.

Methodologies for the calculation of risk-free rates (including overnight rates or forward-looking rates) as reference rates for Floating Rate Notes may vary and may evolve.

The use of “risk-free rates”, such as SONIA, SOFR and €STR, as reference rates for Eurobonds, have become more commonly used as benchmark rates for bonds in recent years. Most of the rates are backwards/looking, but the methodologies to calculate the risk-free rates are not uniform. Such different methodologies may result in slightly different interest amounts being determined in respect of otherwise similar securities.

The Issuer may in the future also issue Notes referencing SONIA, the SONIA Compounded Index, SOFR, the SOFR Compounded Index or €STR that differ materially in terms of interest determination when compared with any previous Notes issued by it under this Programme.

Such variations could result in reduced liquidity or increased volatility or might otherwise affect the market price of any Notes that reference a risk-free rate issued under this Programme from time to time. In addition, investors should consider how any mismatch between applicable conventions for the use of reference rates in the bond, loan and derivatives markets may impact any hedging or other financial arrangements which they may put in place in connection with any acquisition, holding or disposal of Notes referencing such risk-free rates. Investors should consider these matters when making their investment decision with respect to any Notes which reference SONIA, SOFR, €STR or any related indices.

It is not possible to calculate interest rates in advance for Notes which reference SONIA, SOFR, €STR or any related indices.

Interest on Notes which reference a backwards-looking risk-free rate is only capable of being determined immediately prior to the relevant Interest Payment Date. It may therefore be difficult for investors in Notes which reference such risk-free rates reliably to estimate the amount of interest which will be payable on such Notes.

Further, in contrast to Notes linked to interbank offered rates, if Notes referencing backwards-looking rates become due and payable as a result of an Event of Default under Condition 13 (Events of Default), or are otherwise redeemed early on a date which is not an Interest Payment Date, the final Rate of Interest Rate payable in respect of such Notes shall be determined by reference to a shortened period ending immediately prior to the date on which the Notes become due and payable or are scheduled for redemption.

Notes issued as Green Bonds with a specific use of proceeds, may not meet investor expectations or requirements.

The Pricing Supplement relating to a specific Tranche of Notes may provide that it is the Issuer’s intention to apply an amount, which at the Issue Date of the relevant Notes, is equal to the net proceeds of the issue of such Notes towards Eligible Projects as defined under “Use of Proceeds” in accordance with its green finance framework published and available on its website www.p3parks.com/investors (as amended or updated from time to time, the “Issuer’s Green Finance Framework”). A prospective investor should have regard to the information set out in the section “Use of Proceeds” and determine for itself the relevance of such information for the purpose of an investment in such Notes together with any other investigation it deems necessary.

No assurance is given by the Issuer or the Dealers that such use of proceeds will satisfy, whether in whole or in part, any present or future investment criteria or guidelines with which an investor is required, or intends, to comply, whether by reason of any present or future applicable law or regulation or by its own by-laws or other governing rules or investment portfolio mandates, in particular with regard to any direct or indirect environmental or sustainability impact of any project or uses, the subject of or related to, the Issuer's Green Finance Framework (including in relation to the EU Taxonomy Regulation and any related technical screening criteria, the EU Green Bond Regulation, SFDR, and any implementing legislation and guidelines, or any similar legislation in the United Kingdom, or any market standards or guidance, including the ICMA Principles).

Furthermore, no assurance can be given that Eligible Projects will meet investor expectations or requirements regarding such "green", "sustainable", "social" or similar labels (including but not limited to the EU Taxonomy Regulation and any related technical screening criteria, the EU Green Bond Regulation, SFDR, and any implementing legislation and guidelines, or any similar legislation in the United Kingdom or any market standards or guidance, including the ICMA Principles) or any requirements of such labels as they may evolve from time to time. Any Green Bonds issued under the Programme will not be compliant with the EU Green Bond Regulation and are only intended to comply with the requirements and processes in the Issuer's Green Finance Framework. It is not clear if the establishment under the EU Green Bond Regulation of the EuGB label and the optional disclosure templates for bonds marketed as "environmentally sustainable" could have an impact on investor demand for, and pricing of, green/sustainable/social use of proceeds bonds that do not comply with the requirements of the EuGB label or the optional disclosures templates, such as the Green Bonds issued under this Programme. It could result in reduced liquidity or lower demand or could otherwise affect the market price of any Green Bonds issued under this Programme that do not comply with the requirements of the EU Green Bond Regulation.

Sustainalytics B.V. has issued the Second Party Opinion, which provides an opinion on certain environmental and related considerations and is a statement of opinion, not a statement of fact. No representation or assurance is given as to the suitability or reliability for any purpose whatsoever of any opinion, review or certification of any third party, including any post-issuance reports prepared by an external reviewer (whether or not solicited by the Issuer) which may or may not be made available in connection with an issue of Notes issued as Green Bonds and in particular with respect to whether the Eligible Projects fulfils any environmental, sustainability, social and/or other criteria. The Second Party Opinion and any other such opinion, review, certification or post-issuance report is not intended to address any credit, market or other aspects of any investment in the Notes, including without limitation market price, marketability, investor preference or suitability of any security or any other factors that may affect the value of the Notes. Any such opinion, review certification or post-issuance report is not, nor should be deemed to be, a recommendation by the Issuer, the Dealers or any other person to buy, sell or hold any such Notes and is current only as of the date it was issued and may be subsequently withdrawn and may not address the risks that relate to any Eligible Project. As at the date of this Offering Circular, the providers of such opinions, reviews, certifications or post-issuance reports are not subject to any specific regulatory or other regime or oversight. The EU Green Bond Regulation will introduce a supervisory regime of external reviewers of European Green Bonds but this is not due to take full effect until 21 June 2026. Prospective investors must determine for themselves the relevance of any such opinion, certification or post-issuance report and/or the information contained therein for the purpose of any investment in the Notes issued as Green Bonds. The Second Party Opinion and any other such opinion, certification or post-issuance report does not form part of, nor is incorporated by reference, in this Offering Circular.

In the event that any such Notes are listed or admitted to trading on a dedicated "green" or other equivalently-labelled segment of a stock exchange or securities market (whether or not regulated), no representation or assurance is given by the Issuer, the Dealers or any other person that such listing or admission satisfies, whether in whole or in part, any present or future investor expectations or requirements as regards any investment criteria or guidelines with which such investor is required, or intends, to comply, whether by reason of any present or future applicable law or regulations or by its own by-laws or other governing rules or investment portfolio mandates, in particular with regard to any direct or indirect environmental, sustainability or social impact of any projects or uses, the subject of or related to, the Issuer's Green Finance Framework. Furthermore, it should be noted that the criteria for any such listings or admission to trading may vary from one stock exchange or securities market to another. No representation or assurance is given or made by the Issuer, the Dealers or any other person that any such listing or admission to trading will be obtained in respect of any such Notes or, if obtained, that any such listing or admission to trading will be maintained during the life of the Notes. For the avoidance of doubt, the loss of any such listing or admission to trading will not give rise to any redemption rights under the terms of the Notes issued as Green Bonds.

While it is the intention of the Issuer to apply the proceeds of any Notes issued as Green Bonds towards Eligible Projects and to report on the use of proceeds or Eligible Projects as described in “Use of Proceeds” below and/or in the applicable Pricing Supplement, there is no contractual obligation to do so. There can be no assurance that any such Eligible Projects will be available or capable of being implemented in, or substantially in, the manner anticipated and, accordingly, that the Issuer will be able to use an amount equal to the net proceeds of the issue of such Green Bond for such Eligible Projects as intended. In addition, there can be no assurance that Eligible Projects will be completed as expected or achieve the impacts or outcomes (environmental or otherwise) originally expected or anticipated by the Issuer.

None of a failure by the Issuer to allocate the proceeds of any Notes issued as Green Bonds or to report on the use of proceeds or Eligible Projects as anticipated or a failure of a third party to issue (or to withdraw) an opinion, review, certification or post-issuance report in connection with an issue of Green Bonds or the failure of the Notes issued as Green Bonds to meet investors’ expectations or requirements regarding any “green”, or similar labels (including but not limited to the EU Taxonomy Regulation and any related technical screening criteria, the EU Green Bond Regulation, SFDR, and any implementing legislation and guidelines, or any similar legislation in the UK or any market standards or guidance, including the ICMA Principles) will constitute an Event of Default or breach of contract with respect to any of the Notes issued as Green Bonds.

A failure of the Notes issued as Green Bonds to meet investor expectations or requirements as to their “green” or equivalent characteristics including the failure to apply proceeds for Eligible Projects, the failure to provide, or the withdrawal of, a third party opinion or certification, or any such opinion or certification attesting that the Issuer is not complying in whole or in part with any matters for which such opinion or certification is opining or certifying on, and/or the Notes ceasing to be listed or admitted to trading on any dedicated stock exchange or securities market as aforesaid or the failure by the Issuer to report on the use of proceeds or Eligible Projects as anticipated, may have a material adverse effect on the value of such Notes and/or may have consequences for certain investors with portfolio mandates to invest in green assets (which consequences may include the need to sell the Notes as a result of the Notes not falling within the investor’s investment criteria or mandate).

PRICING SUPPLEMENT AND DRAWDOWN OFFERING CIRCULARS

In this section the expression “necessary information” means, in relation to any Tranche of Notes, the necessary information which is material to an investor for making an informed assessment of the assets and liabilities, financial position, profits and losses and prospects of the Issuer and of the rights attaching to the Notes and the reasons for the issuance and its impact on the Issuer. In relation to the different types of Notes which may be issued under the Programme the Issuer has included in this Offering Circular all of the necessary information except for information relating to the Notes which is not known at the date of this Offering Circular and which can only be determined at the time of an individual issue of a Tranche of Notes.

Any information relating to the Notes which is not included in this Offering Circular and which is required in order to complete the necessary information in relation to a Tranche of Notes will be contained either in the relevant Pricing Supplement or in a Drawdown Offering Circular.

For a Tranche of Notes which is the subject of a Pricing Supplement, that Pricing Supplement will, for the purposes of that Tranche only, complete this Offering Circular and must be read in conjunction with this Offering Circular. The terms and conditions applicable to any particular Tranche of Notes which is the subject of a Pricing Supplement are the Conditions described in the relevant Pricing Supplement as amended or supplemented to the extent described in the relevant Pricing Supplement.

The terms and conditions applicable to any particular Tranche of Notes which is the subject of a Drawdown Offering Circular will be the Conditions as supplemented, amended and/or replaced to the extent described in the relevant Drawdown Offering Circular. In the case of a Tranche of Notes which is the subject of a Drawdown Offering Circular, each reference in this Offering Circular to information being specified or identified in the relevant Pricing Supplement shall be read and construed as a reference to such information being specified or identified in the relevant Drawdown Offering Circular unless the context requires otherwise.

Each Drawdown Offering Circular will be constituted either (1) by a single document containing the necessary information relating to the Issuer and the relevant Notes or (2) by a registration document containing the necessary information relating to the Issuer, a securities note containing the necessary information relating to the relevant Notes and, if necessary, a summary note.

FORMS OF THE NOTES

Bearer Notes

Each Tranche of Notes in bearer form (“Bearer Notes”) will initially be in the form of either a temporary global note in bearer form (the “Temporary Global Note”), without interest coupons, or a permanent global note in bearer form (the “Permanent Global Note”), without interest coupons, in each case as specified in the relevant Pricing Supplement. Each Temporary Global Note or, as the case may be, Permanent Global Note (each a “Global Bearer Note”) which is not intended to be issued in new global note (“NGN”) form, as specified in the relevant Pricing Supplement, will be deposited on or around the issue date of the relevant Tranche of the Notes with a depositary or a common depositary for Euroclear and/or Clearstream, Luxembourg and/or any other relevant clearing system and each Global Bearer Note which is intended to be issued in NGN form, as specified in the relevant Pricing Supplement, will be deposited on or around the issue date of the relevant Tranche of the Notes with a common safekeeper for Euroclear and/or Clearstream, Luxembourg.

On 13 June 2006 the European Central Bank (the “ECB”) announced that Notes in NGN form are in compliance with the “Standards for the use of EU securities settlement systems in ESCB credit operations” of the central banking system for the euro (the “Eurosystem”), provided that certain other criteria are fulfilled. At the same time the ECB also announced that arrangements for Notes in NGN form will be offered by Euroclear and Clearstream, Luxembourg as of 30 June 2006 and that debt securities in global bearer form issued through Euroclear and Clearstream, Luxembourg after 31 December 2006 will only be eligible as collateral for Eurosystem operations if the NGN form is used.

The relevant Pricing Supplement will indicate whether such Bearer Notes are intended to be held in a manner which would allow Eurosystem eligibility. Any indication that the Bearer Notes are to be so held does not necessarily mean that the Bearer Notes of the relevant Tranche will be recognised as eligible collateral for Eurosystem monetary policy and intra-day credit operations by the Eurosystem either upon issue or at any times during their life as such recognition depends upon satisfaction of the Eurosystem eligibility criteria.

In the case of each Tranche of Bearer Notes, the relevant Pricing Supplement will also specify whether United States Treasury Regulation §1.163-5(c)(2)(i)(C) (the “TEFRA C Rules”) or United States Treasury Regulation §1.163-5(c)(2)(i)(D) (the “TEFRA D Rules”) are applicable in relation to the Notes or, if the Notes do not have a maturity of more than 365 days, that neither the TEFRA C Rules nor the TEFRA D Rules are applicable.

Temporary Global Note exchangeable for Permanent Global Notes

If the relevant Pricing Supplement specifies the form of Notes as being “Temporary Global Note exchangeable for a Permanent Global Note”, then the Notes will initially be in the form of a Temporary Global Note which will be exchangeable, in whole or in part, for interests in a Permanent Global Note, without interest coupons, not earlier than 40 days after the issue date of the relevant Tranche of the Notes upon certification as to non-U.S. beneficial ownership. No payments will be made under the Temporary Global Note unless exchange for interests in the Permanent Global Note is improperly withheld or refused. In addition, interest payments in respect of the Notes cannot be collected without such certification of non-U.S. beneficial ownership.

Whenever any interest in the Temporary Global Note is to be exchanged for an interest in a Permanent Global Note, the Issuer shall procure (in the case of first exchange) the delivery of a Permanent Global Note, duly authenticated and, in the case of a NGN, effectuated, to the bearer of the Temporary Global Note or (in the case of any subsequent exchange) an increase in the principal amount of the Permanent Global Note in accordance with its terms against:

- (i) presentation and (in the case of final exchange) presentation and surrender of the Temporary Global Note to or to the order of the Principal Paying Agent; and
- (ii) receipt by the Principal Paying Agent of a certificate or certificates of non-U.S. beneficial ownership, within 7 days of the bearer requesting such exchange.

The principal amount of the Permanent Global Note shall be equal to the aggregate of the principal amounts specified in the certificates of non-U.S. beneficial ownership; provided, however, that in no circumstances shall the principal amount of the Permanent Global Note exceed the initial principal amount of the Temporary Global Note.

Temporary Global Note exchangeable for Definitive Notes

If the relevant Pricing Supplement specifies the form of Notes as being “Temporary Global Note exchangeable for Definitive Notes” and also specifies that the TEFRA C Rules are applicable or that neither the TEFRA C Rules or the TEFRA D Rules are applicable, then the Notes will initially be in the form of a Temporary Global Note which will be exchangeable, in whole but not in part, for Bearer Notes in definitive form (“Definitive Notes”) not earlier than 40 days after the issue date of the relevant Tranche of the Notes.

If the relevant Pricing Supplement specifies the form of Notes as being “Temporary Global Note exchangeable for Definitive Notes” and also specifies that the TEFRA D Rules are applicable, then the Notes will initially be in the form of a Temporary Global Note which will be exchangeable, in whole or in part, for Definitive Notes not earlier than 40 days after the issue date of the relevant Tranche of the Notes upon certification as to non-U.S. beneficial ownership. Interest payments in respect of the Notes cannot be collected without such certification of non-U.S. beneficial ownership.

Whenever the Temporary Global Note is to be exchanged for Definitive Notes, the Issuer shall procure the prompt delivery (free of charge to the bearer) of such Definitive Notes, duly authenticated and with Coupons and Talons attached (if so specified in the relevant Pricing Supplement), in an aggregate principal amount equal to the principal amount of the Temporary Global Note to the bearer of the Temporary Global Note against the surrender of the Temporary Global Note to or to the order of the Principal Paying Agent within 30 days of the bearer requesting such exchange.

Permanent Global Note exchangeable for Definitive Notes

If the relevant Pricing Supplement specifies the form of Notes as being “Permanent Global Note exchangeable for Definitive Notes”, then the Notes will initially be in the form of a Permanent Global Note which will be exchangeable in whole, but not in part, for Definitive Notes:

- (a) on the expiry of such period of notice as may be specified in the relevant Pricing Supplement; or
- (b) at any time, if so specified in the relevant Pricing Supplement; or
- (c) if the relevant Pricing Supplement specifies “in the limited circumstances described in the Permanent Global Note”, then if either of the following events occurs:
 - (i) Euroclear or Clearstream, Luxembourg or any other relevant clearing system is closed for business for a continuous period of 14 days (other than by reason of legal holidays) or announces an intention permanently to cease business or in fact does so; or
 - (ii) an Event of Default as defined in Condition 13 (Events of Default) occurs and the Notes become due and payable.

Whenever the Permanent Global Note is to be exchanged for Definitive Notes, the Issuer shall procure the prompt delivery (free of charge to the bearer) of such Definitive Notes, duly authenticated and with Coupons and Talons attached (if so specified in the relevant Pricing Supplement), in an aggregate principal amount equal to the principal amount of Notes represented by the Permanent Global Note to the bearer of the Permanent Global Note against the surrender of the Permanent Global Note to or to the order of the Principal Paying Agent within 30 days of the bearer requesting such exchange.

Terms and Conditions applicable to the Notes

The terms and conditions applicable to any Definitive Note will be endorsed on that Note and will consist of the terms and conditions set out under “Terms and Conditions of the Notes” below and the provisions of the relevant Pricing Supplement which complete those terms and conditions.

The terms and conditions applicable to any Note in global form will differ from those terms and conditions which would apply to the Note were it in definitive form to the extent described under “Summary of Provisions Relating to the Notes while in Global Form” below.

Legend concerning United States persons

In the case of any Tranche of Bearer Notes having a maturity of more than 365 days, the Notes in global form, the Notes in definitive form and any Coupons and Talons appertaining thereto will bear a legend to the following effect:

“Any United States person who holds this obligation will be subject to limitations under the United States income tax laws, including the limitations provided in Sections 165(j) and 1287(a) of the Internal Revenue Code.”

Registered Notes

Each Tranche of Notes in registered form (“Registered Notes”), will be represented by either individual note certificates in registered form (“Individual Note Certificates”) or a global note in registered form (a “Global Registered Note”), in each case as specified in the relevant Pricing Supplement.

In a press release dated 22 October 2008, “Evolution of the custody arrangement for international debt securities and their eligibility in Eurosystem credit operations”, the ECB announced that it has assessed the new holding structure and custody arrangements for registered notes which the ICSDs had designed in cooperation with market participants and that Notes to be held under the new structure (the “New Safekeeping Structure” or “NSS”) would be in compliance with the “Standards for the use of EU securities settlement systems in ESCB credit operations” of the Eurosystem, subject to the conclusion of the necessary legal and contractual arrangements. The press release also stated that the new arrangements for Notes to be held in NSS form will be offered by Euroclear and Clearstream, Luxembourg as of 30 June 2010 and that registered debt securities in global registered form issued through Euroclear and Clearstream, Luxembourg after 30 September 2010 will only be eligible as collateral in Eurosystem operations if the New Safekeeping Structure is used.

The relevant Pricing Supplement will indicate whether such Registered Notes are intended to be held in a manner which would allow Eurosystem eligibility. Any indication that the Registered Notes are to be so held does not necessarily mean that the Registered Notes of the relevant Tranche will be recognised as eligible collateral for Eurosystem monetary policy and intra-day credit operations by the Eurosystem either upon issue or at any times during their life as such recognition depends upon satisfaction of the Eurosystem eligibility criteria.

Each Global Registered Note will either be: (a) in the case of a Note which is not to be held under the New Safekeeping Structure, registered in the name of a common depositary (or its nominee) for Euroclear and/or Clearstream, Luxembourg and/or any other relevant clearing system and the relevant Global Registered Note will be deposited on or about the issue date with the common depositary and will be exchangeable for Individual Note Certificates in accordance with its terms; or (b) in the case of a Note to be held under the New Safekeeping Structure, be registered in the name of a common safekeeper (or its nominee) for Euroclear and/or Clearstream, Luxembourg and/or any other relevant clearing system and the relevant Global Registered Note will be deposited on or about the issue date with the common safekeeper for Euroclear and/or Clearstream, Luxembourg and will be exchangeable for Individual Note Certificates in accordance with its terms.

If the relevant Pricing Supplement specifies the form of Notes as being “Individual Note Certificates”, then the Notes will at all times be represented by Individual Note Certificates issued to each Noteholder in respect of their respective holdings.

Global Registered Note exchangeable for Individual Note Certificates

If the relevant Pricing Supplement specifies the form of Notes as being “Global Registered Note exchangeable for Individual Note Certificates”, then the Notes will initially be in the form of a Global Registered Note which will be exchangeable in whole, but not in part, for Individual Note Certificates:

- (i) on the expiry of such period of notice as may be specified in the relevant Pricing Supplement; or

- (ii) at any time, if so specified in the relevant Pricing Supplement; or
- (iii) if the relevant Pricing Supplement specifies “in the limited circumstances described in the Global Registered Note”, then if either of the following events occurs:
 - (a) if Euroclear, Clearstream, Luxembourg or any other relevant clearing system is closed for business for a continuous period of 14 days (other than by reason of legal holidays) or announces an intention permanently to cease business or in fact does so; or
 - (b) an Event of Default (as defined in Condition 13 (Events of Default)) occurs and the Notes become due and payable.

Whenever a Global Registered Note is to be exchanged for Individual Note Certificates, the Issuer shall procure that Individual Note Certificates will be issued in an aggregate principal amount equal to the principal amount of the Global Registered Note within five business days of the delivery, by or on behalf of the registered holder of the Global Registered Note to the Registrar of such information as is required to complete and deliver such Individual Note Certificates against the surrender of the Global Registered Note at the specified office of the Registrar.

Such exchange will be effected in accordance with the provisions of the Trust Deed and the Agency Agreement and the regulations concerning the transfer and registration of Notes scheduled to the Agency Agreement and, in particular, shall be effected without charge to any holder, but against such indemnity as the Registrar may require in respect of any tax or other duty of whatsoever nature which may be levied or imposed in connection with such exchange.

Terms and Conditions applicable to the Notes

The terms and conditions applicable to any Individual Note Certificate will be endorsed on that Individual Note Certificate and will consist of the terms and conditions set out under “Terms and Conditions of the Notes” below and the provisions of the relevant Pricing Supplement which complete those terms and conditions.

The terms and conditions applicable to any Global Registered Note will differ from those terms and conditions which would apply to the Note were it in definitive form to the extent described under “Summary of Provisions Relating to the Notes while in Global Form” below.

USE OF PROCEEDS

The net proceeds from each issue of Notes will, unless otherwise specified in the relevant Pricing Supplement, be used by the Issuer for the general financing purposes of the Group or, in respect of any Notes which are issued as Green Bonds, in accordance with the Issuer's Green Finance Framework (available to view on the Issuer's website at www.p3parks.com/investors) in effect at the time of issuance of the Green Bonds, to finance or re-finance, in whole or in part, a portfolio of eligible assets ("Eligible Projects").

The Issuer may amend or update the Issuer's Green Finance Framework in the future. Any changes to the Issuer's Green Finance Framework will be publicly announced on the Issuer's website.

Unless specifically incorporated by reference into this Offering Circular, information (including the Issuer's Green Finance Framework and Second-Party Opinion from Sustainalytics B.V.) contained on the website does not form part of, or be deemed to be incorporated in, this Offering Circular.

See "Risk Factors—Risks Relating to the Notes—Notes issued as Green Bonds with a specific use of proceeds, may not meet investor expectations or requirements" for further details.

two rates which appear on the Relevant Screen Page as of the Relevant Time on the relevant Interest Determination Date, where:

- (A) one rate shall be determined as if the relevant Interest Period were the period of time for which rates are available next shorter than the length of the relevant Interest Period; and
- (B) the other rate shall be determined as if the relevant Interest Period were the period of time for which rates are available next longer than the length of the relevant Interest Period;

provided, however, that if no rate is available for a period of time next shorter or, as the case may be, next longer than the length of the relevant Interest Period, then the Calculation Agent shall calculate the Rate of Interest at such time and by reference to such sources as the Issuer determines appropriate, in consultation with an Independent Adviser appointed by the Issuer, and such Independent Adviser acting in good faith and in a commercially reasonable manner;

- (iii) in any other case, the Calculation Agent will determine the arithmetic mean of the Reference Rates which appear on the Relevant Screen Page as of the Relevant Time on the relevant Interest Determination Date; and the Rate of Interest for such Interest Period shall be the sum of the Margin and the rate or (as the case may be) the arithmetic mean so determined; provided, however, that if the Calculation Agent is unable to determine a rate or (as the case may be) an arithmetic mean in accordance with the above provisions in relation to any Interest Period, the Rate of Interest applicable to the Notes during such Interest Period will be the sum of the Margin and the rate or (as the case may be) the arithmetic mean last determined in relation to the Notes in respect of a preceding Interest Period.

- (d) ISDA Determination: If ISDA Determination is specified in the relevant Pricing Supplement as the manner in which the Rate(s) of Interest is/are to be determined, the Rate of Interest applicable to the Notes for each Interest Period will be the sum of the Margin and the relevant ISDA Rate where “ISDA Rate” in relation to any Interest Period means a rate equal to the Floating Rate (as defined in the ISDA Definitions) that would be determined by the Calculation Agent under an interest rate swap transaction if the Calculation Agent were acting as Calculation Agent for that interest rate swap transaction under the terms of an agreement incorporating the ISDA Definitions and under which:

- (ii) the Designated Maturity (as defined in the ISDA Definitions) is a period specified in the relevant Pricing Supplement;
- (iii) the relevant Reset Date (as defined in the ISDA Definitions) is either (A) the first day of that Interest Period or (B) as specified in the relevant Pricing Supplement;
- (iv) if applicable, the “Applicable Benchmark”, “Fixing Day”, “Fixing Time” and/or any other items specified in the relevant Pricing Supplement are as specified in the relevant Pricing Supplement; and
- (v) if Linear Interpolation is specified as applicable in respect of an Interest Period in the applicable Pricing Supplement, the rate for such Interest Period shall be calculated by the Calculation Agent by straight-line linear interpolation by reference to two rates based on the relevant Floating Rate Option, where:
 - (A) one rate shall be determined as if the Designated Maturity were the period of time for which rates are available next shorter than the length of the relevant Interest Period; and

- (B) the other rate shall be determined as if the Designated Maturity were the period of time for which rates are available next longer than the length of the relevant Interest Period provided, however, that if there is no rate available for a period of time next shorter than the length of the relevant Interest Period or, as the case may be, next longer than the length of the relevant Interest Period, then the Calculation Agent shall calculate the Rate of Interest at such time and by reference to such sources as the Issuer, in consultation with an Independent Adviser appointed by the Issuer, and such Independent Adviser acting in good faith and in a commercially reasonable manner, determines appropriate.

(e) Interest – Floating Rate Notes referencing SONIA

- (i) This Condition 7(e) is applicable to the Notes only if the Floating Rate Note Provisions are specified in the relevant Pricing Supplement as being applicable and the “Reference Rate” is specified in the relevant Pricing Supplement as being “SONIA”.
- (ii) Where “SONIA” is specified as the Reference Rate in the Pricing Supplement, the Rate of Interest for each Interest Period will, subject as provided below, be Compounded Daily SONIA plus or minus (as specified in the relevant Pricing Supplement) the Margin, all as determined by the Calculation Agent.
- (iii) For the purposes of this Condition 7(e):

“Compounded Daily SONIA”, with respect to an Interest Period, will be calculated by the Calculation Agent on each Interest Determination Date in accordance with the following formula, and the resulting percentage will be rounded, if necessary, to the fourth decimal place, with 0.00005 being rounded upwards:

“d” means the number of calendar days in:

- (i) where “Lag” is specified as the Observation Method in the relevant Pricing Supplement, the relevant Interest Period; or
- (ii) where “Observation Shift” is specified as the Observation Method in the relevant Pricing Supplement, the relevant Observation Period;

“do” means the number of London Banking Days in:

- (i) where “Lag” is specified as the Observation Method in the relevant Pricing Supplement, the relevant Interest Period; or
- (ii) where “Observation Shift” is specified as the Observation Method in the relevant Pricing Supplement, the relevant Observation Period;

“i” means a series of whole numbers from one to do, each representing the relevant London Banking Day in chronological order from, and including, the first London Banking Day in:

- (i) where “Lag” is specified as the Observation Method in the relevant Pricing Supplement, the relevant Interest Period; or
- (ii) where “Observation Shift” is specified as the Observation Method in the relevant Pricing Supplement, the relevant Observation Period;

to, and including, the last London Banking Day in such period;

“Interest Determination Date” means, in respect of any Interest Period, the date falling p London Banking Days prior to the Interest Payment Date for such Interest Period (or the date falling p London Banking Days prior to such earlier date, if any, on which the Notes are due and payable).

“London Banking Day” or “LBD” means any day on which commercial banks are open for general business (including dealing in foreign exchange and foreign currency deposits) in London;

“ni” for any London Banking Day “i”, in the relevant Interest Period or Observation Period (as applicable) is the number of calendar days from, and including, such London Banking Day “i” up to, but excluding, the following London Banking Day;

“Observation Period” means, in respect of an Interest Period, the period from, and including, the date falling “p” London Banking Days prior to the first day of such Interest Period (and the first Interest Period shall begin on and include the Interest Commencement Date) and ending on, but excluding, the date which is p London Banking Days prior to the Interest Payment Date for such Interest Period (or the date falling p London Banking Days prior to such earlier date, if any, on which the Notes become due and payable);

“p” for any Interest Period or Observation Period (as applicable), means the number of London Banking Days specified as the “Lag Period” or the “Observation Shift Period” (as applicable) in the relevant Pricing Supplement;

“SONIA Reference Rate” means, in respect of any London Banking Day, a reference rate equal to the daily Sterling Overnight Index Average (“SONIA”) rate for such London Banking Day as provided by the administrator of SONIA to authorised distributors and as then published on the Relevant Screen Page (or if the Relevant Screen Page is unavailable, as otherwise is published by such authorised distributors) on the London Banking Day immediately following such London Banking Day; and

“SONIAi” means the SONIA Reference Rate for:

- (i) where “Lag” is specified as the Observation Method in the relevant Pricing Supplement, the London Banking Day falling “p” London Banking Days prior to the relevant London Banking Day “i”; or
- (ii) where “Observation Shift” is specified as the Observation Method in the relevant Pricing Supplement; the relevant London Banking Day “i”;

For the avoidance of doubt, the formula for the calculation of Compounded Daily SONIA only compounds the SONIA Reference Rate in respect of any London Banking Day. The SONIA Reference Rate applied to a day that is a non-London Banking Day will be taken by applying the SONIA Reference Rate for the previous London Banking Day but without compounding.

- (iv) If, in respect of any London Banking Day in the relevant Interest Period or Observation Period (as applicable), the Calculation Bank determines that the SONIA Reference Rate is not available on the Relevant Screen Page or has not otherwise been published by the relevant authorised distributors, such SONIA Reference Rate shall, subject to Condition 7(n) (Benchmark Replacement (Independent Adviser)), be:
 - (A) the Bank of England’s Bank Rate (the “Bank Rate”) prevailing at close of business on the relevant London Banking Day; plus (B) the mean of the spread of the SONIA Reference Rate to the Bank Rate over the previous five London Banking Days on which a SONIA Reference Rate has been published, excluding the highest spread (or, if there is more than one highest spread, one only of those highest spreads) and lowest spread (or, if there is more than one lowest spread, one only of those lowest spreads) to the Bank Rate; or
 - (B) if the Bank Rate is not published by the Bank of England at close of business on the relevant London Banking Day, the SONIA Reference Rate published on the Relevant Screen Page (or otherwise published by the relevant authorised distributors) for the first preceding London Banking Day on which the SONIA

Reference Rate was published on the Relevant Screen Page (or otherwise published by the relevant authorised distributors).

- (v) Subject to Condition 7(n) (Benchmark Replacement(Independent Adviser)), if the Rate of Interest cannot be determined in accordance with the foregoing provisions of this Condition 7(e), the Rate of Interest shall be (A) that determined as at the last preceding Interest Determination Date (though substituting, where a different Margin is to be applied to the relevant Interest Period from that which applied to the last preceding Interest Period, the Margin relating to the relevant Interest Period, in place of the Margin relating to that last preceding Interest Period) or (B) if there is no such preceding Interest Determination Date, the initial Rate of Interest which would have been applicable to the Notes for the first Interest Period had the Notes been in issue for a period equal in duration to the scheduled first Interest Period but ending on (and excluding) the Interest Commencement Date (but applying the Margin applicable to the first Interest Period).

(f) Interest – Floating Rate Notes referencing SOFR

- (i) This Condition 7(f) is applicable to the Notes only if the Floating Rate Note Provisions are specified in the relevant Pricing Supplement as being applicable and the “Reference Rate” is specified in the relevant Pricing Supplement as being “SOFR”.
- (ii) Where “SOFR” is specified as the Reference Rate in the Pricing Supplement, the Rate of Interest for each Interest Period will, subject as provided below, be the Benchmark plus or minus (as specified in the relevant Pricing Supplement) the Margin, all as determined by the Calculation Agent on each Interest Determination Date.
- (iii) For the purposes of this Condition 7(f):

“Benchmark” means Compounded SOFR, which is a compounded average of daily SOFR, as determined for each Interest Period in accordance with the specific formula and other provisions set out in this Condition 7(f).

Daily SOFR rates will not be published in respect of any day that is not a U.S. Government Securities Business Day, such as a Saturday, Sunday or holiday. For this reason, in determining Compounded SOFR in accordance with the specific formula and other provisions set forth herein, the daily SOFR rate for any U.S. Government Securities Business Day that immediately precedes one or more days that are not U.S. Government Securities Business Days will be multiplied by the number of calendar days from and including such U.S. Government Securities Business Day to, but excluding, the following U.S. Government Securities Business Day.

If the Issuer determines that a Benchmark Transition Event and its related Benchmark Replacement Date have occurred in respect of Compounded SOFR (or the daily SOFR used in the calculation hereof) prior to the relevant SOFR Determination Time, then the provisions under Condition 7(f)(iv) below will apply.

“Business Day” means any weekday that is a U.S. Government Securities Business Day and is not a legal holiday in New York and each (if any) Additional Business Centre(s) and is not a date on which banking institutions in those cities are authorised or required by law or regulation to be closed;

“Compounded SOFR” with respect to any Interest Period, means the rate of return of a daily compound interest investment computed in accordance with the following formula (and the resulting percentage will be rounded, if necessary, to the nearest one hundred-thousandth of a percentage point, with 0.000005 being rounded upwards to 0.00001):

“d” is the number of calendar days in:

- (ii) Subject to Condition 7(f)(iv) below, if the rate specified in (i) above does not so appear, the Secured Overnight Financing Rate as published in respect of the first preceding U.S. Government Securities Business Day for which the Secured Overnight Financing Rate was published on the SOFR Administrator’s Website;

“SOFR Administrator” means the Federal Reserve Bank of New York (or a successor administrator of the Secured Overnight Financing Rate);

“SOFR Administrator’s Website” means the website of the Federal Reserve Bank of New York, or any successor source;

“SOFRI” means the SOFR for:

- (i) where “Lag” is specified as the Observation Method in the applicable Pricing Supplement, the U.S. Government Securities Business Day falling “p” U.S. Government Securities Business Days prior to the relevant U.S. Government Securities Business Day “i”; or
- (ii) where “Observation Shift” is specified as the Observation Method in the relevant Pricing Supplement, the relevant U.S. Government Securities Business Day “i”; and

- (iv) If the Issuer determines on or prior to the relevant Reference Time that a Benchmark Transition Event and its related Benchmark Replacement Date have occurred with respect to the then-current Benchmark, the Benchmark Replacement will replace the then-current Benchmark for all purposes relating to the Notes in respect of all determinations on such date and for all determinations on all subsequent dates. In connection with the implementation of a Benchmark Replacement, the Issuer will have the right to make Benchmark Replacement Conforming Changes from time to time, without any requirement for the consent or approval of the Trustee or Noteholders.

Any determination, decision or election that may be made by the Issuer pursuant to this section, including any determination with respect to a tenor, rate or adjustment or of the occurrence or non-occurrence of an event, circumstance or date and any decision to take or refrain from taking any action or any selection:

- (i) will be conclusive and binding absent manifest error;
- (ii) will be made in the sole discretion of the Issuer; and
- (iii) notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the documentation relating to the Notes, shall become effective without consent from the holders of the Notes or any other party.

“Benchmark” means, initially, Compounded SOFR, as such term is defined above; provided that if the Issuer determines on or prior to the Reference Time that a Benchmark Transition Event and its related Benchmark Replacement Date have occurred with respect to Compounded SOFR (or the published daily SOFR used in the calculation thereof) or the then-current Benchmark, then “Benchmark” shall mean the applicable Benchmark Replacement.

“Benchmark Replacement” means the first alternative set forth in the order below that can be determined by the Issuer as of the Benchmark Replacement Date:

- (i) the sum of: (A) the alternate rate of interest that has been selected or recommended by the Relevant Governmental Body as the replacement for the then-current Benchmark and (B) the Benchmark Replacement Adjustment;
- (ii) the sum of: (A) the ISDA Fallback Rate and (B) the Benchmark Replacement Adjustment; or

- (iii) the sum of: (A) the alternate rate of interest that has been selected by the Issuer as the replacement for the then-current Benchmark giving due consideration to any industry-accepted rate of interest as a replacement for the then-current Benchmark for U.S. dollar-denominated floating rate notes at such time and (B) the Benchmark Replacement Adjustment;

“Benchmark Replacement Adjustment” means the first alternative set forth in the order below that can be determined by the Issuer or its designee as of the Benchmark Replacement Date:

- (i) the spread adjustment, or method for calculating or determining such spread adjustment, (which may be a positive or negative value or zero) that has been selected or recommended by the Relevant Governmental Body for the applicable Unadjusted Benchmark Replacement;
- (ii) if the applicable Unadjusted Benchmark Replacement is equivalent to the ISDA Fallback Rate, the ISDA Fallback Adjustment; or
- (iii) the spread adjustment (which may be a positive or negative value or zero) that has been selected by the Issuer giving due consideration to any industry-accepted spread adjustment, or method for calculating or determining such spread adjustment, for the replacement of the then-current Benchmark with the applicable Unadjusted Benchmark Replacement for U.S. dollar-denominated floating rate notes at such time;

“Benchmark Replacement Conforming Changes” means, with respect to any Benchmark Replacement, any technical, administrative or operational changes (including changes to the timing and frequency of determining rates and making payments of interest, rounding of amounts or tenors, and other administrative matters) that the Issuer decides may be appropriate to reflect the adoption of such Benchmark Replacement in a manner substantially consistent with market practice (or, if the Issuer decides that adoption of any portion of such market practice is not administratively feasible or if the Issuer determines that no market practice for use of the Benchmark Replacement exists, in such other manner as the Issuer determines is reasonably necessary);

“Benchmark Replacement Date” means the earliest to occur of the following events with respect to the then-current Benchmark (including the daily published component used in the calculation thereof):

- (ii) in the case of clause (iii) of the definition of “Benchmark Transition Event,” the date of the public statement or publication of information referenced therein.

For the avoidance of doubt, if the event that gives rise to the Benchmark Replacement Date occurs on the same day as, but earlier than, the Reference Time in respect of any determination, the Benchmark Replacement Date will be deemed to have occurred prior to the Reference Time for such determination;

“Benchmark Transition Event” means the occurrence of one or more of the following events with respect to the then-current Benchmark (including the daily published component used in the calculation thereof):

- (i) a public statement or publication of information by or on behalf of the administrator of the Benchmark (or such component) announcing that such administrator has ceased or will cease to provide the Benchmark (or such component), permanently or indefinitely, provided that, at the time of such statement or publication, there is no successor administrator that will continue to provide the Benchmark (or such component); or

- (ii) a public statement or publication of information by the regulatory supervisor for the administrator of the Benchmark (or such component), the central bank for the currency of the Benchmark (or such component), an insolvency official with jurisdiction over the administrator for the Benchmark (or such component), a resolution authority with jurisdiction over the administrator for the Benchmark (or such component) or a court or an entity with similar insolvency or resolution authority over the administrator for the Benchmark, which states that the administrator of the Benchmark (or such component) has ceased or will cease to provide the Benchmark (or such component) permanently or indefinitely, provided that, at the time of such statement or publication, there is no successor administrator that will continue to provide the Benchmark (or such component); or
- (iii) a public statement or publication of information by the regulatory supervisor for the administrator of the Benchmark announcing that the Benchmark is no longer representative;

“ISDA Fallback Adjustment” means the spread adjustment (which may be a positive or negative value or zero) that would apply for derivatives transactions referencing the ISDA Definitions to be determined upon the occurrence of an index cessation event with respect to the Benchmark;

“ISDA Fallback Rate” means the rate that would apply for derivatives transactions referencing the ISDA Definitions to be effective upon the occurrence of an index cessation date with respect to the Benchmark for the applicable tenor excluding the applicable ISDA Fallback Adjustment;

“Reference Time” with respect to any determination of the Benchmark means (i) if the Benchmark is Compounded SOFR, the SOFR Determination Time, and (ii) if the Benchmark is not Compounded SOFR, the time determined by the Issuer after giving effect to the Benchmark Replacement Conforming Changes;

“Relevant Governmental Body” means the Federal Reserve Board and/or the Federal Reserve Bank of New York, or a committee officially endorsed or convened by the Federal Reserve Board and/or the Federal Reserve Bank of New York or any successor thereto; and “Unadjusted Benchmark Replacement” means the Benchmark Replacement excluding the Benchmark Replacement Adjustment.

- (v) Any Benchmark Replacement, Benchmark Replacement Adjustment and the specific terms of any Benchmark Replacement Conforming Changes, determined under Condition 7(f)(iv) above will be notified promptly by the Issuer to the Trustee, the Calculation Agent, the Paying Agents and, in accordance with Condition 20 (Notices), the Noteholders. Such notice shall be irrevocable and shall specify the effective date on which such changes take effect.

No later than notifying the Trustee of the same, the Issuer shall deliver to the Trustee a certificate signed by two authorised signatories of the Issuer:

- (A) confirming (x) that a Benchmark Transition Event has occurred, (y) the relevant Benchmark Replacement and, (z) where applicable, any Benchmark Replacement Adjustment and/or the specific terms of any relevant Benchmark Replacement Conforming Changes, in each case as determined in accordance with the provisions of this Condition 7(f); and
- (B) certifying that the relevant Benchmark Replacement Conforming Changes are necessary to ensure the proper operation of such Benchmark Replacement and/or Benchmark Replacement Adjustment.

- (vi) If the Rate of Interest cannot be determined in accordance with the foregoing provisions of this Condition 7(f), the Rate of Interest shall be (A) that determined as at the last preceding Interest Determination Date (though substituting, where a different Margin is to be applied to the relevant Interest Period from that which applied to the last preceding Interest Period, the Margin relating to the relevant Interest Period, in place of the Margin relating to that last preceding Interest Period) or (B) if there is no such preceding Interest Determination Date, the initial Rate of Interest which would have been applicable to the Notes for the first Interest Period had the Notes been in issue for a period equal in duration to the scheduled first Interest Period but ending on (and excluding) the Interest Commencement Date (but applying the Margin applicable to the first Interest Period).

- (ii) Where “€STR” is specified as the Reference Rate in the Pricing Supplement, the Rate of Interest for each Interest Period will, subject as provided below, be Compounded Daily €STR plus or minus (as specified in the relevant Pricing Supplement) the Margin, all as determined by the Calculation Agent on each Interest Determination Date.
- (iii) For the purposes of this Condition 7(g):

“p” for any latest Interest Period or Observation Period (as applicable), means the number of TARGET Settlement Days specified as the “Lag Period” or the “Observation Shift Period” (as applicable) in the relevant Pricing Supplement.

- (iv) Subject to Condition 7(n) (Benchmark Replacement (Independent Adviser)), if, where any Rate of Interest is to be calculated pursuant to Condition 7(g)(ii) above, in respect of any TARGET Settlement Day in respect of which an applicable €STR reference rate is required to be determined, such €STR reference rate is not made available on the Relevant Screen Page or has not otherwise been published by the relevant authorised distributors, then the €STR reference rate in respect of such TARGET Settlement Day shall be the €STR reference rate for the first preceding TARGET Settlement Day in respect of which €STR reference rate was published by the European Central Bank on its website, as determined by the Calculation Agent.
- (v) Subject to Condition 7(n) (Benchmark Replacement (Independent Adviser)), if the Rate of Interest cannot be determined in accordance with the foregoing provisions of this Condition 7(g)(ii), the Rate of Interest shall be (A) that determined as at the last preceding Interest Determination Date (though substituting, where a different Margin is to be applied to the relevant Interest Period from that which applied to the last preceding Interest Period, the Margin relating to the relevant Interest Period, in place of the Margin relating to that last preceding Interest Period) or (B) if there is no such preceding Interest Determination Date, the initial Rate of Interest which would have been applicable to the Notes for the first Interest Period had the Notes been in issue for a period equal in duration to the scheduled first Interest Period but ending on (and excluding) the Interest Commencement Date (but applying the Margin applicable to the first Interest Period).

(h) Interest – SONIA Compounded Index and SOFR Compounded Index

Where “Index Determination” is specified in the relevant Pricing Supplement as being applicable, the Rate of Interest for each Interest Period will be the compounded daily reference rate for the relevant Interest Period, calculated in accordance with the following formula:

and rounded to the Relevant Decimal Place, plus or minus the Margin (if any), all as determined and calculated by the Calculation Agent, where:

“Compounded Index” shall mean either the SONIA Compounded Index or the SOFR Compounded Index, as specified in the relevant Pricing Supplement;

“d” is the number of calendar days from (and including) the day on which the relevant Compounded Index Start is determined to (but excluding) the day on which the relevant Compounded Index End is determined;

“End” means the relevant Compounded Index value on the day falling the Relevant Number of Index Days prior to the Interest Payment Date for such Interest Period, or such other date on which the relevant payment of interest falls due (but which by its definition or the operation of the relevant provisions is excluded from such Interest Period);

“Index Days” means, in the case of the SONIA Compounded Index, London Banking Days, and, in the case of the SOFR Compounded Index, U.S. Government Securities Business Days;

“Numerator” means, in the case of the SONIA Compounded Index, 365 and, in the case of the SOFR Compounded Index, 360;

“Relevant Decimal Place” shall, unless otherwise specified in the Pricing Supplement, be the fifth decimal place in the case of the SONIA Compounded Index and the seventh decimal place in the case of the SOFR Compounded Index, in each case rounded up or down, if necessary (with 0.000005 or, as the case may be, 0.00000005 being rounded upwards); and “Relevant Number” is as specified in the applicable Pricing Supplement, but, unless otherwise specified shall be five.

“SONIA Compounded Index” means the Compounded Daily SONIA rate as published at 10:00 (London time) by the Bank of England (or a successor administrator of SONIA) on the Bank of England’s Interactive Statistical Database, or any successor source;

“SOFR Compounded Index” means the Compounded Daily SOFR rate as published at 15:00 (New York time) by Federal Reserve Bank of New York (or a successor administrator of SOFR) on the website of the Federal Reserve Bank of New York, or any successor source; and “Start” means the relevant Compounded Index value on the day falling the Relevant Number of Index Days prior to the first day of the relevant Interest Period.

Provided that a Benchmark Event has not occurred in respect of the relevant Compounded Index, if, with respect to any Interest Period, the relevant rate is not published for the relevant Compounded Index either on the relevant Start or End date, then the Calculation Agent shall calculate the rate of interest for that Interest Period as if Index Determination was not specified in the applicable Pricing Supplement and as if Compounded Daily SONIA or Compounded Daily SOFR (as defined in Condition 7(e) or Condition 7(f), as applicable) had been specified instead in the Pricing Supplement, and in each case “Observation Shift” had been specified as the Observation Method in the relevant Pricing Supplement, and where the Observation Shift Period for the purposes of that definition in Condition 7(e) or Condition 7(f) (as applicable) shall be deemed to be the same as the Relevant Number specified in the Pricing Supplement and where, in the case of Compounded Daily SONIA, the Relevant Screen Page will be determined by the Issuer. For the avoidance of doubt, if a Benchmark Event has occurred in respect of the relevant Compounded Index, the provisions of Condition 7(n) (Benchmark Discontinuation (Independent Adviser)) shall apply.

- (i) Maximum or Minimum Rate of Interest: If any Maximum Rate of Interest or Minimum Rate of Interest is specified in the relevant Pricing Supplement, then the Rate of Interest shall in no event be greater than the maximum or be less than the minimum so specified.
- (j) Calculation of Interest Amount: The Calculation Agent will, as soon as practicable after the time at which the Rate of Interest is to be determined in relation to each Interest Period, calculate the Interest Amount payable in respect of each Note for such Interest Period. The Interest Amount will be calculated by applying the Rate of Interest for such Interest Period to the Calculation Amount, multiplying the product by the relevant Day Count Fraction, rounding the resulting figure to the nearest sub-unit of the Specified Currency (half a sub-unit being rounded upwards) and multiplying such rounded figure by a fraction equal to the Specified Denomination of the relevant Note divided by the Calculation Amount. For this purpose a “sub-unit” means, in the case of any currency other than euro, the lowest amount of such currency that is available as legal tender in the country of such currency and, in the case of euro, means one cent.
- (k) Publication: The Calculation Agent will cause each Rate of Interest and Interest Amount determined by it, together with the relevant Interest Payment Date, and any other amount(s) required to be determined by it together with any relevant payment date(s) to be notified to the Paying Agents and each competent authority, stock exchange and/or quotation system (if any) by which the Notes have then been admitted to listing, trading and/or quotation as soon as practicable after such determination. Notice thereof shall also promptly be given to the Noteholders. The Calculation Agent will be entitled to recalculate any Interest Amount (on the basis of the foregoing provisions) without notice in the event of an extension or shortening of the relevant Interest Period. If the Calculation Amount is less than the minimum Specified Denomination the Calculation Agent shall not be obliged to publish each Interest Amount but instead may publish only the Calculation Amount and the Interest Amount in respect of a Note having the minimum Specified Denomination.
- (l) Notifications etc: All notifications, opinions, determinations, certificates, calculations, quotations and decisions given, expressed, made or obtained for the purposes of this Condition by the Calculation Agent will (in the absence of manifest error) be binding on the Issuer, the Paying Agents, the Noteholders and the Couponholders and (subject as aforesaid) no liability to any such Person will attach to the Calculation Agent in connection with the exercise or non-exercise by it of its powers, duties and discretions for such purposes.
- (m) Determination of Rate of Interest following acceleration: If (i) the Notes become due and payable in accordance with Condition 13 (Events of Default) and (ii) the Rate of Interest for the Interest Period during which the Notes become due and payable is to be determined by reference to any of Conditions 7(e), 7(f), 7(g) and 7(h), then the final Interest Determination Date shall be the date on which the Notes become so due and payable, and such Rate of Interest shall continue to apply to the Notes for so long as interest continues to accrue thereon as provided in the Trust Deed.
- (n) Benchmark Replacement (Independent Adviser)

Other than in the case of a U.S. dollar-denominated floating rate Note for which the Reference Rate is specified in the relevant Pricing Supplement as being “SOFR” or where “SOFR Compounded Index” is specified in the Pricing Supplement as the Index Determination, if a Benchmark Event occurs in relation to the Reference Rate when the Rate of Interest (or any component part thereof) for any Interest Period remains to be determined by reference to such Reference Rate, then the Issuer shall use its reasonable endeavours to appoint an Independent Adviser, as soon as reasonably practicable, to determine a Successor Rate, failing which an Alternative Rate (in accordance with Condition 7(n)(i)) and, in either case, an Adjustment Spread, if any (in accordance with Condition 7(n)(ii)) and any Benchmark Amendments (in accordance with Condition 7(n)(iii)).

In the absence of bad faith or fraud, the Independent Adviser shall have no liability whatsoever to the Issuer, the Trustee, Agents or the Noteholders for any determination made by it pursuant to this Condition 7(n)) and the Trustee will not be liable for any loss, liability, cost, charge or expense which may arise as a result thereof:

- (i) If the Independent Adviser determines in its discretion that:
 - (A) there is a Successor Rate, then such Successor Rate shall (subject to adjustment as provided in Condition 7(n)(ii)) subsequently be used in place of the Reference Rate to determine the Rate of Interest (or the relevant component part(s) thereof) for the relevant Interest Period and all following Interest Periods, subject to the subsequent operation of this Condition 7(n) in the event of a further Benchmark Event affecting the Successor Rate; or
 - (B) there is no Successor Rate but that there is an Alternative Rate, then such Alternative Rate shall (subject to adjustment as provided in Condition 7(n)(ii)) subsequently be used in place of the Reference Rate to determine the Rate of Interest (or the relevant component part(s) thereof) for the relevant Interest Period and all following Interest Periods, subject to the subsequent operation of this Condition 7(n) in the event of a further Benchmark Event affecting the Alternative Rate.
- (ii) If the Independent Adviser determines in its discretion (A) that an Adjustment Spread is required to be applied to the Successor Rate or the Alternative Rate (as the case may be) and (B) the quantum of, or a formula or methodology for determining, such Adjustment Spread, then such Adjustment Spread shall apply to the Successor Rate or the Alternative Rate (as the case may be).
- (iii) If any relevant Successor Rate, Alternative Rate or Adjustment Spread is determined in accordance with this Condition 7(n) and the Independent Adviser determines in its discretion (i) that amendments to these Conditions are necessary to ensure the proper operation of such Successor Rate, Alternative Rate and/or Adjustment Spread (such amendments, the “Benchmark Amendments”) and (ii) the terms of the Benchmark Amendments, then the Issuer shall, following consultation with the Calculation Agent (or the person specified in the relevant Pricing Supplement as the party responsible for calculating the Rate of Interest and the Interest Amount(s)), subject to giving notice thereof in accordance with Condition 7(n)(iv), without any requirement for the consent or approval of relevant Noteholders, vary these Conditions to give effect to such Benchmark Amendments with effect from the date specified in such notice (and for the avoidance of doubt, the Trustee shall, at the direction and expense of the Issuer, effect such consequential amendments to the Trust Deed, the Agency Agreement and these Conditions as may be required in order to give effect to this Condition 7(n)). No consent of the Noteholders shall be required in connection with effecting any Benchmark Amendments or such other changes, including the execution of any documents or other steps required to be taken by the Trustee or the Agents (if required) in relation to such amendments.
- (iv) If (A) the Issuer is unable to appoint an Independent Adviser or (B) the Independent Adviser appointed by it fails to determine a Successor Rate or, failing which, an Alternative Rate in accordance with this Condition 7(n) prior to the relevant Interest Determination Date, the Reference Rate applicable to the relevant Interest Period shall be the Reference Rate applicable as at the last preceding Interest Determination Date. If there has not been a first Interest Payment Date, the Reference Rate shall be the Reference Rate applicable to the first Interest Period. For the avoidance of doubt, any adjustment pursuant to this Condition 7(n)(iv) shall apply to the relevant Interest Period only. Any subsequent Interest Period may be subject to the subsequent operation of this Condition 7(n) (Benchmark Replacement (Independent Adviser)).
- (v) Any Successor Rate, Alternative Rate, Adjustment Spread and the specific terms of any Benchmark Amendments, determined under this Condition 7(n) will be notified promptly by the Issuer to the Trustee, the Calculation Agent, the Paying Agents and, in accordance with Condition 20 (Notices), the Noteholders. Such notice shall be irrevocable and shall specify the effective date of the Benchmark Amendments, if any.

- (vi) No later than notifying the Trustee and the Agents of the same, the Issuer shall deliver to the Trustee and the Agents a certificate signed by two authorised signatories of the Issuer:
 - (A) confirming, in the Issuer's reasonable opinion (following consultation with the Independent Adviser, if such adviser is appointed in accordance with this Condition 7(n)), (x) that a Benchmark Event has occurred, (y) the relevant Successor Rate, or, as the case may be, the relevant Alternative Rate and, (z) where applicable, any relevant Adjustment Spread and/or the specific terms of any relevant Benchmark Amendments, in each case as determined in accordance with the provisions of this Condition 7(n); and
 - (B) certifying that the relevant Benchmark Amendments are necessary to ensure the proper operation of such relevant Successor Rate, Alternative Rate and/or Adjustment Spread.

The Trustee and the Agents shall be entitled to rely on such certificate (without further enquiry and without liability to any person) as sufficient evidence thereof.

- (vii) The Successor Rate or Alternative Rate and the Adjustment Spread (if any) and the Benchmark Amendments (if any) specified in such certificate will (in the absence of manifest error or bad faith in the determination of such Successor Rate or Alternative Rate and such Adjustment Spread (if any) and such Benchmark Amendments (if any)) be binding on the Issuer, the Trustee and Principal Paying Agent, the Calculation Agent, the other Paying Agents and the Noteholders.

- (viii) As used in this Condition 7(n):

"Adjustment Spread" means either a spread (which may be positive, negative or zero), or the formula or methodology for calculating a spread, in either case, which the Independent Adviser determines is required to be applied to the relevant Successor Rate or the relevant Alternative Rate (as the case may be) and is the spread, formula or methodology which:

- (A) in the case of a Successor Rate, is formally recommended, or formally provided as an option for parties to adopt, in relation to the replacement of the Reference Rate with the Successor Rate by any Relevant Nominating Body; or
- (B) (if no such recommendation has been made, or in the case of an Alternative Rate), the Independent Adviser, determines is customarily applied to the relevant Successor Rate or Alternative Rate (as the case may be) in international debt capital markets transactions to produce an industry-accepted replacement rate for the Reference Rate; or
- (C) (if no such determination has been made) the Independent Adviser determines, is recognised or acknowledged as being the industry standard for over-the-counter derivative transactions which reference the Reference Rate, where such rate has been replaced by the Successor Rate or the Alternative Rate (as the case may be); or
- (D) (if the Independent Adviser determines that no such industry standard is recognised or acknowledged) the Independent Adviser determines, to be appropriate to reduce or eliminate, to the extent reasonably practicable in the circumstances, any economic prejudice or benefit (as the case may be) to Noteholders as a result of the replacement of the Reference Rate with the Successor Rate or the Alternative Rate (as the case may be).

"Alternative Rate" means an alternative benchmark or screen rate which the Independent Adviser determines in accordance with this Condition 7(n) is customary in market usage

- (C) a public statement by the supervisor of the administrator of the relevant Reference Rate that such Reference Rate has been or will, by a specified future date (the “Specified Future Date”), be permanently or indefinitely discontinued; or
- (D) a public statement by the supervisor of the administrator of the relevant Reference Rate that means that such Reference Rate will, by a specified future date (the “Specified Future Date”), be prohibited from being used or that its use will be subject to restrictions or adverse consequences, either generally or in respect of the Notes; or
- (E) a public statement by the supervisor of the administrator of the relevant Reference Rate (as applicable) that, in the view of such supervisor, (i) such Reference Rate is or will, by a specified future date (the “Specified Future Date”), be no longer representative of an underlying market or (ii) the methodology to calculate such Reference Rate has materially changed; or
- (F) it has or will, by a specified date within the following six months, become unlawful for the Calculation Agent, the Issuer or any other party to calculate any payments due to be made to any Noteholder using the relevant Reference Rate (as applicable) (including, without limitation, under the Benchmarks Regulation (EU) 2016/1011 as that Regulation applies in the European Union and/or as it applies in the United Kingdom in the form retained as domestic law in the United Kingdom under the European Union (Withdrawal) Act 2018 as amended, if applicable).

Notwithstanding the sub-paragraphs above, where the relevant Benchmark Event is a public statement within sub-paragraphs (B), (C), (D), or (E) above and the Specified Future Date in the public statement is more than six months after the date of that public statement, the Benchmark Event shall not be deemed to occur until the date falling six months prior to such Specified Future Date.

“Independent Adviser” means an independent financial institution of international repute or other independent financial adviser experienced in the international capital markets, in each case appointed by the Issuer at its own expense;

“Relevant Nominating Body” means, in respect of a benchmark or screen rate (as applicable):

8. Zero Coupon Note Provisions

- (a) Application: This Condition 8 is applicable to the Notes only if the Zero Coupon Note Provisions are specified in the relevant Pricing Supplement as being applicable.
- (b) Late payment on Zero Coupon Notes: If the Redemption Amount payable in respect of any Zero Coupon Note is improperly withheld or refused, the Redemption Amount shall thereafter be an amount equal to the sum of:
 - (i) the Reference Price; and
 - (ii) the product of the Accrual Yield (compounded annually) being applied to the Reference Price on the basis of the relevant Day Count Fraction from (and including) the Issue Date to (but excluding) whichever is the earlier of (i) the day on which all sums due in respect of such Note up to that day are received by or on behalf of the relevant Noteholder and (ii) the day which is seven days after the Principal Paying Agent has notified the Noteholders that it has received all sums due in respect of the Notes up to such seventh day (except to the extent that there is any subsequent default in payment).

9. Redemption and Purchase

- (a) Scheduled redemption: Unless previously redeemed, or purchased and cancelled, the Notes will be redeemed at their Final Redemption Amount on the Maturity Date, subject as provided in Condition 10 (Payments – Bearer Notes) and Condition 11 (Payments – Registered Notes).
- (b) Redemption for tax reasons: The Notes may be redeemed at the option of the Issuer in whole, but not in part:
 - (i) at any time (if the Floating Rate Note Provisions are not specified in the relevant Pricing Supplement as being applicable); or
 - (ii) on any Interest Payment Date (if the Floating Rate Note Provisions are specified in the relevant Pricing Supplement as being applicable), on giving not less than 15 nor more than 60 days’ notice to the Noteholders, or such other period(s) as may be specified in the relevant Pricing Supplement, (which notice shall be irrevocable), at their Early Redemption Amount (Tax), together with interest accrued (if any) to the date fixed for redemption, if, immediately before giving such notice, the Issuer satisfies the Trustee that:

- (A) the Issuer has or will become obliged to pay additional amounts as provided or referred to in Condition 12 (Taxation) as a result of any change in, or amendment to, the laws or regulations of the Grand Duchy of Luxembourg or any political subdivision or any authority thereof or therein having power to tax, or any change in the application or official interpretation of such laws or regulations (including a holding by a court of competent jurisdiction), which change or amendment becomes effective on or after the date of issue of the first Tranche of the Notes; and such obligation cannot be avoided by the Issuer taking reasonable measures available to it, provided, however, that no such notice of redemption shall be given earlier than:

- (1) where the Notes may be redeemed at any time, 90 days (or such other period as may be specified in the relevant Pricing Supplement) prior to the earliest date on which the Issuer would be obliged to pay such additional amounts if a payment in respect of the Notes were then due; or
- (2) where the Notes may be redeemed only on an Interest Payment Date, 60 days (or such other period as may be specified in the relevant Pricing Supplement) prior to the Interest Payment Date occurring immediately before the earliest date on which the Issuer would be obliged to pay such additional amounts if a payment in respect of the Notes were then due.

Prior to the publication of any notice of redemption pursuant to this Condition 9(b), the Issuer shall deliver or procure that there is delivered to the Trustee (A) a certificate signed by two authorised signatories of the Issuer stating that the Issuer is entitled to effect such redemption and setting forth a statement of facts showing that the conditions precedent to the right of the Issuer so to redeem have occurred and (B) an opinion of independent legal advisers of recognised standing to the effect that the Issuer has or will become obliged to pay such additional amounts as a result of such change or amendment.

The Trustee shall be entitled to accept such certificate and opinion as sufficient evidence of the satisfaction of the circumstances set out above, in which event they shall be conclusive and binding on the Noteholders.

Upon the expiry of any such notice as is referred to in this Condition 9(b), the Issuer shall be bound to redeem the Notes in accordance with this Condition 9(b).

- (c) Redemption at the option of the Issuer: If the Call Option is specified in the relevant Pricing Supplement as being applicable, the Notes may be redeemed at the option of the Issuer in whole or, if so specified in the relevant Pricing Supplement, in part on any Optional Redemption Date (Call) on the Issuer's giving not less than 10 nor more than 60 days' notice to the Noteholders, or such other period(s) as may be specified in the relevant Pricing Supplement (which notice shall be irrevocable, but may (at the option of the Issuer) be conditional on one or more conditions precedent being satisfied, or waived by the Issuer), and shall oblige the Issuer to redeem the Notes or, as the case may be, the Notes specified in such notice on the relevant Optional Redemption Date (Call) at the applicable amount specified in the relevant Pricing Supplement (together, if appropriate, with accrued interest to (but excluding) the relevant Optional Redemption Date (Call)) at one of:

- (i) the Optional Redemption Amount (Call); or
- (ii) the Make Whole Redemption Price.

The "Make Whole Redemption Price" will, in respect of Notes to be redeemed, be:

- (i) if "Sterling Make Whole Redemption Amount" is specified as being applicable in the relevant Pricing Supplement an amount equal to the higher of (i) 100 per cent. of the principal amount of such Notes and (ii) the principal amount of such Notes multiplied by the price (expressed as a percentage), as reported in writing to the Issuer by the Determination Agent (if applicable), at which the Gross Redemption Yield to maturity (or, if applicable, to the Par Redemption Date) on such Notes on the Reference Date is equal to the sum of (x) the Gross Redemption Yield (as determined by reference to the middle market price) at the Quotation Time on the Reference Date of the Reference Bond, plus (y) the Redemption Margin, as determined by the Determination Agent; or
- (ii) if "Non-Sterling Make Whole Redemption Amount" is specified in the applicable Pricing Supplement an amount equal to the higher of (i) 100 per cent. of the principal amount of such Notes and (ii) the principal amount of such Notes

multiplied by the price (expressed as a percentage), as reported in writing to the Issuer by the Determination Agent (if applicable), at which the yield to maturity (or, if applicable, yield to the Par Redemption Date) on such Notes on the Reference Date is equal to the sum of (x) the Reference Bond Rate at the Quotation Time on the Reference Date, plus (y) the Redemption Margin, as determined by the Determination Agent, provided however that, in the case of either (i) or (ii) above, if the Optional Redemption Date (Call) occurs on or after the Par Redemption Date (if any) specified in the relevant Pricing Supplement, the Make Whole Redemption Price will be equal to 100 per cent of the principal amount of the Notes.

- (d) Partial redemption: If the Notes are to be redeemed in part only on any date in accordance with Condition 9(c) (Redemption at the option of the Issuer), in the case of Bearer Notes, the Notes to be redeemed shall be selected by the drawing of lots in such place as the Principal Paying Agent approves and in such manner as the Principal Paying Agent considers appropriate, subject to compliance with applicable law, the rules of each competent authority, stock exchange and/or quotation system (if any) by which the Notes have then been admitted to listing, trading and/or quotation and the notice to Noteholders referred to in Condition 9(c) (Redemption at the option of the Issuer) shall specify the serial numbers of the Notes so to be redeemed and, in the case of Registered Notes, each Note shall be redeemed in part in the proportion which the aggregate principal amount of the outstanding Notes to be redeemed on the relevant Optional Redemption Date (Call) bears to the aggregate principal amount of outstanding Notes on such date. If any Maximum Redemption Amount or Minimum Redemption Amount is specified in the relevant Pricing Supplement, then the Optional Redemption Amount (Call) shall in no event be greater than the maximum or be less than the minimum so specified.
- (e) Issuer Residual Call: If “Issuer Residual Call” is specified in the relevant Pricing Supplement as being applicable, and if, at any time (other than as a direct result of a redemption of some, but not all, of the Notes at the Make Whole Redemption Price at the Issuer’s option pursuant to Condition 9(c) (Redemption at the option of the Issuer)), the outstanding aggregate principal amount of the Notes is 25 per cent. or less of the aggregate principal amount of the Notes originally issued (and, for these purposes, any further Notes issued pursuant to Condition 19 (Further Issues) and consolidated with the Notes as part of the same Series shall be deemed to have been originally issued), the Issuer may redeem all (but not some only) of the remaining outstanding Notes on any date (or, if the Floating Rate Note Provisions are specified in the relevant Pricing Supplement as being applicable, on any Interest Payment Date) upon giving not less than 10 nor more than 30 days’ notice to the Noteholders (or such other notice period as may be specified in the applicable Pricing Supplement) (which notice shall specify the date for redemption and shall be irrevocable), at the Optional Redemption Amount (Residual Call) together with any accrued and unpaid interest up to (but excluding) the date of redemption. Prior to the publication of any notice of redemption pursuant to this Condition 9(e) (Issuer Residual Call), the Issuer shall deliver to the Trustee a certificate signed by two authorised signatories of the Issuer stating that the Issuer is entitled to effect such redemption and setting forth a statement of facts showing that the outstanding aggregate principal amount of the Notes is 25 per cent. or less of the aggregate principal amount of the Notes originally issued. The Trustee shall be entitled to accept such certificate as sufficient evidence of the satisfaction of the condition precedent set out above, in which event it shall be conclusive and binding on the Noteholders and the Couponholders.
- (f) Issuer Maturity Par Call: If the Maturity Par Call is specified in the relevant Pricing Supplement as being applicable, the Issuer may, on giving not less than 10 nor more than 30 days’ irrevocable notice to the Noteholders (or such other notice period as may be specified in the relevant Pricing Supplement) (which notice shall specify the date fixed for redemption), redeem all, but not some only, of the Notes at any time during the Maturity Par Call Period specified in the relevant Pricing Supplement, at the Final Redemption Amount, together with any accrued and unpaid interest up to (but excluding) the date fixed for redemption. All Notes in respect of which any such notice is given shall be redeemed on the date specified in such notice in accordance with this Condition.
- (g) Redemption at the option of Noteholders: If the Put Option is specified in the relevant Pricing Supplement as being applicable, the Issuer shall, at the option of the Holder of any Note redeem such Note on the Optional Redemption Date (Put) specified in the relevant Put Option Notice at the relevant Optional Redemption Amount (Put) together with interest (if any) accrued to such date. In order to exercise the option contained in this Condition 9(g), the Holder of a Note must, not less than 30 nor more than 60 days before the relevant Optional Redemption Date (Put) (or such other period(s) as may be specified in the relevant Pricing Supplement), deposit with any Paying Agent such Note together with all unmatured Coupons relating thereto and a duly completed Put Option Notice in the form obtainable from any Paying Agent. The Paying Agent with which a Note is so deposited shall deliver a duly completed Put Option Receipt to the depositing Noteholder. No Note, once deposited with a duly completed Put Option Notice in accordance with this Condition 9(g), may be withdrawn; provided, however, that if, prior to the relevant Optional Redemption Date (Put), any such Note becomes immediately due and payable or, upon due presentation of any such Note on the relevant Optional Redemption Date (Put), payment of the redemption moneys is improperly withheld or refused, the relevant Paying Agent shall mail notification thereof to the depositing Noteholder at such address as may have been given by such Noteholder in the relevant Put Option Notice and shall hold such Note at its Specified Office for collection by the depositing Noteholder against surrender of the relevant Put Option Receipt. For so long as any outstanding Note is held by a Paying Agent in accordance with this Condition 9(f), the depositor of such Note and not such Paying Agent shall be deemed to be the Holder of such Note for all purposes.

(h) Change of Control Put Option: If this Condition 9(h) is specified as applicable in the relevant Pricing Supplement, if at any time while any Note remains outstanding, there occurs:

- (i) a Change of Control (as defined below), and, within the Change of Control Period, a Rating Event in respect of that Change of Control occurs (such Change of Control and Rating Event not having been cured prior to the expiry of the Change of Control Period), or
- (ii) a Change of Control (as defined below), and, on the occurrence of the Change of Control, the Issuer is not rated by any Rating Agency on or before the last day of the Change of Control Period,

(each, a “Change of Control Put Event”), each Noteholder will have the option (the “Change of Control Put Option”) (unless, prior to the giving of the Change of Control Put Event Notice (as defined below), the Issuer gives notice to redeem the Notes under Condition 9(b) or (c)) to require the Issuer to redeem or, at the Issuer’s option, to procure the purchase of, all or some of its Notes, on the Optional Redemption Date (as defined below) at the principal amount outstanding of such Notes together with (or where purchased, together with an amount equal to) interest accrued to, but excluding, the Optional Redemption Date.

Where:

A “Change of Control” shall be deemed to have occurred if at any time following the Issue Date, Europe Realty Holdings Pte LTD ceases, directly and/or indirectly to:

- (a) have the power (whether by way of ownership of shares, proxy, contract, agency or otherwise) to:
 - (i) cast, or control the casting of, more than 50 per cent, of the maximum number of votes that might be cast at a general meeting of the Issuer; or
 - (ii) appoint or remove the majority of the directors or other equivalent officers of the Issuer; or
- (b) hold beneficially more than 50 per cent. of the issued share capital of the Issuer (excluding any part of that issued share capital that carries no right to participate beyond a specified amount in a distribution of either profits or capital).

A “Rating Event” shall be deemed to have occurred in respect of a Change of Control if (within the Change of Control Period) (A) the rating previously assigned to the Notes or to the Issuer by any Rating Agency solicited by (or with the consent of) the Issuer is (x) withdrawn or (y) changed from an investment grade rating BBB-/Baa3 or its equivalent for the time being, or better) to a non-investment grade rating BB+/Ba1 or its equivalent for the time being, or worse) or (z) (if the rating previously assigned to the Notes or to the Issuer by any Rating Agency solicited by (or with the consent of) the Issuer was below an investment grade rating (as described above)), lowered by at least one full rating notch (for example, from BB+ to BB, or their respective equivalents) and (B) such rating is not within the Change of Control Period subsequently reinstated (in the case of a withdrawal) or upgraded (in the case of a downgrade) either to an investment grade credit rating (in the case of (y)) or to its earlier credit rating or better (in the case of (z)) by such Rating Agency, provided that the Rating Agency making the reduction in rating announces or publicly confirms or, having been so requested by the Issuer, informs the Issuer in writing that the lowering of the rating or the failure to assign an investment grade rating was the result, in whole or in part, of the applicable Change of Control (whether or not the applicable Change of Control shall have occurred at the time of the Rating Event). If on the Relevant Announcement Date the Issuer or the Notes carry a credit rating from more than one Rating Agency, at least one of which is an investment grade rating, then sub-paragraph (z) above will not apply.

“Change of Control Period” means the period beginning on the date (the “Relevant Announcement Date”) that is the earlier of (A) the first public announcement by or on behalf of the Issuer or any bidder or any designated advisor, of the relevant Change of Control; and (B) the date of the earliest Potential Change of Control Announcement, and ending 90 days after the Relevant Announcement Date (such 90th day, the “Initial Longstop Date”); provided that, unless any other Rating Agency has on or prior to the Initial Longstop Date effected a Rating Event in respect of its rating of the Issuer or the Notes, if a Rating Agency publicly announces, at any time during the period commencing on the date which is 60 days prior to the Initial Longstop Date and ending on the Initial Longstop Date, that it has placed its rating of the Issuer or the Notes under consideration for rating review either entirely or partially as a result of the relevant public announcement of the Change of Control or Potential Change of Control Announcement, the Change of Control Period shall be extended to the date which falls 60 days after the date of such public announcement by such Rating Agency.

“Potential Change of Control Announcement” means any public announcement or statement by the Issuer, any actual or potential bidder or any designated adviser thereto relating to any specific and near-term potential Change of Control (where “near-term” shall mean that such potential Change of Control is reasonably likely to occur, or is publicly stated by the Issuer, any such actual or potential bidder or any such designated adviser to be intended to occur, within 180 days of the date of such announcement of statement).

Promptly upon the Issuer becoming aware that a Change of Control Put Event has occurred, the Issuer shall give notice (a “Change of Control Put Event Notice”) to the Noteholders and the Trustee in accordance with Condition 20 (Notices) specifying the nature of the Change of Control Put Event and the circumstances giving rise to it and the procedure for exercising the Change of Control Put Option contained in this Condition 9(h).

To exercise the Change of Control Put Option, a Noteholder must transfer or cause to be transferred its Notes to be so redeemed or purchased to the account of the Principal Paying Agent specified in the Change of Control Put Option Notice (as defined below) for the account of the Issuer within the period (the “Change of Control Put Period”) of 45 days after a Change of Control Put Event Notice is given together with a duly signed and completed notice of exercise in the then current form obtainable from the Principal Paying Agent (a “Change of Control Put Option Notice”) and in which the Noteholder may specify a bank account to which payment is to be made under this Condition 9(h).

A Change of Control Put Option Notice once given shall be irrevocable. The Issuer shall redeem or, at the option of the Issuer procure the purchase of, the Notes in respect of which the Change of Control Put Option has been validly exercised as provided above, and subject to the transfer of such Notes to the account of the Principal Paying Agent for the account of the Issuer as described above by the date which is the fifth Business Day following the end of the Change of Control Put Period (the “Optional Redemption Date”). Payment in respect of such Notes will be made on the Optional Redemption Date by transfer to the bank account specified in the Change of Control Put Option Notice.

For the avoidance of doubt, the Issuer shall have no responsibility for any cost or loss of whatever kind (including breakage costs) which the Noteholder may incur as a result of or in connection with such Noteholder’s exercise or purported exercise of, or otherwise in connection with, any Change of Control Put Option (whether as a result of any purchase or redemption arising therefrom or otherwise).

If 80 per cent. or more in principal amount of the Notes outstanding as at the date of the relevant Change of Control have been redeemed pursuant to this Condition 9(h), the Issuer may, on not less than 10 nor more than 60 days' irrevocable notice to the Noteholders in accordance with Condition 20 (Notices) given within 30 days after the Optional Redemption Date, redeem on a date to be specified in such notice at its option, all (but not some only) of the remaining Notes at their principal amount, together with interest accrued to but excluding the date of redemption.

The Trustee is under no obligation to ascertain whether a Change of Control Put Event or Change of Control or any event which could lead to the occurrence of or could constitute a Change of Control Put Event or Change of Control has occurred or to notify the Noteholders of the same and, until it shall have actual knowledge or notice pursuant to the Trust Deed to the contrary, the Trustee may assume that no Change of Control Put Event or Change of Control or other such event has occurred.

- (i) No other redemption: The Issuer shall not be entitled to redeem the Notes otherwise than as provided in paragraphs (a) to (h) above.
- (j) Early redemption of Zero Coupon Notes: Unless otherwise specified in the relevant Pricing Supplement, the Redemption Amount payable on redemption of a Zero Coupon Note at any time before the Maturity Date shall be an amount equal to the sum of:
 - (i) the Reference Price; and

In addition, the Trustee may, without the consent of the Noteholders, authorise or waive any proposed breach or breach of these Conditions, the Notes, the Trust Deed or the Agency Agreement (other than a proposed breach or breach relating to the subject of a Reserved Matter) if, in the opinion of the Trustee, the interests of the Noteholders will not be materially prejudiced thereby.

In addition, pursuant to Conditions 7(f) (Interest-Floating Rate Notes referencing SOFR) and 7(n) (Benchmark Replacement (Independent Adviser)), certain changes may be made to the interest calculation provisions of the Floating Rate Notes in the circumstances and as otherwise set out in such Conditions, without the requirement for consent of the Trustee or the Noteholders.

If the Trustee is requested to concur with the Issuer or any other party in making any modification to the Intercreditor Agreement (other than as specified in foregoing paragraph above), it shall (provided it has been indemnified and/or secured and/or prefunded to its satisfaction) only do so if instructed by an Extraordinary Resolution or a request in writing made by the holders of not less than 25 per cent. in aggregate principal amount of the Notes then outstanding. Unless and until so instructed the Trustee shall refrain from making any such modification and shall not be liable to any party for so doing.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Trustee may concur with the Issuer in making any amendment to the Intercreditor Agreement, acting pursuant to and in accordance with the terms of the Trust Deed.

- (c) Substitution: The Trust Deed contains provisions under which the Issuer's successor in business or any Subsidiary of the Issuer may, without the consent of the Noteholders, assume the obligations of the Issuer as principal debtor under the Trust Deed and the Notes provided that certain conditions specified in the Trust Deed are fulfilled.

No Noteholder shall, in connection with any substitution, be entitled to claim any indemnification or payment in respect of any tax consequence thereof for such Noteholder.

18. Enforcement

- (i) it has been so requested in writing by the Holders of at least one quarter of the aggregate principal amount of the outstanding Notes or has been so directed by an Extraordinary Resolution; and
- (ii) it has been indemnified or provided with security to its satisfaction.

No Noteholder may proceed directly against the Issuer unless the Trustee, having become bound to do so, fails to do so within a reasonable time and such failure is continuing.

19. Further Issues

The Issuer may from time to time, without the consent of the Noteholders or the Couponholders and in accordance with the Trust Deed, create and issue further notes having the same terms and conditions as the Notes in all respects (or in all respects except for the first payment of interest) so as to form a single series with the Notes. The Issuer may from time to time with the consent of the Trustee, create and issue other series of notes having the benefit of the Trust Deed.

SUMMARY OF PROVISIONS RELATING TO THE NOTES WHILE IN GLOBAL FORM

Clearing System Accountholders

In relation to any Tranche of Notes represented by a Global Bearer Note, references in the Terms and Conditions of the Notes to “Noteholder” are references to the bearer of the relevant Global Bearer Note which, for so long as the Global Bearer Note is held by a depositary or a common depositary, in the case of a Classical Global Note (“CGN”), or a common safekeeper, in the case of an NGN, for Euroclear and/or Clearstream, Luxembourg and/or any other relevant clearing system, will be that depositary or common depositary or, as the case may be, common safekeeper.

In relation to any Tranche of Notes represented by a Global Registered Note, references in the Terms and Conditions of the Notes to “Noteholder” are references to the person in whose name such Global Registered Note is for the time being registered in the Register which, for so long as the Global Registered Note is held by or on behalf of a depositary or a common depositary or a common safekeeper for Euroclear and/or Clearstream, Luxembourg and/or any other relevant clearing system, will be that depositary or common depositary or common safekeeper or a nominee for that depositary or common depositary or common safekeeper.

Each of the persons shown in the records of Euroclear and/or Clearstream, Luxembourg and/or any other relevant clearing system as being entitled to an interest in a Global Bearer Note or a Global Registered Note (each an “Accountholder”) must look solely to Euroclear and/or Clearstream, Luxembourg and/or such other relevant clearing system (as the case may be) for such Accountholder’s share of each payment made by the Issuer to the holder of such Global Bearer Note or Global Registered Note and in relation to all other rights arising under such Global Bearer Note or Global Registered Note. The extent to which, and the manner in which, Accountholders may exercise any rights arising under a Global Bearer Note or Global Registered Note will be determined by the respective rules and procedures of Euroclear and Clearstream, Luxembourg and any other relevant clearing system from time to time. For so long as the relevant Notes are represented by a Global Bearer Note or Global Registered Note, Accountholders shall have no claim directly against the Issuer in respect of payments due under the Notes and such obligations of the Issuer will be discharged by payment to the holder of such Global Bearer Note or Global Registered Note.

Conditions applicable to Global Notes

Each Global Bearer Note or Global Registered Note will contain provisions which modify the Terms and Conditions of the Notes as they apply to the Global Bearer Note or Global Registered Note. The following is a summary of certain of those provisions:

Payments: All payments in respect of the Global Bearer Note or Global Registered Note which, according to the Terms and Conditions of the Notes, require presentation and/or surrender of a Note, Note Certificate or Coupon will be made against presentation and (in the case of payment of principal in full with all interest accrued thereon) surrender of the Global Bearer Note or Global Registered Note to or to the order of any Paying Agent and will be effective to satisfy and discharge the corresponding liabilities of the Issuer in respect of the Notes. On each occasion on which a payment of principal or interest is made in respect of the Global Note, the Issuer shall procure that in respect of a CGN the payment is noted in a schedule thereto and in respect of an NGN or NSS the payment is entered pro rata in the records of Euroclear and Clearstream, Luxembourg.

Payment Business Day: In the case of a Global Bearer Note or Global Registered Note, shall be: if the currency of payment is euro, any day which is a TARGET Settlement Day and a day on which dealings in foreign currencies may be carried on in each (if any) Additional Financial Centre; or, if the currency of payment is not euro, any day which is a day on which dealings in foreign currencies may be carried on in the Principal Financial Centre of the currency of payment and in each (if any) Additional Financial Centre.

DESCRIPTION OF THE ISSUER

Overview

The Group is a leading European owner, developer and manager of prime logistics and industrial real estate active in the real estate sector for more than 20 years. It operates in ten European countries and has one of the largest logistics portfolios in Continental Europe in terms of Property Value.³ As of 31 December 2024, the Group's property portfolio consisted of 380 buildings in 184 locations situated in ten European countries, serving around 500 tenants, comprising 9,709 million sqm of GLA with an Occupancy Rate of 94 per cent., Property Value of EUR 10.0 billion and average WAULT of 6.8 years.

Further, as of 31 December 2024, the Group's portfolio comprised a land bank of approximately 3.5 million sqm. Under the applicable zoning rules, this translates into more than 1.6 million sqm of potential lettable area. In addition, the Group has contractually secured additional 1.6 million sqm of potential lettable area under exclusive options. At the same time, the Group had 11 projects under construction and an additional pipeline of eight development projects which have been approved by the Group's development committee but have not commenced construction.⁴

For the year ended 31 December 2024 and 2023, the Group had Net Rental Revenue of EUR 588.3 million and EUR 498.1 million, respectively and Annualised Headline Rent of EUR 562 million and EUR 480 million, respectively. During the same periods, the Group's profit/(loss) attributable to the owners of the Group was EUR 158.0 million and EUR (159.4) million, respectively, and its Recurring EBITDA was EUR 429.6 million and EUR 360.5 million, respectively.

As of 31 December 2024 and 2023, the Group's LTV Ratio was 46.8 per cent. and 46.3 per cent., respectively. As of 31 December 2024, the Group had 280 full-time equivalent employees.

The Group's strategy concentrates on a risk-controlled approach to the development of new properties on land with significant growth potential, in order to address the largest possible tenant base via a flexible "build-to-suit" or targeted speculative offering, thereby enabling strategic expansion into new geographies while providing a first-rate occupancy experience, tailored to tenant needs in high quality assets and key logistics locations. In addition, the Group intends to engage in selective acquisitions of strategically located properties complementing its existing portfolio. After handover of premises to a tenant, the Group remains the long-term owner and provider of proactive asset management services to ensure the properties are fit for the tenant's business requirements, growth ambitions and operations, thereby closely aligning the Group's interests with those of its customers. The Group is strongly focused on sustainability and social responsibility and it believes that its adherence to ESG principles will align its values with the values of its customers, business partners, shareholder and other stakeholders.

The Group was established in the Czech Republic in 2001 and has since then developed into a leading European logistics real estate owner, developer and manager. The Group is privately held and is ultimately wholly-owned by GIC (Realty) Private Limited (the "Ultimate Shareholder"). The Ultimate Shareholder is part of GIC, which manages Singapore's foreign reserves. See "Organisational Structure" below for more information. Strengths

The management of the Issuer believes that the Group benefits from the following key strengths:

Resilient industry growth dynamics and strong demand for logistics assets

The Group believes that its asset portfolio makes it well positioned to benefit from the ongoing shift of the retail sector towards e-commerce solutions, reorganisation of global supply chains and re-location of certain manufacturing operations back to Europe. These factors have contributed, and are expected to further contribute, to growth in demand for logistics properties from both retailers and third-party logistics providers, in particular in the vicinity of large urban centres. According to CBRE, prime European logistics rents increased by 2.51 per cent. in the year ending 31 December 2024 signalling a return to pre-pandemic stability. Similarly, demand and supply showed stabilisation in the last quarter of 2024, indicating positive prospects for improvement in 2025. For example, the e-commerce segment saw substantial growth, driven by a shift in consumer behaviour. Although this trend is currently slowing due to the macroeconomic environment and diminished demand, the Group's management is confident that the proportion of online purchases will continue to increase in the long term. In addition, a portion of production capacities that were previously relocated to Asia for cost efficiency are now returning to Europe. This trend is driven by several factors, including the narrowing cost gap due to advancements in automation and robotics, as well as increasing labour costs in Asia. Additionally, growing political risks and concerns about dependency on third-country suppliers, particularly in industries like healthcare, pharmaceuticals, and certain technology sectors, are contributing to this shift. These developments are creating pressure for greater self-sufficiency in Europe and a corresponding demand for appropriate production and storage facilities. The Group's management believes that the Group is well positioned to meet this demand.

According to management analysis, despite economic slowdown, structural tailwinds (e-commerce, near-shoring, etc.) combined with limited supply, caused by a combination of land scarcity as well as decreased speculative development of some developers, will keep vacancy levels low, and thus drive rents up.

Strategically located and diversified asset portfolio

As of 31 December 2024, the Group owned and managed a portfolio of logistics real estate assets consisting of 380 buildings in 184 locations across ten European countries,⁵ providing the Group a wide geographical diversification. At the same time, 60 per cent. share of the Group's portfolio in terms of Property Value was located in Western Europe⁶, while the remaining 40 per cent. was located in Central and Eastern ⁵ The figures do not include the UK, where the Group has assets under management only.

⁶ Germany, Spain, France, the Netherlands, Italy and Austria.

Europe.⁷ The Group's properties are also strategically located, with 59 per cent. of its portfolio in terms of Property Value being located in locations with a catchment of at least 0.5 million people within 30 minutes' drive time and 70 per cent. of its portfolio in terms of Property Value being located in locations with a catchment of at least 2 million people within one hour's drive time. In addition, many of the Group's assets are located in the vicinity of major cities and logistics centres, such as Madrid, Frankfurt, Hamburg, Rotterdam, Milan, Paris, Prague, Warsaw and Bratislava. At the same time, the Occupancy Rate of the Group's portfolio was 94 per cent., evidencing a high demand for the Group's logistics assets.

High quality and diversified tenant base generating stable and predictable rental income

Further to its well diversified asset portfolio, the Group also benefits from its diversified tenant base. As of 31 December 2024, the Group served around 500 tenants with no tenant representing more than 10 per cent. of the Group's Annualised Headline Rent as of 31 December 2024.

The Group also benefits from the financial strength of its tenants of whom several have obtained an investment-grade rating or were subsidiaries of entities having an investment-grade rating.

The Group's tenant base is also well diversified in terms of economic sectors in which the tenants operate. As of 31 December 2024, the tenants active in third party logistics represented 38 per cent. of the Annualised Headline Rent, followed by tenants active in non-food consumer goods 23 per cent., grocery distribution and wholesaling 15 per cent., automotive industry 8 per cent., light manufacturing 6 per cent. and other sectors 10 per cent.

As of 31 December 2024, tenants representing 0.6 per cent. of the Group's annual Net Rental Revenue were delayed with the payment of rent for a period exceeding 30 days. At the same time, the WAULT of the Group's portfolio was 6.8 years and the Retention Rate was 77 per cent., providing the Group with a favourable balance of future contracted income and with an opportunity to capture future rental growth.

Scale with growing portfolio

After a long period of very low funding costs, access to financing has become more restricted, which also resulted in lower market investment volumes in 2024, 2023 and 2022 compared to 2021. However, the Group continued to be active and closed EUR 557 million worth of yielding acquisitions in 2024 and signed additional acquisitions in January 2025 for EUR 19 million and continues to actively negotiate other possible acquisitions. The Group therefore believes that it is well positioned to further scale its business and operations, as it executes its growth strategy based on the development of new properties complemented by the acquisition of existing portfolios or individual assets.

Proven development capabilities and risk management

The Group also has a proven track record in the development of logistics properties and is able to manage the development process with its experienced in-house team, while employing a prudent risk-controlled approach. The Group commences the development process by performing in-depth due diligence and conducting a risk assessment before acquiring land plots for development. In order to mitigate administrative risks, the Group also generally avoids acquiring land plots not having industrial zoning in place.

When engaging general contractors, the Group uses standardised contracts ensuring clear allocation of risks, which are secured back-to-back with the lease agreements relating to the developed property. The Group also ensures appropriate policies are in place to insure the various risks associated with property during its development, as well as requiring its tenants to obtain proper insurance when performing fit-out works. During the construction phase, which customarily takes between nine and twelve months, the Group continuously monitors project spending and puts in place checks and balances to prevent unforeseen or unauthorised spending. In addition, the Group effectively monitors the entire construction supply chain to ensure that the sub-contractors are being paid on time and that long-lead items are sourced on time in order to mitigate risks of unexpected delays in the construction process as the Group considers and on-time delivery of its projects to be one of the key factors necessary to maintain its reputation among the existing and prospective tenants.

⁷ The Czech Republic, Poland, Romania and Slovakia.

In addition, as of 31 December 2024, the average pre-let rate of development projects under construction was 63 per cent. with multiple buildings being in advanced stage of negotiation with potential tenants. By consistently employing the above principles, the Group is able to maintain its strong track record of timely deliveries of new logistics assets, while limiting the risks associated with the development process.

Longstanding operator with highly experienced senior management

The Group benefits from its experienced senior management team with long experience in the industry. Combined with its history dating back to 2001, the Group and its senior management have a broad and deep knowledge of the real estate industry. In addition, local management teams in the countries in which the Group operates have extensive knowledge of their local real estate markets and maintain close contacts with the tenants. They also provide timely feedback to the Group's senior management in order to support their decision-making processes. Given the Group's and its management's experience, the Group also benefits from close business relationships with other market participants, including existing and prospective tenants, construction companies, real estate agents and other entities providing professional services to the Group.

Conservative financial policy and robust risk management

The Group maintains a conservative financial policy and has transitioned to a standalone debt structure consisting of mainly unsecured bank loans and bonds in order to increase its operational flexibility. Since December 2021, all borrowings have been made on a non-recourse basis to the shareholder and this is also the intention going forward. As of 31 December 2024, the Group's LTV Ratio amounted to 46.8 per cent. compared to 46.3 per cent. as of 31 December 2023. The Group's financial policy targets a minimum BBB or equivalent credit rating and continuously monitors its LTV Ratio, provided that the LTV may rise marginally above the targets set by the management of the Group on a short-time basis in advance of pre-approved equity contribution by the shareholder. The Group also monitors its interest coverage ratio and Net Debt / EBITDA on an ongoing basis to ensure its credit rating.

In addition, the Group maintains prudent policies to manage liquidity, refinancing, interest rate and foreign exchange risks, while also prohibiting speculations. Before concluding a lease agreement, the Group uses third-party specialists to assess the creditworthiness of potential new tenants and regularly monitors their creditworthiness during the term of a lease. The Group also maintains a cash management and liquidity policy to ensure the liquidity necessary to fund its ordinary course of business. The main source of the Group's liquidity are available cash as well as the committed EUR 750 million revolving credit facility (of which EUR 690 million remains unutilised as of the date of this Offering Circular), the committed EUR 100 million revolving credit facility (of which EUR 100 million remains unutilised as of the date of this Offering Circular), the committed EUR 100 million revolving credit facility (of which EUR 100 million remains unutilised as of the date of this Offering Circular) and another EUR 50 million cash pool overdraft limit, which are available on a short notice and can be utilised for general corporate purposes, including for funding of new acquisitions.

Well-capitalised shareholder

The Group is indirectly wholly owned by the Ultimate Shareholder, which is part of GIC. GIC is a leading global investment firm established in 1981 to secure Singapore's financial future and manages funds of well over USD 100 billion. As of 31 December 2024, the Ultimate Shareholder had around EUR 4.8 billion of equity and shareholder loans provided to the Issuer, which constitute "Subordinated Liabilities" under the Intercreditor Agreement (as defined below) in the business.

Strategies

The Group's strategy is particularly focused on:

Proactive asset management and continuous property enhancements

As of 31 December 2024, the average age of the buildings in the Group's portfolio was approximately 10 years since the date of their last major refurbishment.⁸ The buildings undergo a regular monitoring to ensure that they are suitable for their logistics operations and that any refurbishment requirements are addressed on a timely basis. The Group creates annual capital expenditure plans covering such refurbishments.

In addition, the Group engages in proactive asset management of its portfolio. It continually observes market conditions, the quality of its properties and their location to identify opportunities to drive rental growth. During the term of each lease, the Group continually communicates with its tenants to ensure that it understands their needs and addresses their concerns in a proactive and timely manner. In several CEE countries,⁹ the Group also carries out day-to-day property management services in order to deliver a positive customer experience to its tenants and to increase its Retention Rate. In most Western European countries, the Group outsources these services to third party providers. By continuously building its knowledge of tenants' businesses and their specific needs, the Group also aims to capture its tenants' prospective demand for industrial and logistics premises.

Risk-controlled land bank acquisitions and development

The Group aims to continue with development activities on the land plots included in its land bank, particularly in locations where it sees growing demand for logistics properties. The Group develops new projects both on a built-to-suit and a speculative basis. The Group's strategy is to extend its development activities and increase development volume.

The Group intends to focus on development in the countries with the highest development potential and where the Group is well-positioned with local teams in place. These countries include, but are not limited to, Spain, France, The Netherlands, Italy, Germany, Poland and the Czech Republic. In order to execute this strategy, the Group also plans to leverage the knowledge of its local teams to both increase its land bank, through additional acquisitions, as well as to strengthen business relations with potential new key tenants, primarily those operating in third-party logistics and e-commerce sectors. In the year ended 31 December 2024, the Group completed developments of 23 assets located in seven countries with a gross lettable area of 807 thousand sqm and having an underwritten asset value of EUR 898 million. The development costs (including land acquisition costs) were EUR 707 million and the Occupancy Rate was 76 per cent.

In the selected markets, in particular in Germany, where tenants have a strong preference to have lettable space available on a short notice and are not willing to wait for the construction of "built-to-suit" premises, the Group also intends to focus on speculative development, i.e., development where the Group commences construction before pre-letting the developed property. Taking into account the overall demand for logistics properties (see also "—Strengths—Resilient industry growth dynamics and strong demand for logistics assets" for more information on the demand for logistics properties), the Group believes that it is well positioned to lease such properties during their construction or shortly after their completion and has a proven track record of doing this successfully.

Selective acquisitions and disposals of properties

In addition to selective acquisitions of large portfolios, the Group also plans to acquire individual properties or smaller portfolios to capitalise on its local market expertise. The Group intends to identify potential acquisition targets using its local teams which have detailed knowledge of the logistics market and the competition landscape in their countries as well as of the needs of their tenants. With its skilled and knowledgeable local teams, the Group aims to identify assets which would complement the Group's existing portfolio and provide potentially attractive returns on its investments.

The Group is optimising returns and is improving its portfolio quality through a selective asset recycling programme targeting mature, non-strategic assets. In this context, the Group aims to dispose of a part of its assets based on the outcome of its annual internal analyses.

During 2024, the Group realised one share deal sale of one property in the Czech Republic, disposed land plots in the Czech Republic and Poland and completed minor sales of equipment.

As of 31 December 2024, assets held for sale comprised a portfolio of 17 assets in Romania, whose sale is expected to be completed in the first half of 2025, an entity with 1 asset in Italy, 4 properties in Poland, 1 property in Germany and a land plot in Serbia.

⁹ The Czech Republic, Poland, Romania and Slovakia.

The Group typically re-invests the proceeds of such disposals into opportunities with higher potential returns.

Continued focus on sustainability and social responsibility

The Group has a strong commitment to ESG and believes that its adherence to clearly defined ESG principles will align its values with the values of its customers and business partners, its shareholder and other stakeholders. The Group is committed to reducing the carbon footprint of its operations with a focus on three key environmental areas: (i) development of green buildings, (ii) increase in use of renewable energy, and (iii) improvement in energy efficiency. The Group made progress with the carbon footprint review of its portfolio and is undergoing a pilot project on carbon reduction planning for 10 assets which will help create the portfolio wide carbon reduction plan and set carbon reduction targets.

As of the date of this Offering Circular, 84 per cent. of the Group's like-for-like portfolio is certified with either BREEAM¹⁰ Very Good or better or equivalent, EPC A or B, or meet the top 15%¹¹ or NZEB -10% criteria¹². The Group continues to target a minimum of BREEAM Excellent (or equivalent or better) on all new developments however, it is progressively focusing more on the EPC rating and NZEB-10% requirements.

Improving energy efficiency remains a top priority for the Group's short- to medium-term sustainability strategy. In 2024, the Group intensified its focus on its energy performance certificate rating ("EPC Rating") and, in 2025, the Group aims to develop an EPC Rating improvement plan across its portfolio.

While the Group aims to enhance the overall EPC Rating of all its buildings, the Group aims to prioritise improvements for (i) low-performing buildings, where significant efficiency gains can be made, (ii) buildings where ESG initiatives align with tenant requirements and (iii) assets where upgrades complement regular CAPEX and equipment lifecycle replacements.

The Group actively supports production of on-site renewable electricity. The installed capacity of such photovoltaic plants was, as of 31 December 2024, 74 MW and the Group targets to increase their installed capacity to at least 100 MW by 2027.

In order to improve its energy performance, the Group is also running a project that targets to equip 90 per cent. of its properties with LED technology by 2030. As of 31 December 2024 approximately 86 per cent. of properties in the Group's portfolio measured by GLA were equipped with LED lights.

For information on the Issuer's shareholding structure, see "Shareholder and Related Party Transactions".

¹⁰ BREEAM (Building Research Establishment Environmental Assessment Method) is a sustainability assessment method for projects, infrastructures and buildings, applicable to new constructions, in-use buildings and refurbishment. Subject of BREEAM is environmental, social and economic sustainability performance of respective assets. The assessment of sustainable value is conducted within prescribed categories, such as energy, health and wellbeing, innovation, land use, materials, management, pollution, transport, waste and water. Each category is comprised of particular assessment issues with its own benchmarks and targets. The final performance of BREEAM certificate rating is calculated as the sum of the weighted category scores.

¹¹ Buildings built before 31 December 2020 belonging to the top 15% of the national building stock based on primary energy demand.

¹² Buildings built after 31 December 2020 with energy performance at least 10% better than the threshold for Nearly Zero-Energy Buildings ("NZEB") in the local market.

Recent Developments, Investments and Trends

On 27 January 2025, the Group entered into a share purchase agreement for disposal of the whole portfolio in Romania with expected completion during the first 6 months of 2025, subject to certain conditions being met.

On 30 January 2025, the Group sold all its land plots in Serbia.

Operations, Portfolio and Tenants

The Group is a leading European owner, developer and asset manager of a prime logistics property. In order to capture a growing demand for logistics space which is combined with a shortage of suitable logistics premises, the Group focuses its business on the development, acquisition and operation of logistics and industrial real estate property in attractive and strategic locations, in particular urban areas with large catchment areas as well as in key European logistics hubs. In addition, the Group also possesses substantial in-house property development capabilities and provides its tenants with asset and property management services.

As of 31 December 2024, the Group fully owned and managed a portfolio of logistics real estate assets across ten European countries, specifically the Czech Republic, Poland, France, Romania, Germany, Spain, Slovakia, Italy, the Netherlands and Austria, providing the Group with wide geographical diversification. At the same time, 60 per cent. of the Group's portfolio in terms of Property Value was located in Western Europe,¹³ while the remaining 40 per cent. was located in the Central and Eastern Europe.¹⁴ At the same time, the Group also had assets having a value of approximately EUR 0.3 billion under management in the United Kingdom, which are not owned by the Group.

The tenants leasing the logistics properties of the Group include some of the leading e-commerce players as well as several major third-party logistics providers and the Group actively seeks to maintain good business relations with its existing tenant base, while also seeking to attract prospective new tenants. The leasing process is streamlined to meet the different needs of the Group's diverse tenant base. The leasing process starts with analysing the essential requirements of the prospective tenant, such as the appropriate facility size, intended use and the preferred location. This process is handled by the Group's internal development and leasing teams in case of development of new properties and by the Group's internal asset management and leasing teams in case of yielding properties. The Group's experts subsequently continue to search for appropriate locations, which often include existing premises in its portfolio or land plots in the Group's land bank, and as the case may be, as well as alternative locations, which could be acquired for the tenant in order to meet its business needs. On a case-by case basis, the Group also cooperates with third-party letting agents to meet its existing or prospective tenants' needs.

The Group focuses on risk-controlled high quality sustainable development mostly via flexible "build-to-suit" and targeted speculative offering in order to provide first-rate occupancy experience tailored to specific requirements of tenants. The Group's flexible development capabilities allow it to provide tenants with other suitable premises, such as warehouse & light industrial assets, cold storage, data centres or last mile delivery storage, in order to meet their business requirements.

The Group has a strong commitment to ESG and believes that its adherence to clearly defined ESG principles will align its values with the values of its customers and business partners. Therefore, the Group incorporates sustainable measures into its logistics warehouses in order to help reduce its impact on the environment, minimize energy consumption and lower occupier operational costs. All new developments target a minimum of BREEAM Excellent, or equivalent. The Group has a high rate of BREEAM In-Use certifications of its current assets and continuously recertifies assets as required. In addition the Group also increasingly focuses on the EPC Rating of its buildings, aiming to improve the percentage of EPC Rating A and B buildings within the Group's portfolio.

Throughout the construction process, the Group outsources all work streams necessary for the completion of the building, including technical supervision, day-in-day-out project management, construction works to general contractors and external advisors. This cooperation is ongoing on the basis of standardised agreements ensuring clear allocations of the risks. The Group has sophisticated control systems in the form of technical advisors and a "peer review group" comprised of international experts overseeing specific areas of the construction process, thereby ensuring that the completed property is in line with various technical standards and meets the tenant's needs and specifications. The Group's in-house construction team carries out a daily oversight and management of the construction process and facilitates communication and coordination among both internal and external stakeholders participating in the construction process. Besides working with general contractors, the Group evaluates and approves subcontractors, regularly monitoring the supply chain and the ongoing project expenditure, and the time targets set out. The Group also continually enhances and refurbishes its facilities to ensure that they meet the market standard for logistics and industrial-use buildings and are suitable for their tenants' business requirements.

The Group develops its assets with the aim of being their long-term owner and manager. After the handover of premises to a tenant, it remains the owner of the property and for the entire term of a lease, it keeps close contact with the tenant through active property and/or asset management. This allows the Group to get a better understanding of its tenants' needs and to maintain a direct business relationship with each tenant, which can improve the Group's retention rate. A good knowledge of tenants' businesses puts the Group in a potentially advantageous position, as it can better capitalise on tenants' demands for additional premises, by providing them with available space in its own properties or by developing a "built-to-suit" project to meet that demand. On a case-by-case basis, the Group may also commence development of new properties with the intention to dispose of them shortly after their completion.

All buildings within the Group's portfolio undergo a regular monitoring to ensure that they meet the market standards and are suitable for the tenants' business needs and that any refurbishment requirements are addressed on a timely basis. The Group creates annual capital expenditure plans covering such refurbishments.

Land Bank

As of 31 December 2024, the Group had a land bank of approximately 3.5 million sqm. Under the applicable zoning rules, this translates into 1.6 million sqm of potential lettable area. In addition, the Group has contractually secured additional 1.6 million sqm of potential lettable area under exclusive options.

The Group's largest land bank is located in Poland, which, as of 31 December 2024, represented approximately 42 per cent of the area of the Group's land bank. As of the date of this Offering Circular, 100 per cent. of the Group's plots in its land bank have suitable planning or zoning classifications for the development of properties on a stand-alone basis or as part of larger properties, providing the Group with significant potential for its future activities. When acquiring new land plots, the Group diligently assesses potential risks associated with permitting of future developments. It also generally avoids acquisitions of agricultural land plots that would require a subsequent change of its zoning to industrial.

As of 31 December 2024, the total value of the Group's land bank was EUR 165.8 million. As of the same date, the land bank consisted of 57 per cent. of land adjacent to the Group's existing sites and of 43 per cent. of new sites. In addition, the three largest sites as measured by GLA represented 30 per cent. of the Group's total land bank.

The following table sets out a geographical split of the Group's land bank by sqm as of 31 December 2024:

Lease terms

The Group's typical lease structure includes a term of three to five years, but on a case-by-case basis, the Group may also enter into lease agreements with a shorter or a longer term. The Group's standard form lease agreement customarily include possible break options and prolongation clauses. The exercise of a break option customarily requires at least six to 12 months prior notice, giving the Group precise and early visibility on lease roll-overs. The terms of the Group's lease agreements also customarily limit the tenants' right to terminate the lease only to situations when (i) the law provides mandatory termination reasons; (ii) the Group cannot provide the premises in a fit state for the use for longer than a certain period for permitted use; or (iii) the premises are completely or partially destroyed and cannot be timely rebuilt under the terms of the casualty clause. The Group is, on the other hand, authorised to terminate the lease in case of (i) a tenant's payment default; (ii) a failure by the tenant to provide the insurance and security required under the terms of the lease agreement; (iii) a use of the leased premises in a manner not permitted under the lease agreement; or (iv) another material breach of the terms of the lease agreement.

The rent under the lease agreements is customarily denominated in euro and the service charges are invoiced in the local currencies. The Group also customarily requires tenants to provide a security in the form of a bank guarantee or cash deposit usually for three to six months' rent and/or a parent guarantee usually for the full rent until the expiry of the lease.

The Group continues its work on specific "green lease" clauses which it is introducing steadily and in cooperation with its tenants, across all its leases, as they are newly negotiated, renewed or amended in order to reflect the Group's commitment to ESG principles and in particular to facilitate the collection of energy consumption and building performance data and the gradual implementation of sustainable measures in its logistics warehouses.

Depending on technical and operational feasibility, the tenants bear the costs of consumed utilities either directly or through the landlord. Tenants are also obliged to obtain their own insurance, at their own cost, for their own operations, as required under the terms of the lease agreements, including third-party liability insurance, whereas the Group maintains insurance of the property. Maintenance, repairs and other services are either (i) provided on the basis of a fixed service charge to an agreed extent, (ii) provided on the basis of actual expenses being charged to the tenants (in most cases with service charge prepayments to be reconciled annually), or (iii) performed by the tenants. The Group typically bears the responsibility for maintaining the structural parts of the property.

As of 31 December 2024, approximately 82 per cent of the Group’s leases, in terms of Annualised Headline Rent, contained a standard annual indexation clause, subject to upward-only rent review based on the Harmonized Index of Consumer Prices data and stipulating a minimum increase in rent in each year, except for lease agreements in France and Germany in which no minimum increase is allowed by law and under which the rent can decrease during deflation. In addition, approximately 15 per cent. of the Group’s leases, in terms of Annualised Headline Rent, contained indexation trigger clauses, under which the rent shall be increased only once the index cumulatively rises to a pre-set trigger amount. In the year ended 31 December 2024, the rents subject to indexation clauses were increased on average by 4 per cent. At the same time, an average rent increase of 21 per cent. was recorded on re-leasing events.

The following table sets out a breakdown of the Group’s leases by indexation clauses in terms of Annualised Headline Rent as of 31 December 2024:

Sustainability and Environmental Matters

The Group has a strong commitment to ESG and believes that its adherence to clearly defined ESG principles will align its values with the values of its customers and business partners, its shareholder and other stakeholders. The Group is committed to preserving the climate resilience of its portfolio and reducing the carbon footprint of its operations with a focus on three key environmental areas: (i) development of green buildings, (ii) increase in use of renewable energy, and (iii) improvement in energy efficiency (see also “–Strategies–Continued focus on sustainability and social responsibility” above for additional details).

In March 2024, the Group published its ESG Progress Report and its Green Financing Impact & Allocation Report for the year 2023. The Group is planning to publish updates of both reports in 2025. The Group is currently undergoing preparations for enhancing the non-financial reporting in line with the CSRD requirements.

From 2026, the CSRD report is expected to replace the ESG Progress Report. The Group is concluding a carbon footprint review to allow it to set realistic Scope 1 & 2 (i.e. direct and indirect) greenhouse gas emissions reductions targets as well as a Scope 3 downstream leased greenhouse gas emissions target. The implementation of the Group’s ESG data management system, Deepki, began in 2023 and progressed significantly in 2024, enhancing the Group’s ability to collect, store, and analyse sustainability-related data across the Group’s portfolio. Energy consumption data collection for 2023 and 2024 across the Group’s portfolio was completed in the beginning of 2025, and the Group calculated its Scope 3 greenhouse gas emissions from the Deepki ESG data system.

The Group has policies on occupational health and safety with major focus on its construction and development works and mandatory trainings for construction teams.

The Group conducts environmental impact assessments as appropriate per the applicable in-country regulations and develops a biodiversity plan in line with BREEAM requirements for all new projects to assess and address the potential negative impact on flora, fauna and other species . In some cases, the Group goes beyond standard BREEAM requirements. In Lelystad and Emmeloord (Netherlands), it implemented additional wildlife support measures, such as small mustelid shelters and owl nesting trees. Meanwhile, in Herkenbosch (Netherlands), it installed a green wall between the development and a residential area, providing both privacy and sound insulation while enhancing greenery and insect habitats.

The Group’s yielding portfolio implements BREEAM’s waste management criteria and complies with the applicable waste management regulations. The Group is also exploring ways to reduce the embedded carbon of its buildings by piloting the use of low-embedded-carbon materials, such as wood beams, which were successfully implemented in the Rouen project, France. Moreover, on selected projects, the Group is testing sustainable curing for the industrial floor slabs to reduce energy and water usage. The Group is also testing new technologies to reduce operational carbon, such as an air source heat pump system in Jermanice, Czech Republic, which was installed in the third quarter of 2024. The Group is also working on two developments in the Netherlands, which are scheduled to be finalized in 2025, that will have fully off the grid solutions through a combination of PV panels, heat pumps, battery storage and on-site generators.

The Group is strongly committed to sustainability and has been engaged in several green initiatives. As a part of its ESG efforts, the Group was the first European logistics real estate developer to sign the UN Global Compact in 2017 and the group conforms to its ten principles, including on human rights, labour, environment, and anti-corruption; it also measures the social risk and impact of its developments and designs mitigation plans during the investment approval process.

The Group organises annual key compliance and ethics trainings and maintains clearly defined structures and processes for decision-making, led by active board members in a consultative and transparent environment. The Group is currently undergoing a review of its alignment with the Minimum Social Safeguards, driven and managed by an expert third-party. The Minimum Social Safeguards include human rights, bribery and corruption, taxation and fair competition. All elements of the Social Safeguards will be covered, with a specific focus on human rights in our own operations and supply chains. The Group already has policies and processes in place such as the integration of human rights and other ESG checks in its KYC processes, mandatory checks on all the suppliers providing high risk materials such as solar Photovoltaic (“PV”) panels, however, the Group is looking to further strengthen its processes in this area.

The review will be providing a gap analysis against the UN Guiding Principles for Business and Human Rights and the Organisation for Economic Co-operation and Development (OECD) Guidelines for Multinational Enterprises, and any gaps identified will be addressed by the third-party consultancy and embedded into business as usual by the internal teams.

In order to achieve its ESG goals, the Group has a strong foundation in place and continues to make progress, review and adjust its plans in line with the evolving regulatory and business environment.

Insurance

The Group maintains insurance protection that it considers adequate in the ordinary course of operations, including protection against material damage to its business assets caused by, among other things, fire, explosions, earthquakes, flooding and theft. Although the Group is covered by the industry standard insurance, the Issuer cannot provide any assurance that the insurance will be sufficient or provide effective coverage under all circumstances and against all hazards or liabilities to which the Group may be exposed and to which certain deductibles, limits and sub-limits will apply (see also “Risk Factors—The Group may experience material losses or damage related to its properties and such losses may not be covered by insurance” above). The Issuer believes that its policies are in accordance with customary industry practice.

Employees

The Group has experienced steady evolution in the number of employees following its acquisition (indirectly via the Shareholder) by the Ultimate Shareholder, which increased from 113 average full-time equivalent employees in 2016 to 270 average full-time equivalent employees in 2024. Material Contracts

Below is a summary of the Group's key contracts (other than those entered into in the ordinary course of business and other than the material financing arrangements described above in "–Financial Indebtedness").

Revolving Credit Facility Agreement

The Issuer is a party to a revolving credit facility agreement dated 22 December 2021 with, among others, ING Bank N.V. as agent and BNP PARIBAS, Deutsche Bank Luxembourg S.A., HSBC Continental Europe SA, J.P. Morgan AG, ING Bank, a branch of ING-DiBa AG, SMBC BANK EU AG and Crédit Agricole Corporate and Investment Bank, Singapore Branch as lenders (the “Revolving Credit Facility Agreement”). The Revolving Credit Facility Agreement provides for a revolving credit facility in the aggregate amount of EUR 750 million, which may be further increased under its terms by up to EUR 250 million. As of 31 December 2024, EUR 700 million under the Revolving Credit Facility Agreement was undrawn. In December 2022 and subsequently in December 2023, the Group chose to utilize the two extension options of the Revolving Credit Facility Agreement, and as a result the final maturity of the limit was extended by one year first to December 2027 and subsequently to December 2028. The facility can be used by the Issuer for its general corporate purposes, including repayment of existing debt, financing of acquisitions, investments and distributions to shareholders.

The obligations of the Issuer under the Revolving Credit Facility Agreement are general, senior unsecured obligations and are not guaranteed.

The Revolving Credit Facility Agreement contains financial covenants involving the regular testing of the loan to value ratio, interest cover, unencumbered assets ratio and priority debt ratio. The Revolving Credit Facility Agreement also contains restrictive covenants which, among other things, limit the Issuer’s ability to dispose of its assets or its ability to enter mergers or other corporate reconstructions. These restrictions are subject to a number of exceptions and qualifications, including: (i) prior consent of the financing banks; (ii) compliance with agreed thresholds; or (iii) occurrence of such event in the ordinary course of the Issuer’s business. The Revolving Credit Facility Agreement also contains customary event of default provisions, such as insolvency, creditors’ process, cessation of the Issuer’s business activities, triggering of which may result in mandatory prepayment of the facility.

Intercreditor Agreement

On 22 December 2021, the Issuer entered into an intercreditor agreement with the agent under the Revolving Credit Facility Agreement and the Shareholder as original subordinated creditor (as amended from time to time, the “Intercreditor Agreement”). The Trustee has acceded to the Intercreditor Agreement on 17 January 2022 and certain Additional Senior Creditors have acceded to the Intercreditor Agreement from time to time. The Intercreditor Agreement is governed by English law, and, among other things, sets out restrictions on payments under subordinated receivables. By accepting a Note, holders of the Notes deemed to have agreed to, and accepted the terms and conditions of, the Intercreditor Agreement. This Offering Circular does not restate the Intercreditor Agreement in its entirety and prospective investors should review that document to determine the rights of the holders of the Notes, and of the Trustee, under it.

In this section, “Subordinated Liabilities” means all present and future liabilities and obligations at any time owed to the Shareholder by the Borrower under any Subordinated Debt Document, both actual and contingent and whether incurred solely or jointly or as principal or surety or in any other capacity.

In this section, “Subordinated Debt Document” means, in addition to the debt documents explicitly referred to in the Intercreditor Agreement any document evidencing or constituting Financial Indebtedness (as such term is defined in the Intercreditor Agreement) incurred by the Issuer of which the Shareholder is the creditor.

In this section, “Senior Liabilities” means all present and future obligations and liabilities at any time due, owing or incurred by the Borrower to any Senior Creditor under the Senior Debt Documents, both actual and contingent and whether incurred solely or jointly or as principal or surety or in any other capacity, including any unsecured and unguaranteed instruments incurred in connection with refinancing, novation, deferral or extension of such liabilities.

In this section, “Senior Creditors” means the Revolving Credit Facility Creditors, the Notes Creditors and the Additional Senior Creditors, the “Revolving Credit Facility Creditor” means each “Finance Party”, as defined in the Revolving Credit Facility Agreement, the “Notes Creditor” means the Trustee and each Noteholder and the “Additional Senior Creditor” means each “Finance Party”, as such term is defined in the relevant agreement which was designated as “Additional Senior Facility Agreement” pursuant to the terms of the Intercreditor Agreement. In this section, “Notes Documents” means the Trust Deed and the Intercreditor Agreement.

In this section, “Event of Default” means an Event of Default as defined in the Revolving Credit Facility Agreement and an Event of Default as defined in the Trust Deed, and any such Event of Default is “continuing” if it has not been either (i) remedied or (ii) waived by the relevant Creditor Representative. In this section, “Creditor Representative” means (i) in relation to each “Finance Party” as defined in the Revolving Credit Facility Agreement, ING Bank N.V. as agent, (ii) in relation to the Notes Creditors, the Trustee and (iii) in relation to any other additional Senior Creditors, the person which has acceded to the Intercreditor Agreement as the creditor representative of those additional Senior Creditors.

The Intercreditor Agreement provides that the Subordinated Liabilities are, subject to certain exceptions set out in the Intercreditor Agreement, postponed and subordinated to the Senior Liabilities. The Intercreditor Agreement does not purport to rank any of the Senior Liabilities as between themselves.

Pursuant to the terms of the Intercreditor Agreement, payments on the Subordinated Liabilities will be regulated such that (i) any such payments must be permitted or not restricted by the terms of the Revolving Credit Facility Agreement and/or Notes Documents, (b) payments of interest and principal may not be made when an Event of Default is continuing and (c) in the case of any repayment or prepayment of principal, such payments may not be made without the prior written consent of each Creditor Representative.

Related Party Transactions

The Group is, and has been, a party to various agreements and other arrangements with certain related parties, the most significant of which are described below.

The Shareholder, all of the Group’s subsidiaries whose equity holder is the Issuer, the Ultimate Shareholder and members of the Board of Managers, are related parties to the Group. The Issuer’s policy is to enter into transactions with related parties on terms that are generally no more favourable, or no less favourable, than those available from unaffiliated third parties. Such transactions are subject to approval of the Board of Managers and based on the Issuer’s experience in the businesses in which it operates and the terms of transactions with unaffiliated third parties. The Board of Managers believes that all related party transactions met this standard at the time they occurred and were carried out on arms’ length terms.

Intragroup Loan Agreements

As of 31 December 2024, the Issuer was a borrower under loan agreements with the Shareholder, with an aggregate outstanding principal balance of EUR 1,883 million. At the same time, the accrued interest on the loans and the accrued guarantee fee amounted to EUR 239 million. All shareholder loans provided to the Issuer are subordinated to the claims of the Bondholders. Whilst as described in “Material Contracts – Intercreditor Agreement” above, the payment of interest on shareholder loans is permitted in certain circumstances and may therefore be paid, in the normal course of business, the Issuer expects interest on shareholder loans to accrue and be capitalised.

Governmental, Legal and Arbitration Proceedings

The Group may from time to time be subject to governmental, regulatory and legal or arbitral proceedings and claims. As of 31 December 2024, the Group had no provision for claims and legal costs. There are no, and during the 12 months preceding the date of this Offering Circular there have not been, any governmental, legal or arbitration proceedings (including any such proceedings which are pending or threatened of which the Issuer is aware) that may have, or have had in the recent past, significant effects on the Issuer and/or the Group’s financial position or profitability.

ISSUER MANAGEMENT

1. Overview

The Issuer has a single-tier management structure consisting of one executive director (the CEO), three independent directors, two shareholder-representative directors, and two senior Group employees (collectively, the “Board of Managers”).

The Board of Managers has mandated the following three standing committees and one ad hoc committee (the “Board Committees”): the investment committee (the “Investment Committee”), the audit committee (the “Audit Committee”), the nominations and remuneration committee (the “Nominations & Remuneration Committee”) and an ad hoc Committee established for the purposes of confirming the detailed implementation of the Board-approved finance strategy for the Company (the “ad hoc Committee”). The Board Committees have been mandated to perform certain tasks on behalf of the Board of Managers and to organise certain areas of the Board of Managers’ competence. Each of the Board Committees operates within its terms of reference.

The normal business of the Issuer is carried out on the basis of a delegation of authority framework approved by the Board of Managers, governing all aspects of the Issuer’s decision-making within the mandate set by the Board of Managers. The Issuer’s day-to-day business management resides either with the Issuer’s chief executive officer (the “Chief Executive Officer”) or is carried out on the basis of a delegation of authority to one of the Group’s Internal Committees (as defined below), or the Group’s country managers and corporate functional heads, depending on the nature and value of the decisions to be made.

The Chief Executive Officer has established the following internal committees (the “Internal Committees”) for the purposes of overseeing processes relating to the Group’s business operations: the investment, development and land acquisition committee (the “Investment Committee”), the portfolio management committee (the “Portfolio Management Committee”) and the disclosure committee (the “Disclosure Committee”). The members of the Internal Committees are appointed and recalled by the Chief Executive Officer.

2. Board of Managers

The Issuer operates under the direction and oversight of its Board of Managers. The Board of Managers is both the executive and supervisory body of the Issuer. The Board of Managers is responsible for the management of the Issuer’s operations as well as the operations of the Group and has the overall authority for the management and conduct of the Issuer’s business, strategy and development. It also supervises the general course of affairs of the Issuer and its business enterprise, taking into consideration the interests of the Group (which includes, but is not limited, to its customers, its suppliers, its employees, the Shareholder and other stakeholders) and observes the corporate social responsibility issues that are relevant to the Group.

The members of the Board of Managers are appointed by the resolution of the Shareholder exercising the powers of the general meeting (the “General Meeting”) for a term of office determined by the General Meeting in its sole discretion. Pursuant to the Issuer’s articles of association (statuts coordonnés), the Board of Managers may have one or more members.

TAXATION

The tax laws of the investor’s state and of the Issuer’s state of incorporation might have an impact on the income received from the securities. Prospective purchasers of Notes should consult their own tax advisers as to which countries’ tax laws could be relevant to acquiring, holding and disposing of Notes and receiving payments of interest, principal and/or other amounts under the Notes and the consequences of such actions under the tax laws of those countries.

The following is a general description of certain tax considerations relating to the Notes. It does not purport to be a complete analysis of all tax considerations relating to the Notes, whether in those countries or elsewhere. Prospective purchasers of Notes should consult their own tax advisers as to which countries’ tax laws could be relevant to acquiring, holding and disposing of Notes and receiving payments of interest, principal and/or other amounts under the Notes and the consequences of such actions under the tax laws of those countries. This summary is based upon the law as in effect on the date of this Offering Circular and is subject to any change in law that may take effect after such date.

FATCA

Pursuant to certain provisions of the U.S. Internal Revenue Code of 1986, commonly known as FATCA, a “foreign financial institution” may be required to withhold on certain payments it makes (“foreign passthru payments”) to persons that fail to meet certain certification, reporting, or related requirements. The Issuer may be a foreign financial institution for these purposes. A number of jurisdictions (including the Grand Duchy of Luxembourg) have entered into, or have agreed in substance to, intergovernmental agreements with the United States to implement FATCA (“IGAs”), which modify the way in which FATCA applies in their jurisdictions. Certain aspects of the application of the FATCA provisions and IGAs to instruments such as the Notes, including whether withholding would ever be required pursuant to FATCA or an IGA with respect to payments on instruments such as the Notes, are uncertain and may be subject to change. Even if withholding would be required pursuant to FATCA or an IGA with respect to payments on instruments such as the Notes, such withholding would not apply prior to the date that is two years after the publication of the final regulations defining “foreign passthru payment” and Notes issued on or prior to the date that is six months after the date on which final regulations defining “foreign passthru payments” are filed with the U.S. Federal Register generally would be “grandfathered” for purposes of FATCA withholding unless materially modified after such date (including by reason of a substitution of the Issuer). However, if additional notes (as described under “Terms and Conditions—Further Issues”) that are not distinguishable from previously issued Notes are issued after the expiration of the grandfathering period and are subject to withholding under FATCA, then withholding agents may treat all Notes, including the Notes offered prior to the expiration of the grandfathering period, as subject to withholding under FATCA. Holders should consult their own tax advisors regarding how these rules may apply to their investment in the Notes. In the event any withholding would be required pursuant to FATCA or an IGA with respect to payments on the Notes, no person will be required to pay additional amounts as a result of the withholding.

Certain Luxembourg Tax Considerations

The following information is a general description of certain Luxembourg income tax and net wealth tax considerations relating to the Notes. It does not address any other Luxembourg tax aspects of acquiring, holding or disposing of the Notes. It does not purport to be a complete analysis of all tax considerations relating to the Notes, whether in Luxembourg or elsewhere. It is included herein solely for preliminary information purposes and is not intended to be, nor should it be construed to be, legal or tax advice. Prospective investors should consult their own professional advisors as to the effects of state, local or foreign laws, including Luxembourg tax law, to which they may be subject.

This overview is based upon the Luxembourg law and regulations as in effect and as interpreted by the Luxembourg tax authorities on the date of this document and is subject to any amendments in law (or in interpretation) later introduced, whether or not on a retroactive basis. The information contained within this section is limited to withholding taxation issues, and prospective investors should not apply any information set out below to other areas, including (but not limited to) the legality of transactions involving the Notes.

The Issuer, in its capacity as debtor, is not responsible for the withholding of the tax levied in Luxembourg, if any, and therefore assumes no responsibility for the withholding of taxes at the source.

Please be aware that the residence concept described in the sub-paragraphs below applies for Luxembourg income tax assessment purposes only. Any reference in the present section to a tax, duty, levy, impost or other charge or withholding of a similar nature, or to any other concepts, refers to Luxembourg tax law and/or concepts only. Also, please note that a reference to Luxembourg income tax generally encompasses corporate income tax (impôt sur le revenu des collectivités), municipal business tax (impôt commercial communal), a solidarity surcharge (contribution au fonds pour l'emploi), as well as personal income tax (impôt sur le revenu). Holders may further be subject to net wealth tax (impôt sur la fortune) as well as other duties, levies or taxes. Corporate income tax, municipal business tax and the solidarity surcharge invariably apply to most corporate taxpayers resident in Luxembourg for tax purposes. Individual taxpayers are generally subject to personal income tax, as well as the solidarity surcharge. Under certain circumstances, where an individual taxpayer acts in the course of the management of a professional or business undertaking, municipal business tax may apply as well.

Taxation of the Holders of Notes

Resident Holders of Notes

Under Luxembourg general tax laws currently in force and subject to the law of 23 December 2005, as amended (the "Law") mentioned below, there is no withholding tax on payments of principal, premium or at arm's length interest made to Luxembourg resident holders of Notes, nor on accrued but unpaid at arm's length interest in respect of Notes, nor is any Luxembourg withholding tax payable upon redemption or repurchase of Notes held by Luxembourg resident holders of Notes.

Under the Law and the current applicable circular published by the Luxembourg tax authorities on 22 February 2023, payments of interest or similar income generated by a debt security that is publicly issued on a regulated market, made or ascribed by a paying agent established in Luxembourg to (a) an individual beneficial owner resident in Luxembourg for tax purposes, or (b) a vehicle (tax opaque or tax transparent) held by one or more individuals beneficial owners resident in Luxembourg for tax purposes if this vehicle is interposed between the paying agent and the individual(s) beneficial owner(s) specifically in order to avoid the withholding tax, are subject to a withholding tax at a rate of 20 per cent. Such withholding tax is in full discharge of income tax if the beneficial owner is an individual acting in the course of the management of his/her private wealth. Responsibility for the withholding of the tax is assumed by the Luxembourg paying agent. If interest payments under the Notes fall within the scope of the Law, such payments will be subject to withholding tax at a rate of 20 per cent.

Further, pursuant to the Law, Luxembourg resident individuals who are the beneficial owners of interest payments and other similar income made by a paying agent established outside Luxembourg, in a Member State of either the EU or the EEA, can opt to self-declare and pay a 20 per cent. levy. In such case, the 20 per cent. levy is calculated on the same amounts as for the payments made by Luxembourg resident paying agents. The option for the 20 per cent. levy must cover all interest payments made by all the paying agents located in the above-mentioned countries to the Luxembourg resident beneficial owner during the entire civil year.

Income Taxation

Non-Resident Holders of Notes

Non-resident holders of Notes, not having a permanent establishment, a permanent representative, or a fixed place of business in Luxembourg to which/whom the Notes or income therefrom are attributable, are not subject to Luxembourg income taxes on income accrued or received, redemption premiums or issue discount, under the Notes nor on capital gains realized on the disposal or redemption of the Notes.

Non-resident corporate holders of Notes or individual holders of Notes acting in the course of the management of a professional or business undertaking, who have a permanent establishment, a permanent representative, or a fixed place of business in Luxembourg to which the Notes or income therefrom are attributable are subject to Luxembourg income tax on interest accrued or received, redemption premiums or issue discounts, under the Notes and on any gains realized upon the sale or disposal, in any form whatsoever, of the Notes.

Resident Holders of Notes

Holders of Notes who are residents of Luxembourg will not be liable for any Luxembourg income tax on repayment of principal under the Notes.

A corporate holder of Notes must include any interest accrued or received, any redemption premium or issue discount, as well as any gain realized on the sale or disposal, in any form whatsoever, of the Notes, in its taxable income for Luxembourg income tax assessment purposes. The same inclusion applies to an individual holder of Notes acting in the course of the management of a professional or business undertaking. If applicable, the tax levied in accordance with the Law will be credited against the final tax liability of an individual holder of Notes.

A corporate holder of Notes that is governed by the law of 11 May 2007 on family estate management companies, as amended, or by the law of 17 December 2010 on undertakings for collective investment, as amended, or by the law of 13 February 2007 on specialized investment funds, as amended, or by the law of 23 July 2016 on reserved alternative investment funds and which does not fall under the special tax regime set out in article 48 thereof, is neither subject to Luxembourg income tax in respect of interest accrued or received, any redemption premium or issue discount, nor on gains realized on the sale or disposal, in any form whatsoever, of the Notes.

An individual holder of Notes, acting in the course of the management of his/her private wealth, is subject to Luxembourg income tax at progressive rates in respect of interest received, redemption premiums or issue discounts, under the Notes, except if (i) withholding tax has been levied on such payments in accordance with the Law, or (ii) the individual holder of the Notes has opted for the application of a 20 per cent. tax in full discharge of income tax in accordance with the Law, which applies if a payment of interest has been made or ascribed by a paying agent established in an EU Member State (other than Luxembourg), or in a Member State of the EEA (other than an EU Member State).

A gain realised by an individual holder of Notes, acting in the course of the management of his/her private wealth, upon the sale or disposal, in any form whatsoever, of Notes is not subject to Luxembourg income tax, provided this sale or disposal took place more than six months after the Notes were acquired. However, any portion of such gain corresponding to accrued but unpaid interest income is subject to Luxembourg income tax, except if tax has been levied on such interest in accordance with the Law.

An individual holder of the Notes acting in the course of the management of a professional or business undertaking must include this interest received or accrued in its taxable basis. If applicable, the tax levied in accordance with the Law will be credited against his/her final tax liability.

Net Wealth Taxation

An individual holder of Notes, whether he/she is a resident of Luxembourg or not, is not subject to Luxembourg wealth tax on such Notes.

A resident corporate holder of Notes or a non-resident corporate holder of Notes that maintains a permanent establishment, permanent representative or a fixed place of business in Luxembourg to which/whom such Notes are attributable, is subject to Luxembourg wealth tax on such Notes, except if such holder is governed by the law of 11 May 2007 on family estate management companies, as amended, or by the law of 17 December 2010 on undertakings for collective investment, as amended, or by the law of 13 February 2007 on specialised investment funds, as amended, or is a securitisation company governed by the law of 22 March 2004 on securitisation, as amended, or is a professional pension institution governed by the law of 13 July 2005, as amended, or is a capital company governed by the law of 15 June 2004 on venture capital vehicles, as amended, or is governed by the law of 23 July 2016 on reserved alternative investment funds¹⁷. A minimum net wealth tax (“MNWT”) is levied on companies having their statutory seat or central administration in Luxembourg. From the tax year 2025, the MNWT amounts to EUR 535 for a balance sheet total up to and including EUR 350,000, EUR 1,605 for a balance sheet total exceeding EUR 350,000 up to and including EUR 2 million, and EUR 4,815 for a balance sheet total exceeding EUR 2 million.

Other Taxes

In principle, neither the issuance nor the transfer, repurchase or redemption of Notes will give rise to any Luxembourg stamp duty, value added tax, issuance tax, registration tax, transfer tax or similar taxes or duties.

However, a fixed or ad valorem registration duty may be due upon the registration of the Notes in Luxembourg in the case where the Notes are physically attached to a public deed or to any other document subject to mandatory registration, as well as in case of a registration of the Notes on a voluntary basis.

Where a holder of Notes is a resident of Luxembourg for tax purposes at the time of his/her death, the Notes are included in his/her taxable estate for inheritance tax assessment purposes.

Gift tax may be due on a gift or donation of Notes if embodied in a Luxembourg deed passed in front of a Luxembourg notary or recorded in Luxembourg.

¹⁷ Please note however that securitisation companies governed by the law of 22 March 2004 on securitisation, as amended, capital companies governed by the law of 15 June 2004 on venture capital vehicles, as amended, professional pension institutions governed by the law of 13 July 2005, as amended, and reserved alternative investment funds governed by the law of 23 July 2016 falling under the special tax regime set out under article 48 thereof may, under certain conditions, be subject to minimum net wealth tax.

Any such agreement will, inter alia, make provision for the form and terms and conditions of the relevant Notes, the price at which such Notes will be subscribed by the Dealer(s) and the commissions or other agreed deductibles (if any) payable or allowable by the Issuer in respect of such subscription. The Dealer Agreement makes provision for the resignation or termination of appointment of existing Dealers and for the appointment of additional or other Dealers either generally in respect of the Programme or in relation to a particular Tranche of Notes.

The relevant Dealers will be entitled in certain circumstances to be released and discharged from their obligations in respect of a proposed issue of Notes under or pursuant to the Dealer Agreement prior to the closing of the issue of such Notes, including in the event that certain conditions precedent are not delivered or met to their satisfaction on or before the issue date of such Notes. Conflicts of Interest

8. Certain of the Dealers and their affiliates have engaged, and may in the future engage, in investment banking and/or commercial banking transactions with, and may perform services for the Issuer and its affiliates in the ordinary course of business. Certain of the Dealers and their affiliates may have positions, deal or make markets in the Notes issued under the Programme, related derivatives and reference obligations, including (but not limited to) entering into hedging strategies on behalf of the Issuer and its affiliates, investor clients, or as principal in order to manage their exposure, their general market risk, or other trading activities.
9. In addition, in the ordinary course of their business activities, the Dealers and their affiliates may make or hold a broad array of investments and actively trade debt and equity securities (or related derivative securities) and financial instruments (including bank loans) for their own account and for the accounts of their customers. Such investments and securities activities may involve securities and/or instruments of the Issuer and its affiliates. Certain of the Dealers or their affiliates that have a lending relationship with the Issuer routinely hedge their credit exposure to the Issuer and its affiliates consistent with their customary risk management policies. Typically, such Dealers and their affiliates would hedge such exposure by entering into transactions which consist of either the purchase of credit default swaps or the creation of short positions in securities, including potentially the Notes issued under the Programme. Any such positions could adversely affect future trading prices of Notes issued under the Programme. The Dealers and their affiliates may also make investment recommendations and/or publish or express independent research views in respect of such securities or financial instruments and may hold, or recommend to clients that they acquire, long and/or short positions in such securities and instruments.
